SATURDAY was disapoointing for us because we wanted to play with a chance of going top, but the weather made that impossible. Tonight we return to action in the cup with a Wembley final place stake.

I will start by saying thank you to our fans. The last two games have both been away from home and we have had amazing support for the team. At Leicester it was special to see so many people follow Swindon away, and you made so much noise all the way through the game. So to everyone who went to Leicester and sung your hearts out – thank you.

The FA Cup is a special competition and your support for the team ten days ago did the players proud. The lads put on a great first half display and worked very hard. In the second half we couldn't quite match those standards but we can look back on what has been a special run in the competition this season.

Last Tuesday night we went to Southend, a long way to go but we knew it would be a crucial game in our season. There were team changes with Ronan Murray coming into the line-up in place of Alan Connell and he worked very hard, causing Southend many problems with his running. Luke Rooney, Callum Kennedy and Jonathan Smith also came back into the side and they did well. I have told players who have not been in the team to stay positive, keep working hard and that their chance will come. Tuesday night's selection proved this and we have many options in the squad to choose from. Overall it was a fantastic team display, one to be proud of on a collective level not just from individual players. My players worked hard all game and it was good to see everyone so full of energy just days after the FA Cup game.

The win at Southend helped us into the automatic promotion places and the challenge now is to keep going and maintain the pressure on the other teams around us. We want to win the division and I believe we can do it.

Saturday was a difficult day for everybody connected with the club. A lot of hard work went in from a lot of staff to try and get the game against Burton to go ahead but unfortunately the weather - with the cold conditions - meant that the pitch was not playable.

Tonight we return to the Johnstone's Paint Trophy and after a tough first leg at Barnet we are looking to make home advantage count with a victory to make sure we go to Wembley. I never played there as a player and hopefully we will be able to go as a club - not as tourists - to compete for some silverware in the final against Chesterfield.

Your support can help us to achieve that ambition tonight.

"Saturday's postoonement was disappointing but we must now focus on the cup and make sure we secure a place at Wembley in the final."

- the captain -

WITH no weekend match following the postponement of the Burton game, we have had a bit more time to prepare for a very important one tonight.

AT Leicester last Saturday we were unfortunate not to get anything but it was a good day all round for everyone involved with the club. I thought we were unlucky not to get something from the game but our fans were fantastic before, during and after the game.

Saturday was a taste of life at Championship level and I thought we coped with things quite well. Leicester have strength in depth and we as players relished playing at a big stadium on a quality surface. I would like to play as high as I can – like everyone here – and of course the aim is to get automatic promotion so it was good to test ourselves against a Championship side.

On Tuesday we took all three points at Southend United but the difference between that game and Leicester was that we made the most of our chances. In the end it was quite a comfortable victory and we scored some good goals. The game started quite open and we created some decent chances. There was quite a bit of space defensively from Southend's point of view and we managed to get through them.

I have to mention Paul Benson as he was pivotal to our play in midweek and he had a great game. He didn't get a goal on the night but did everything with a hardworking performance. It was great to score four goals as we had been getting a bit of stick from the home fans.

On Saturday afternoon we were left without a game following the postponement of the Burton game, despite the best efforts of the groundstaff. It was a bit frustrating and as players we wanted the game on but these things happen. No blame could be put on the match referee as he came down and gave it every chance. Unfortunately we were unable to play but there was a positive from the day as Plymouth came from behind to draw at home against Southend United which helped our league position a little. We knew on Saturday that we could have gone top but I am sure we will have plenty more chances to reach the top with so many key home games coming up against the likes of Crawley Town and Shrewsbury Town.

> "We took all three points at Southend United but the difference between that game and Leicester was that we made the most of our chances."

Now we can focus on Barnet and we will respect them as it was a close game at their place but we fancy our chances against anyone at The County Ground. The Johnstone's Paint Trophy is a competition we want to win and hopefully we will have a big crowd in to cheer us on to a place in the final against Chesterfield.

'it's a sell-out'

SWINDON Town fans queued through the night on Friday to secure tickets for the big derby meeting at Oxford United on Saturday 3rd March.

WITH such a small allocation, a group of Town fans made sure they were first in the queue to make sure they had a ticket for what is viewed as a key date in the 2012 diary.

