BY THE EDITOR

It's tough at the top. Not so long ago London boasted three top-ofthe-table teams Spurs, Rangers and Crystal Palace.

Now Rangers and Palace have surrendered top place, and Tottenham have seen their lead whittled down.

Easter could be the decisive time for all of us—and here's hoping that the run of the ball is with Rangers as the team approaches the Second Division home straight.

It is with regret that we announce the death in hospital at Grimsby of Mr. Arthur Drewry, chairman of the executive committee of F.I.F.A. and chairman of the F.A. Council.

The players today wear black armbands as a mark of respect to Mr. Drewry, a fine football administrator and a man whose help and advice has made him a friend of Queen's Park Rangers.

His loss will be felt.

Tomorrow's home game against Walsall could be one of the most important in the club history. A win could be worth four points to the victors. Again, here's hoping.

They say it is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all. The same might apply to a promotion challenge. Without writing off the bid, let us contemplate the excitements there have already been by being a top-of-the-table team after so long a Cinderella

The team deserves that extra encouragement at this time—and I am sure Rangers' loyal supporters will see that it is forthcoming.

How refreshing it was to hear the applause at the end of the Chester-field game. They were worthy winners on the day, and the crowd accepted the fact in sporting fashion.

Well done. It was quite a jolt for the critics.

Welcome . . .

To Swindon. Manager Bert Head's team provide attractive Easter opposition. Youth is a feature of the team, and many of the regulars in the Third Division side are still eligible for Youth Cup games.

Swindon, although they have not set the soccer world on fire this season from a results viewpoint, look to have a secure future.

The football I saw them serve up at Watford earlier this season—when they lost by a single disputed goal—was worthy of a team from a higher grade.

Note the names of Ernie Hunt and Mike Summerbee. These teenage forwards have already been attracting the attention of the big clubs—and they are just two of Swindon's exciting young prospects.

I Hear . . .

That manager Alec Stock, now installed at a new home at Epsom, comes to work each day refreshed by a morning work-out on the Downs. His young daughters, both keen on horse riding, make sure there is no laying about in bed.

That right back Pat Woods, still set to emigrate to Australia at the end of the season, is matchfit again after a thigh injury he sustained at Tranmere.

That a First Division club came on with an enquiry for 20-year-old Mike Keen on the transfer-deadline day. Manager Stock's to-the-point answer: "I can't release him while we are in the promotion race. Anyway, why should I sell the best player in the Third Division?"

That England Under-23 team manager noticed Keen's promise when he starred for Rangers in a practice match against the internationals at Loftus Road.

That Brian Bedford's header against Chesterfield was his 100th League goal.

That manager Stock told the team this week: "The issue is now clearcut. You have to beat Swindon and Walsall at home to stay in the promotion race".

That Mr. Stock's reaction to two consecutive defeats was to order a day's holiday for the first team. Brine baths at Brighton on Tuesday were the result.

"BEATING ABOUT THE 'BUSH'"

SLEEVES UP! Following two successive defeats, and the reliquishing of our home record to lowly Chesterfield, the pessimists have already written off Rangers as promotion bets.

True our lads have struck a bad patch and in recent games have not shown promotion form, but few teams escape this "bad patch" business in a football season, as all-conquering Spurs and Crystal

Palace will testify.

But are we to be written off as promotion prospects? Of course not!

Our "comfortable lead" has been whittled away—unfortunately—but at the time of writing we are reasonably clear of Grimsby and Notts County. Bury now look "odds-on" as champions, which leaves Walsall as our big rivals, whom we entertain tomorrow. But we have one vital game in hand—an away fixture at Halifax. A difficult game maybe, but it still gives us the edge on Walsall.

So away with pessimism! This is no time to throw in the sponge, as some sports writers would have us believe! This is a time when we must have faith in ourselves. A time when our players must roll up their sleeves and show our critics that our top-of-the-table position for so long, is not unjustified.

And for we who support. A long way to go yet maybe. Nine more obstacles to be overcome. Four more chances at Loftus Road to show our faith in the players and four more chances to demonstrate our support and enthusiasm, starting today.

So forget the pessimism. We have more than an equal chance with Walsall and there is no earthly reason why we should not come out on top.

That's the spirit in which we should face the games remaining.

away FROM HOME too, our lads will need all the support they can get. We for our part will make sure that every facility is available to those who can get to our five remaining away games.

Swindon on Monday and Shrewsbury the following Saturday are our immediate objectives and transport is laid on.

As announced previously, we are making a weekend of it for our game at Torquay on April 22nd, leaving at midnight on Friday and returning to London on Sunday afternoon.

Arrangements are being made for bed-and-breakfast on the Saturday and the inclusive charge wil be around £2 5s. 0d.

This will enable members to spend a whole day and the Sunday morning in Torquay. Plenty of time to see the sea and, we hope, enjoy the game at Plainmoor.

Supporters will appreciate that quite a bit of work is involved for someone when arrangements of this kind are made, and that the cost is kept to a minimum.

It is up to members to support these ventures if they possibly can and above all, book as early as possible in order to help our Travel Organiser.

Given good weather, this should prove a very pleasant weekend.

Make sure you are not left out.

OUR FOOTBALL POOL. Once again, by popular demand, we have made arrangements to carry on our Pools Scheme during the Summer months, based on Greyhound Racing results.

All Agents will by now, have been notified of the new set-up and we invite any supporters who would like to become Agents during the close season, to get in
