CLUB NOTES

Again an away defeat, in spite of the fact that the team played excellent football. With the score at one-all at half-time, hopes rose high for the first point on our opponents' grounds. Then, unfortunately, three splendid shots right out of the blue, and three goals. There it is — a good display, but from our point of view most disappointing, a 1-4 defeat. However, we still feel our lads have the ability; with a little more confidence and just that change of fortune, results are bound to improve.

The Reserve match at the County Ground was a bright, entertaining game, with Swindon well on top right from the beginning. The great feature also was the age of our lads — an average of just eighteen — which augurs well for the future, if only we have the patience to wait and continue the present policy for these boys to develop, just that more, for them to be complete Division II players.

In our last programme we made comment about the state of English football and how everyone should help restore the proper spirit. We stated quite definitely that clubs should demand that the team plays in the right spirit. Also we said, referring to gamesmanship and time-wasting, "Spectators have a right to see football played for the full ninety minutes." It would appear that some of our spectators are not desirous of a full period of play.

In our last home game, i.e. versus Bolton Wanderers, a number were leaving the ground at least ten minutes before the final whistle. Unfortunately, this movement around the ground detracts considerably from the concentration of the players. It spoils the whole atmosphere and not only causes annoyance to supporters, but often interferes with their view of the game. We must therefore appeal most strongly to those supporters who occupy the ring seats, to remain seated until the final whistle has blown.

The seats around the ground are the cause of much concern on the part of the management. An unfortunate incident could easily stem from people sitting so near to the field of play. In that case and also in the matter of movement, there is only one answer: the removal of the seats, and the prevention of any incident before it occurs.

Incidentally, we must state most emphatically that any spectator encroaching on the field will immediately be removed from the ground.

Today we entertain one of the great names in football — Newcastle United. What tradition that conjures up, and the famous names that spring to mind — Jock Rutherford, Colin Veitch, Peter McWilliam (later to become an outstanding manager with Tottenham), Sam Weaver (of the long throw), Bill McCracken (the offside specialist, and a great player—the man who really caused the change in the rule of offside), Hughie Gallager (a great Scottish centre forward), Neil Harris (for a short period prior to the 1939-45 War, manager of Swindon Town), Ivor Broadis, Jack Milburn ("Wor Jackie" of centre forward fame), Jimmy Scoular (now manager of Cardiff City), Len Shackleton, Joe Harvey.

Newcastle was, until recently, the only club to win the F.A. Cup two years in succession — in 1951 and 1952. They have also won it on four other occasions, in 1910, 1924, 1932 and 1955.

Last season we drew 0-0 at the County Ground and were defeated 1-4 at St. James's Park. It is our turn to win. Prior to last year the teams had met twice before. In Season 1909-10 Newcastle United defeated Swindon 2-0 in the Semi-Final of the F.A. Cup, played at Tottenham. That was undoubtedly Swindon's finest era, the days of that great team: Skiller, Kay, Walker, Tout, Bannister, Silto, Jefferson, Fleming, Wheatcroft, Bown and Bolland.

The teams met again in 1938 in the First Round of the Cup, and Swindon (at home) won 2-0, and later played Burnley and the Arsenal.

Following the pattern of some of the other clubs, we hope to print in the programme letters from our supporters. Should you wish to make your contribution — either praise or criticism — please write your letters of not more than 150 words and address them to "In off the Post", Swindon Town F.C., County Ground, Swindon. We cannot guarantee to print all we receive, but we will do our best and try to add, if possible, a note at the bottom. We cannot, however, enter into any correspondence.

By next week we shall be using our new offices underneath the Town End Stand. All tickets and enquiries will be dealt with at the pigeon holes facing the pathway adjoining the Car Park.

Captain of the side, he was signed last season from neighbours Sunderland. A County Durham player of top quality whose success story with Sunderland can hardly be matched. # SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES

It has been suggested that these notes, in recent weeks, have become rather top-heavy with references to social events, at the expense of matters relating to football.

This is perhaps a sign of the times, for football clubs themselves are now participating in various activities which would have been entirely alien a few seasons ago.

However, we will, this week, just make a passing reference to our Dance on 9th December (tickets for which may be obtained from members of our Committee) and then pass to other matters — mainly complaints.

It is habitual for the official announcer at the County Ground to request that no spectators shall trespass on to the pitch at the end of each match — but always there are some irresponsible people who do so. May we ask that the request shall be observed today and in the future?

We notice that the Directors of Millwall F.C., who have experienced the same nuisance have decided that unless it ceases forthwith the boys' entrances to their ground will be closed, and that boys wishing to attend matches there will have to pay adult admission charges. We bring this to the Directors of Swindon Town F.C. for their consideration, but trust that they will not have to put it into practice.

It is for the thoughtless boys to rectify their behaviour, to avoid the risk of such a procedure.

We have been asked recently on numerous occasions why we have not commented on the matches and the form of the team.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES—continued

One answer is that were we to do so it is probable that our notes would not be published, as we use this space by courtesy of the Directors and Management of the Football Club.

Another reply could be that there are already an adequate number of critics writing to the Press.

We understand that if all players recommended by them, including a number still playing for other clubs, were selected today, the team would consist of some 28 players, so that it is apparent that the critics are by no means unanimous.

Naturally, the Committee of the Supporters' Club wishes to see the team do well — ours is very uphill work during the bad patches — and none would welcome a return to form, to the scoring of goals and to an attacking type of football (of the sort we saw from Bolton Wanderers), more than the Supporters' Club Committee.

Lastly, we have been asked once again, with all due respect to the official announcer, if he will dispense once and for all with his pre-match formula: "And now the roar &c." Most of us know that Swindon play in red and are able to recognise the team.

It would also be pleasant if we had not to endure the reading of Bingo numbers at half-time, but probably that is too much to expect!

One final reminder — the Dance on 9th December. Watch for the bills! Get your tickets now!