A queue began to form at around 7pm last Friday evening with a number of supporters choosing to set up camp outside the STFC Box Office to be sure of a ticket. Despite the adverse temperatures which went down to minus ten overnight, spirits remained high with the numbers continuing to build through into the early hours. Town staff were on hand to hand out complimentary hot beverages to keep the spirits high.

The doors to the STFC Box Office opened at around 8.30am with supporters then able to secure their seats for the big game. There was interest from local media too, with BBC Wiltshire broadcasting live and the Swindon Advertiser on site as the queues snaked towards the Football in the Community office.

Tickets sold-out at around 1pm which means a total allocation of 1,252 will be at The Kassam Stadium to cheer on the Reds.

The club are hoping to announce details of a beamback facility for fans to watch the game at The CG.

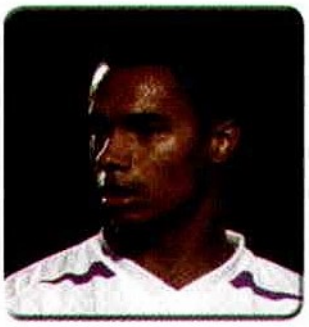
Jordan Obita...

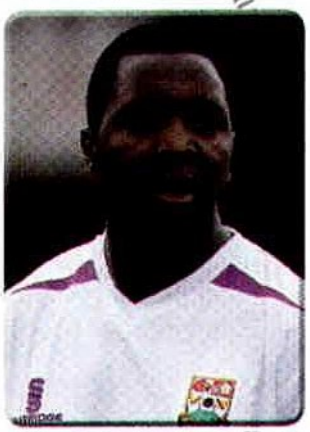
THE midfielder arrived on loan at the end of January from Reading, where he came through the Academy ranks and made his first team debut for the Royals as a 16-year old. Obita came off the bench in the Carling Cup tie at Torquay United in 2010. He then made a start against Charlton Athletic at The Valley in the same competition before signing for Barnet to get further experience at first team level. He made his debut for the Bees in the recent home win over Crewe.



Charlie Taylor...

BARNET signed Sutton United striker on the last day of the August transfer window in 2010. The frontman had impressed for the Ryman Premier club, the side from which Nicky Bailey joined the Bees. 26-year old Taylor has mainly been used as an impact player off the bench for Barnet and has two goals to his name so far this term..

Alassane N'Diaye...



THE 21-year old Frenchman should be well known to Swindon fans after spending a brief spell on loan at The County Ground last term. Signed by then manager Paul Hart, the midfielder played six times for the Robins but couldn't prevent relegation into League 2. N'Diaye was released by Crystal Palace in the summer and joined the Bees on a short-term deal in November, making his debut at Bristol Rovers in November after a short spell with Southend United.

Liam O'Brien...

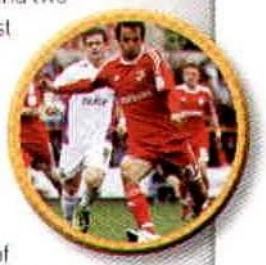
RUISLIP-born goalkeeper O'Brien joined Barnet on a permanent contract after beginning his career with Portsmouth. He left Pompey in January to link up with the Bees for training before penning a permanent deal. The England Under-19 international had a loan spell with Eastbourne last season, but played in just one game - a 4-0 defeat at Barrow.

Call for support

BARNET boss Lawrie Sanchez is hoping for a bumper away following this evening to back the Bees to victory. Sanchez issued a pre-match appeal to Barnet fans to make the trip to The County Ground despite the game being televised live on Sky Sports.

He said: "I hope not too many of our fans are dissuaded by the live TV coverage. Support for the team could be a vital ingredient on the night."

Head to Head



THERE have been six previous meetings between tonight's teams with two victories apiece for each side and two draws. The first meeting at The County Ground back in August 2006 - a 2-1 home win - saw the likes of Paul Warhurst, Andy Hessenthaler, Jason Puncheon and Giuliano Grazioli in the Barnet side.

McLeod's goal target

SINCE joining Barnet in November 2010, striker Izale McLeod has hit 30 goals in 51 league starts for the Bees.

