CLUB NOTES

NORTH END have swung up and down on the Second Division see-saw since the reverses suffered in successive matches against Middlesbrough, Hull and Huddersfield. A fortnight ago the team and supporters enjoyed the tonic of a decisive win at Birmingham's expense. It was splendid stuff. North End were so much in command that a repetition of the 8-0 win against Brum on February 1st, 1958 seemed possible in this one-sided game.

But as only four of an abundance of scoring chances were taken we had to be content with our highest score since Birmingham's visit to Deepdale early the previous season. It was a welcome enough change for the better, despite the sighs over unrewarded second half efforts.

Earlier Trevor Hockey unluckily put through his own goal, Frank Lee scored a second and Willie Irvine recovered his scoring touch with two neatly headed goals. He was left wondering how he came to miss a hat trick. A brilliant header by Tony Hateley in a late rally yielded Birmingham a consolation goal. The result was the same as on their last visit — 4-1 for P.N.E.

A harder task awaited us at Cardiff where Jimmy Scoular's team have been irresistible recently, with a 6-0 thrashing of Hull their best performance. We had an early setback during Cardiff's expected onrush, and had begun to get a grip when a defensive slip let Cardiff in for a seond goal just before half time. The rest of the game was in North End's favour.

We played some fine football which often had Cardiff struggling. They were glad to concede only one goal, which was from an excellent header by Gerry Ingram. A draw would have been an equitable result. Unfortunately for North End we shone only after being in arrears.

The day's events emphasised the tough going in Division Two this season. Only seven points separate Cardiff, ninth from the top, and Bolton Wanderers, second from the bottom, and there are as many as 11 clubs in between, including North End.

Promoted Swindon, our visitors to-day, are in the top six with 25 points, having fared much better than Watford, who went up from the Third Division with them last season. Swindon owe their high position largely to good achievements at home, where they have beaten Cardiff, Charlton, Millwall, Sheffield United, Hull, Norwich and (last Saturday by 2-1) Huddersfield, the leaders.

Having drawn their other home matches with Carlisle, Oxford and Leicester they are unbeaten at the County Ground. Less successful on their travels they lost at Blackburn, Blackpool, Q.P.R., Portsmouth and Birmingham, drew at Cardiff, Middlesbrough, Carlisle and Watford, and won at Aston Villa and Bolton, scoring altogether 10 goals to 16. As holders of The League Cup, Swindon started well with a 3-1 win at Swansea, but were knocked out in the next round at Oxford (0-1).

Here is today's question:

Sometime ago North End Reserve entertained Sunderland in a friendly game. Can you name the last match of a North End v. Sunderland game at Deepdale. Name the year and the score.

Feijenoord Vital Game

THE DUTCH CHAMPIONSHIP is once again turning out to be a straight fight between the old firm of Ajax and Feijenoord. Ajax, last season's European Champions Cup finalists, maintained a 100 per cent record over their first ten games but, even so, were only a single point ahead of their great Rotterdam rivals. Two weeks ago they met before a 65,000 capacity crowd at the Feijenoord stadium where the home side ran out winners by a solitary goal - scored in the last minute!

This was enough to put the reigning champions back on top of the table and put them marginally ahead as the highest scoring team in the top three divisions. They have 31 goals from eleven games, their leading marksman being Geels with eight. He is closely followed by Swedish international Ove Kindvall who has six. Ajax, on the other hand, have three strikers in the top division's leading ten marksmen Cruijff (9), Keizer (8) and Van Dijk (6). That trio have netted 23 of their 30 League goals to date.

Over the border into Germany — Hertha Berlin, the only club from the West German capital playing in the Bundesliga, continue to draw fantastic crowds to home matches, irrespective of the importance. 82,000, more than twice as many as at any other League game on the same day, turned up to see them meet Hamburger SV. They must have been 82,000 very happy Germans at the end of the game for Hertha won by 1-0 to take them within a point of the leaders.

