CLUB NOTES

Today we welcome real old friends from Walsall, in this most important F.A. Cup game.

We shall no doubt witness a hard, keen, fast game. Our opponents have so far enjoyed their best season ever and are deservedly top of the Fourth Division with a five points lead. Their record is most imposing

P	W	L	D	F	A	Pts.
19	15	2	2	46	21	32

Moreover, in eight away games they are so far undefeated, having won seven and drawn one.

A fine record indeed, but there is always a first time. Will it be today?

Walsall play fast open football, with very few frills. They quickly change defence into attack, with the constant use of the long ball.

As a team, they are confident, superbly fit, and all are real terriers for work. They never give up, and frequently chase, and retrieve, what appears to be a forlorn hope. Every man recovers very quickly, and keeps going with tremendous enthusiasm right up to the final whistle.

Obviously our team faces a hard task, but we are quite sure our lads will rise to the occasion. Many times and oft we have played against strong teams, as witness last Saturday.

Surely there can be no harder task than taking on Norwich City at Carrow Road. Although we lost 2—3, the result might easily have been a draw, had the ball run more kindly both in defence, and attack. Despite the many and varied reports in the National Press, our lads played well, and with that little bit of luck (which eludes us at present) would have gained a good result.

The Reserve Team unfortunately lost its unbeaten home record in the London Combination. Two lapses in defence, and the failure to take scoring chances brought about the defeat. It was most unfortunate, as it was a bright interesting game, but our team did not just click as in previous matches.

Returning to our opponents, the goals scored have been shared by Richards 14, Faulkner 12, Taylor 7, Davies 6, Hodgkisson 3, Billingham 3. The forwards are all potential goal scorers.

To their large contingent of supporters, we give a warm welcome. We are pleased to see you and delighted at the success in the league of your team. We wish you the very best of luck in your promotion bid, and we sincerely trust we shall all enjoy a grand rousing game this afternoon.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES

During the course of last season, we commented in these notes, on several occasions, that the announcements made at the County Ground were inaudible in various parts of the ground. The Directors gave the matter attention during the summer, with very satisfactory results, so that, this year, the announcements are very clear, and there has been no cause for complaint. We feel that the matter should have received earlier mention, and that we have been remiss in not referring to it. It was brought home to us during last week-end, when we spent several hours at the Railway Station, waiting for trains long overdue, through fog in London, and for other reasons, and, after trying to hear some of the Station announcements, we felt that possibly our Directors had found a purchaser for the apparatus formerly in use at the County Ground.

On previous occasions we have expressed our appreciation of the kindness of those Supporters, who contribute regularly to our funds, through the collections at half-time. We have also mentioned, at the same time, the fact that we do not require orange peel, apple cores and the other rubbish which spectators of low mentality throw into the collection sheets. At a recent match another spectator threw a lighted cigarette end into a sheet causing a large hole which necessitated repair. We would remind spectators that we work voluntarily for the Club and do our best to raise funds to assist the Football Club. As such we feel that our workers are entitled to respect. We, in our turn, respect the views of those, who feel that, having paid for admission to the matches, they are not disposed to contribute further. We will not, however, tolerate insults, and intend to take steps to discover those who find it funny to try to hinder our work.

Holders of the lucky programmes on 31st October were:— No. 198, Mr. J. Reeves, Newburgh Road, Highworth. No. 3016, Mr. J. Simpkins, 19 The Bungalows, Oaksey.