Barnet boss Lawrie Sanchez told the club's official website: "His goals per games record is outstanding. I said earlier in the season that getting 30 goals was a suitable target for him and he is on course to achieve that feat."

lawrie sanchez the gaffer

CONFIRMED as the new manager of Barnet on May 13, 2011, Lawrie Sanchez has achieved unprecedented results for teams he has managed. He led Wycombe Wanderers to the FA Cup semi-finals and lifted Northern Ireland nearly 100 places in the FIFA rankings.

After entering Wembley folklore with the Wimbledon goal that beat Liverpool in the 1988 FA Cup final, he returned to the Dons after a spell in charge of Sligo Rovers. He took the Irish outfit to the Cup Winners Cup before managing Wimbledon's reserves and stepping up to first team coach. At Wycombe, Sanchez inherited a team at the bottom of the old Second Division. They avoided the drop and two seasons later, Sanchez inspired a run to the Cup semi-finals. Sanchez left Wycombe in 2003 having become the longest-serving manager in their history. Northern Ireland were ranked 124th in the World and had not scored a goal for over 1,200 minutes when Lawrie took charge in 2004. By the time he left, Ireland were top of their Euro 2008 qualifying group and were 27th in the World, an all-time high. While still manager of Northern Ireland, he answered the call of Fulham and kept them in the Premier League before leaving at the end of 2007.

AFTER a weekend of training without a match, Town's players are raring to go ahead of tonight's Johnstone's Paint Trophy Area Final second leg with a Wembley place the reward for the winners...

Jonathan Smith

AFTER slamming home his third goal of the campaign at Southend United seven days ago, midfielder Jonathan Smith is more determined than ever to help the Robins to promotion this term.

Smith, a summer recruit from York City, has been a regular in the Town side this term and was recalled to the starting eleven at Roots Hall. It's been a busy campaign for the 25-year old, who remains focused on success this term.

He said: "We are pleased with the way things have gone but we will not take our foot off the pedal. League 2 success is what we wanted at the beginning of the season and that goal won't change.

"We have a great squad of players here and we are all pushing each other on and being competitive. Reaching Wembley would be fantastic and we will work hard to beat Barnet to get there."

Lee Cox

NEW signing Lee Cox could make his home debut this evening, in what would also be his first game in the competition this term.

Cox came through the youth ranks at Leicester City before joining Inverness Caledonian Thistle where he enjoyed an established stay in Scotland.

"On a personal level I can't wait to get my career here up and running. I am pleased to have got everything sorted and it will be great to get out there and play at The County Ground.

"I enjoyed my time in Scotland and Terry Butcher was very good to me. He took me under his wing a little bit and I learned a lot from him.

"Now it's a totally different challenge here with Swindon and it's going to be exciting."

FANS' FACEBOOK MATCH PREDICTIONS:

Matty Edwards: Swindon 2 Barnet 0

Jakey Cook: I'm going for 3-0 to the Town

Ralph Austin: This will be a tight game with Town just doing enough to win 2-1

Calvin Hothi: Unfortunately I will miss the game but I'm going for a 3-0 win with Benson and Rooney scoring Ben Nicholls: 3-1 Town!

Referee: Darren Deadman

Fact: Tonight's man in the middle took charge of the League Two play off final last year which saw Stevenage secure promotion with a victory over Torquay United.

BARNET were also without a game on Saturday afternoon after their visit to Oxford United in League 2 fell victim to the weather. The Bees will need no motivation to get a result this evening...

Lawrie Sanchez

MANAGER Lawrie Sanchez has praised the efforts of his players in reaching the Southern Area Final, but now wants his charges to go one step better.

Sanchez scored the winner for Wimbledon against Liverpool in the 1988 FA Cup final and is hoping to lead his players out at the national stadium in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy final.

And after a 1-1 draw between Barnet and Swindon in the first leg, the winners of tonight's encounter will face League 1 side Chesterfield in the final of the competition.

He said: "There can't have been many times when Barnet were just one match from an appearance at Wembley Stadium."

"The first leg at Underhill ended in a draw and I feel we are on the cusp of making some history, but I'm sure Swindon think the same!"

Mark Hughes

BARNET captain Mark Hughes is hoping to equal his best ever goalscoring record in a season and help his side to victory this evening at The County Ground.

28-year old Hughes, who scored the equalizer in the first leg at Underhill, is eager to make an impact with a place at Wembley the reward for tonight's victors.

He said: "It was important for us to still be in the tie by the time the second leg came around and with my headed goal we managed to do that.

"The most I've scored in a season is four and I'm on three at the moment, so I can't think of a better time to add to that total. We've a few players now who can chip in with a goal or two and lighten the burden on Izale McLeod who has been fantastic for us this season."

Gabz STFC Mason: 3-0 Town
Diego Fernando Preiti: A 3-0 Swindon win
Jacob Clarke: Swindon Town 2 Barnet 1

ASSISTANT groundsman James Rae talks about his time at the Town so far, Saturday's postponement and playing against the first team in pre-season...

Saturday setback...

The postponement at the weekend against Burton was a disappointing one for everyone at the club but the elements got the better of us. We called in an outside company to help defrost areas of the playing surface, but with such low temperatures on Friday night we were unable to get the go ahead. The referee had a look at the pitch at 10am on Saturday and the game was then called off.

Swindon support...

I have been a Town fan all my life but it doesn't run in the family as my Grandad used to play for Celtic so that has had a big influence. My first real memory of coming to a game here is the home game against Newcastle United in the Premier League. The game ended in a 2-2 draw I think!

> "Thankfully we had a bit of help as it takes about ten people to cover the entire playing surface."

Between the sticks...

Football has been my main sport and my first club was Southampton, where I played alongside the likes of Gareth Bale, Theo Walcott and Adam Lallana. I then joined the Centre of Excellence at Swindon and joined the club at 15 but Iffy Onuora said I was too small to make it as a 'keeper so didn't take me on as a youth team scholar. I then joined AFC Bournemouth before coming back up to Swindon and taking a break from the game. I am currently signed on for Swindon Supermarine and played for them against Swindon in pre-season! I though: I had a worldy! We lost 4-0 though...

match action:

four down one

ONLY 90 minutes and 11 players in amber now stand between Swindon Town and a trip to Wembley. Here's is how the Robins have made it through to the Southern Area Final...

WHEN Paolo Di Canio announced his intentions in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy earlier in the season there was no hint of the cup run that would follow and lead us to tonight's winner-takes-all second leg.

"I hope we can do well in the competition," said the Italian before his side had even kicked a ball in the tournament. "It is perhaps the only realistic chance of winning a cup," he continued enthusiastically. Few listened, but now we're all ears with League One strugglers Chesterfield awaiting the winners of tonight's game. Game on? You bet...

A bye in round one was the perfect opener before the Robins were boosted by a deserved victory against Championship side Bristol City in the Carling Cup ahead of round two. Di Canio's men were drawn to face Exeter City at St James's Park and despite hitting the M5 on the back of two league defeats in three, the victory at Ashton Gate suggested Town were capable of competing with sides of a higher calibre.

Di Canio made seven changes to the side that lost 2-0 at Macclesfield Town four days earlier. Stopper Mattia Lanzano made a rare start in goal while loanees Ahmed Abdulla (West Ham) and Jake Jervis (Birmingham City) – who days earlier had announced he wanted to 'make a statement' following his temporary move to Swindon, came into the line-up. Jervis, who has recently returned to St. Andrew's after a loan spell from Preston North End, took just 18 minutes to make an impact when he registered his first goal in Town colours in what was his first full start. Matt Ritchie found Lander Gabilondo in space on the left and the Spaniard cut inside before curling in a teasing right foot cross. The ball was headed back across by Alan Connell for Jervis to slot home from six yards.

Lanzano made a smart save six minutes later and Town extended their lead before the break when Jervis benefitted from goalkeeper Artur Krysiak's hesitation in possession on the edge of his own box. Jervis was presented with the easy task of rolling the ball into the empty net for his second of the night.

Exeter pulled a goal back with 19 minutes remaining thanks to a great bit of skill from former Manchester United youngster Daniel Nardiello. The striker picked up the ball 25 yards out before lifting an audacious chip over Lanzano into the far corner to make it 2-1, but Town held on for a second victory against opposition from a higher division.

"We didn't create many chances today but we scored twice," beamed a delighted Di Canio. "My team play good football, but when we are on top we must score and we did that tonight. It was good to get the away win. I am happy to see the team play as one spirit although there is still work to do. We are in the right place though and the commitment of the players has been great. This is a chance to get to Wembley and win a trophy, the reason why we become players and managers. It motivates the players too, they have ability, but they also have the desire to take opportunities."

Commitment and desire were needed in the quarter-finals when AFC Wimbledon proved stiff opposition at The County Ground in November. Di Canio again rang the changes despite his side boasting an unbeaten run since the victory in Devon in the previous round, making six alterations to the side that won convincingly at Vale Park days earlier. Phil Smith, Joe Devera, Oliver Risser, Connell, Mehdi Kerrouche and Raffaele De Vita were all restored. Risser and Smith in particular would prove key additions.

Town enjoyed more of the ball going forward but it took a howitzer of a strike from Namibian Risser, with his second of the season – the first coming against Crewe on the opening day – to break the deadlock. The 31-year old unleashed a thunderous shot on the half volley from 30 yards that rocketed past the goalkeeper and almost took the net off the stanchion as it flew into the top corner. "I have seen it on the BBC and it's a nice goal," he said afterwards. "I'm very happy about that, it meant a lot for me."

But that was just the beginning. First, Connell found the side netting before Esajas saw his effort cannon off the crossbar. And with just over ten minutes remaining Town were made to pay for their profligacy when the visitors levelled, Rashid Yussuff tapping in at the far post after a cross from the right evaded the hapless Smith. Town's custodian for the evening would have the last laugh, however, as the game went to penalties. Smith saved the first two efforts before Connell, Risser and Esajas all scored with their respective penalties. It was left for Smith to keep out Chris Bush's spot kick to cue scenes of celebration among the home support.

"Wimbledon in the last round went through on penalties and four of the five who were selected for the penalties today were the same players," Di Canio said after the game. "But all the credit goes to Phil because he made three fantastic saves and it means he was [switched] on in his brain."

Town were drawn to face Southend in the semi-finals. The Robins had already beaten the promotion rivals 11 weeks earlier but Paul Sturrock's men were an altogether different proposition by the two met at Roots Hall on December 6; the Shrimpers going into the game on the back of a 17-match unbeaten run. Town themselves were buoyed by an FA Cup victory against Colchester United days earlier and Di Canio attempted to keep legs fresh by making four changes, partnering Connell and Exeter hero Jervis in attack.

Ritchie came closest to opening the scoring for the Robins when he came close to nodding home following a Gabilondo cross, while familiar face Blair Sturrock forced Wes Foderingham into a smart one-hand save at the other end. Predictably, Sturrock eventually found the net just after the hour mark when he finished well from the edge of the six-yard box following a cross from the left by Sean Clohessy.

"A driving run from Caddis saw the Town skipper surge forward before unleashing a 25-yard effort."

Town equalised six minutes later. A driving run from Caddis saw the Town skipper surge forward before unleashing a 25-yard effort beyond Luke Daniels, who was seemingly deceived by the flight of the ball. Di Canio seized the initiative and made further changes, with Simon Ferry and Ronan Murray entering the action in place of Risser and Jervis. Murray made an immediate impression, taking just two minutes to put Town ahead. A teasing cross from Gabilondo from the right was glanced into the far corner by the Ipswich loanee, who celebrated in front of the 334 Town fans behind the goal.

"The gaffer delayed bringing me on for about ten minutes," explained Murray. "He wanted to see how the game panned out. When the gaffer eventually brought me on he just said: 'do your best and get us that goal'. Luckily enough I did and I must admit it was better coming on at 1-1 than 1-0 down because the momentum was with us at after the equaliser. That made it easier for me; you could feel the confidence going through the team. To win it like that... we were all buzzing afterwards."

"The players were amazing and we created chances," beamed Di Canio. "I know the character that is in the squad and the players proved me right with a really determined display. We were hungry and the players came out in the second half and we are now two games from reaching a Wembley final."

Make that one.

Town will feel aggrieved they don't bring a lead into this game as they squandered chances to win the first leg in North London. Simon Ferry, who having been put clear of the Barnet defence, raced through only for the Scot to drag his shot wide of the left post. Before the break, Aden Flint finally headed the Robins ahead following a lofted cross from Murray. Barnet drew level against the run of play in the second half. Skipper Mark Hughes met a free kick curled into the box by former Red Mark Marshall and his header beat Foderingham, despite the former Crystal Palace stopper getting a hand to the ball.

"The players looked a little tired and that's understandable," Di Canio said afterwards. "They have played a lot of games and they are humans, not martians."

The games have continued to come thick and fast and Barnet arrive in fine form, but a win for Di Canio and co. will be another superhuman effort. Eyes down, fingers crossed...

in the beginning

WITH no game on Saturday afternoon, Swindon Town's players were called into training by manager Paolo Di Canio. The session took place at Croft, which has a special meaning in the Robins' history books...

Swindon Town 1
Clifton 0
6 February 1892

AFTER starting life playing home games on land very close to our present home - off Drove Road - the club spent more than ten years operating on a pitch in Old Town at The Croft, now partly covered by houses in St Margarets Road.

The Croft was vacated in 1895, Town playing their last game there in April. But on a few occasions prior to then a home fixture was switched to an area owned by the Wilts County Ground Company, the first being staged here 120 years ago yesterday.

First visitors Clifton were probably hoping for better fortune than on their previous three trips to Swindon where they had suffered 5-0, 8-0 and 7-1 defeats.

In the last meeting, five of Town's seven goals had come from Robbie Reynolds and Harry Offer. The men from Bristol succeeded in keeping the duo quiet this time round, but were unable to prevent centre-forward Bobby Davies (pictured) from netting the winner.

The club had begun to sign professionals just before leaving The Croft, in readiness for a better attempt at competing in the Southern League than their first effort, when they finished bottom of the table with just four wins out of sixteen.

And after coping with no changing facilities at The Croft (the players having to run up and down from the Fountain Inn in Devizes Road !) the club then enjoyed the luxury of having its own stand, erected at The County Ground in 1896.

On This Day

Saturday 7th February 2004

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE side Rushden & Diamonds made their firstever visit to the County Ground in a Division Two fixture, with Swindon looking to maintain their challenge for the play-offs. Town went 2-0 up in the first 20 minutes with goals from Tommy Mooney and Andy Gurney's penalty. When Alan Reeves, not under pressure, sliced a cross into his own net it gave the Diamonds some hope. David Duke's neat shot restored the two-goal cushion, only for Rodney Jack to make it 3-2 a minute later. Town finally killed off their opponents in injury time, when Diamonds defender Barry Hunter put through his own net under pressure from Rory Fallon. The victory leaves Swindon in fourth place, but nine points behind the second side QPR with a third of the season to go. Rushden were ultimately relegated.

nigel eady

"Some people think football is a matter of life and death. I assure you, it's much more serious than that."

AT 01:30 hours on the morning of January 23rd Swindon Town lost one of its most treasured supporters when Nigel Eady finally lost his long and courageous battle against cancer, a disease that had aggressively marched through his body these past few years. I doubt the likes of Nigel Eady will pass our way again in this lifetime; it was a privilege to know him and to enjoy his unique company.

Born on the 15th April 1937, the second son to a family who farmed in West Hanney near Wantage, he was schooled at St Peters in Weston Super Mare and then at Lancing College in Sussex, a school renowned for its footballing prowess and where his love of the game was nurtured. His passion for the football saw him attend his first fixture at The County Ground on 20th September 1947, where along with his father, and 18,000 other supporters, he witnessed the Town losing 2-1 to Newport County. Despite the loss he was hooked and even found the opportunity to be excused from school in Sussex to watch his beloved Swindon Town when they played Brighton.

As a regular Season Ticket holder, he would sit with his father in The Arkell's Stand for every home game, until his father's death in 1968. He seldom, if ever, missed a home fixture until his own death last week and with a little more leisure time available in later life; he would also select certain away fixtures to dovetail with his interest in visiting other parts of the country. Travel was one of his many interests and travel was not restricted to the United Kingdom. He would travel abroad and take in visits to some of the world's most grand and not so grand stadia, delighting his audience with the many stories on his return to these shores. As part of his stadium visits he was a regular at Wembley and was present for the first fixture in the new stadium, just as his father was present for the first fixture in the original stadium. His last game at The County Ground was the Town's memorable victory over Wigan Athletic in the FA Cup just a few weeks ago.

Away from football he was busy managing the West Hanney farm and on part of which he planted two community woodlands which gave him great pleasure. He also was extremely proud of his wonderful collection of National Geographic magazines which were all meticulously catalogued and displayed in his home. He was a most trusting man, leaving for home and away fixtures and overseas trips, never thinking to lock his front door. Trust, integrity, and honesty are just some of the words friends would use to describe this unique and authentic character.

Married, albeit briefly, he had no children and would often describe Swindon Town Football Club as his child, being very attentive to its care and upbringing. He considered his extended friendships, which the football club was largely responsible for developing, as his family; a family that gave him much pleasure and happiness.

Nigel was laid to rest at West Hanney church on Thursday 2nd February, the service was attended by a vast number of his friends and extended family. In one of his last conversations with me, prior to his death, he left me in no doubt that we would be extremely displeased if less than 300 people turned up to say farewell. He would not have been disappointed by the attendance.

Nigel Eady, thank you - leaving us with treasured memories and much, much more, we are eternally grateful. RIP

The Under 10's and Under 11's achieved some creditable results against Coventry City and Reading whilst the Under 15's recorded their first points of the season against QPR and Reading. Well done to all the girls involved on the day.

STFC and Intel support The Epilepsy Society

SWINDON Town Football in the Community Trust and main sponsors Intel recently presented a £500 cheque to the Epilepsy Society.

Main Sponsors Intel and STFiTC raised the £500 through auctioning off matchday executive tickets to the Swindon Town v Wigan game on Saturday 7th January 2012 which saw the Robins knock the Premier League side out of the FA Cup.

Accepting the cheque on behalf of The Epilepsy Society was Freya Richards and Samantha, her mother. As an epilepsy sufferer and a football fan, Freya continues to attend Swindon Town Football in the Community Trust Girls Development Centres at both Stratton and Dorcan where her enthusiasm and personality rubs off on everyone involved. She has found her participation limited as her epilepsy has grown but has been seen on many occasions supporting her footballing friends.

MUG SHOT

Greatest moment of my life...

Signing my first pro deal was good but the best moment of my life so far is managing to get Eva Longoria's number in Sainsbury's.

How do you think the top of League 2 will finish?

2nd Crawley Town

3rd Shrewsbury Town

4th Southend United

1st Swindon Town

Reason...

With so many home games left against teams around us, I fancy our chances of winning the division.

Most sophisticated meal I can cook...

I am not too bad around the kitchen, so will say a prawn linguini with roasted vegetables and green pesto.

What is the best game you have played in during your career and why...

It has to be the Wigan game here a few weeks ago. Given it was the FA Cup third round against Premier League opposition, beating them made it a day to remember.

How do you spend your time away from The County Ground...

Usually I just spend time with my girlfriend or friends from back home. I enjoy a bit of shopping too, usually in London when I can get down there.

Rank these bands order of preference...

Reason...

Michael Jackson is the greatest entertainer of all time so he's at the top of my list. I hadn't heard of A-Ha, so they're number four.

Who is the most famous person you have met?

god save the queen

When I was at Reading I met the Queen at Bisham Abbey as part of the Jubilee celebrations in 2002. Last summer I met Ashley Cole out in LA and I once saw Annie Lennox on a flight going to Dubai.

If you could play for any club in the world, who would it be and why?

Barcelona! They pop the ball around for fun and are great to watch, so it would be incredible to be a part of a team like that. They are probably the best team ever in my opinion.

wise words

- chris wise -

I'D imagine there are one or two people at the football club who will be pleased the month of January is out of the way.

FROM a playing perspective, it was 31 days to remember. Four league wins out of four, a famous FA Cup victory over Wigan Athletic and a first-leg JPT draw at Barnet to leave Wembley within touching distance. Yet behind the scenes, it has been frantic. Chairman Jeremy Wray spent as many hours on the phone in January as he did sleeping as the search for new players gathered pace while desperately knocking back bids from the circling Championship vultures. There is always a downside to having a lower league squad packed full of quality.

The one player who has attracted the most attention is Matt Ritchie – hardly surprising given his ten goal haul so far from midfield. AFC Bournemouth made several, serious attempts to prize him away from the club but the board stood firm. It could prove to be a critical piece of business. Town's title rivals Crawley let one of their key players, Matt Tubbs, leave for the same club just before deadline day. It gives you an indication of the two team's mindset heading into the back end of the season. Swindon's decision to stand firm over Ritchie might transpire to be the most telling of the lot, though I'm not sure we've heard the last of that one.

I was anticipating a far busier deadline day at The County Ground. Given the amount of players that have arrived at the club since the start of the season, you'd have backed a couple of late deals to be completed at The County Ground. I don't think it helped that Swindon played at Southend on the same night but even so, work was going on throughout the day to try and recruit another striker.

This particular transfer window was a bit of a non-event in the end but it's a classic case of hype outweighing spectacle. The media has turned 'Deadline Day' into a bit of a circus. Clocks counting down minute by minute, reporters camped outside stadiums delivering the same information for hours on end, dramatic shots of managers in canteens drinking coffee. It's billed as compelling viewing but not everyone has 12 hours free in their day to sit back and soak up speculation, rumour and counter rumour. Still, the emergency loan window opens tomorrow...

AFTER a weekend off for many Town supporters, attentions now turn back to the cup with a place at Wembley in store for the winners this evening...

Leicester City

ALTHOUGH the result did not go our way, it was a fantastic response from the fans travelling to the game in their numbers to support the team. The fact it was the biggest away following that any away team has had at Leicester this season speaks volumes for the level of support Town have on the road. It was fabulous to see so many Swindon fans there and we can only hope that there are further big days ahead when we can enjoy that experience again.

Supporters Club Q&A

WE sometimes get asked similar questions about how the STFC Supporters Club is run so thought it would be good to cover some of these in today's notes....

Where is the Supporters Club?

Although the word 'club' often indicates fixed premises, we do not have one. Ahead of all home games, committee members can be found at the same table in the Legends lounge, so do come and say hello if you want information about our activities, or just have questions or would like more information. Incidentally, if you have never been in to the lounge take a look one day, there is lots of Swindon Town history featured.

What does the Supporters Club do?

The STFC Supporters Club is principally a fans organisation that raises funds to improve facilities for supporters, encourage youth development and also enhance the prospects for STFC. It also provides members with additional benefits and opportunities as part of the membership package.

Can fans still apply for membership?

Yes, either by visiting the website at www.swindontownsupportersclub.com and downloading the application form, or by picking up an information pamphlet and application form, that can either be collected from a member of the committee in the Legends Lounge on a matchday or from the away travel office which can be found on the approach to The County Ground from County Road.

Away Travel

Do the Supporters Club run the away travel coaches?

No. The away travel is operated independently by SAS Travel who are official travel partners. The STFC Supporters Club has a close working relationship with SAS Travel, as organisers Sally Carter and Marc Walters are committee members of the Supporters Club.

Do you have to be a member of the Supporters Club to travel with SAS?

No, anyone can use the service. However, if you are a Supporters Club member then you are entitled to a discounted price on the fare when booking for away trips on production of your membership card when booking.

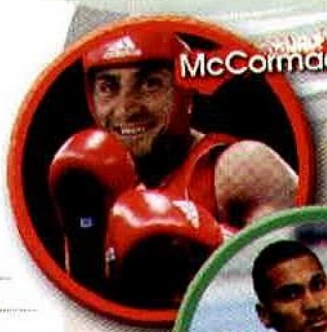
wes foderingham

THE countdown is on until the start of the 2012 Olympics. Here is who Wes Foderingham thinks should be in the STFC Olym-picks!

Boxing –
Alan McCormack...
'Macca' looks like he could hold his own in the ring that's for sure. Irish guys usually have a tough streak in them and I think he'd be able to go for a few rounds and do some damage.



100m –
Wes Foderingham
I actually have quite a bit of pace off the mark but don't get to use it that much! At Leicester last weekend I had a footrace with Jermaine Beckford and beat him!

Weightlifting –
Oliver Risser...
Oli is the biggest in the team and looks like he could lift quite a lot! Most of the weights we do are outside of the training schedule, but Alan Connell has hit the gym lately as he's trying to get a beach body for the summer.

Long jump –
Aden Flint...
'Flinty' has an advantage over most people with his height so one step for him would probably get him quite far in this event. He doesn't have much pace but his long legs would help him.

Judo – Etienne Esajas...
'H' has great footwork and I think he'd be able to bring a few roundhouse kicks out. He looks like a wrestler called Booker T as well.

IF you have any alternative suggestions for our Olym-Pick ringers let us know on Facebook and we will publish the best picks!