Uwe Seeler, the Hamburg and former German international striker, didn't find the net in this game though Uwe Seeler, the Hamburg and former German international striker, didn't find the feet in this game though he remains second best scorer in the land with seven goals so far. Seeler, who has often threatened to retire in recent years, still remains a great favourite of the German crowds who hope he'll carry on a little longer yet. Ten of the 16 finalists for next year's World Cup finals in Mexico are now known — Belgium, Brazil, ElSalvadore, England, Mexico, Morocco, Peru, Sweden, Uruguay and West Germany. Unless there are some fantastic turn-ups Bulgaria, Italy, Rumania and the U.S.S.R. will almost certainly join them. The big question-marks surround the final two groups. Australia have to play Rhodesia twice to decide group 15, while a playoff between Hungary and Czechoslovakia, on neutral soil, will settle group two.

Brazil, England and West Germany are the most strongly fancied sides to win the trophy. But beware the words of England captain Bobby Moore who says: "Peru could be the dark horse. Any team to knock out Argentina must be pretty useful."

From the Manager's Chair

HOW I SEE IT

by North End manager BOBBY SEITH

DESPITE our setback at Cardiff, I would say the past fortnight has been re-assuring after the jolt of three defeats in successive matches.

These were disturbing rather than depressing. Two of them ought not to have happened. It was a bad patch and we have got over it.

There was no reason for despondency. The team had been playing well, and I could not see why they should not do so again. That confidence was justified when we played Birmingham.

They came to Deepdale as a very useful side in good form over a lengthy spell, and were well beaten. In fact they were overrun and pretty nearly demoralised at one stage. While the result was very gratifying, so was our style of football. It had plenty of variety.

I only wish more people had been there to see it. We scored four goals, which made a most refreshing change for all concerned with North End's fortunes, and there could as easily have been seven or eight, so fragile was Birmingham's defence made to appear.

Even though we lost the next match at Cardiff after a good hard fight to save a point, I feel that our play in these two tests gave more cause for optimism than the reverse. Therefore I am not worried about being only four points better off at the moment than the bottom club. These fluctuations prove what a hard competition the Second Division has become.

The season is only half gone. In the end the deciding factors will be ability, team effort and physical fitness, and I am satisfied that we are not lacking in these assets.

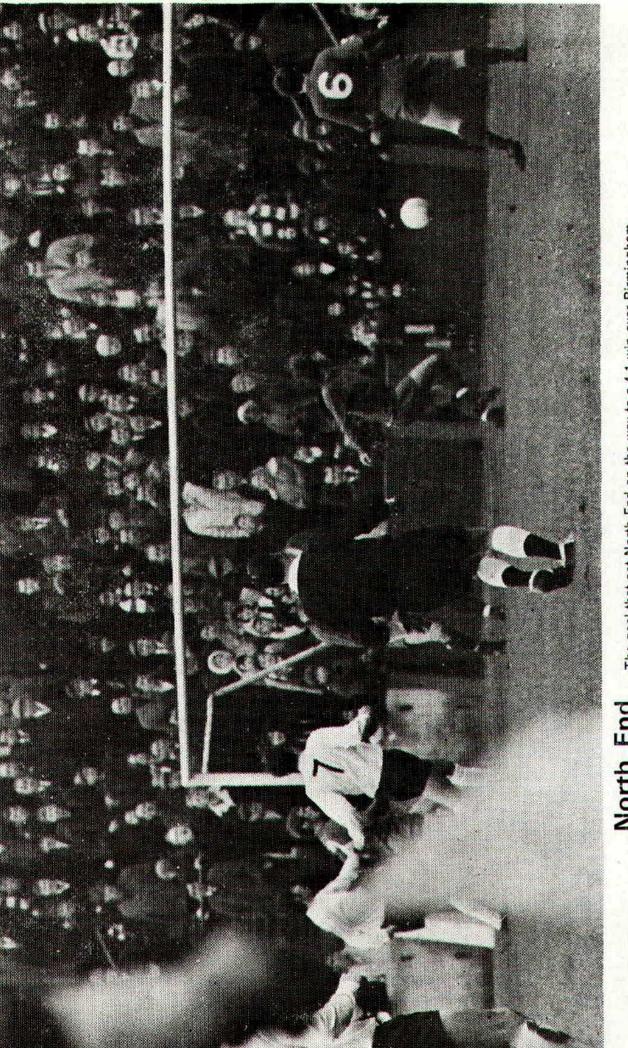

We might have had more goals against Birmingham. It was not for want of initiative, but I suppose that, sub-consciously, there was some easing off, due to our four goals lead.

At Cardiff we were certainly not disgraced. In my opinion we deserved a point for a long sustained second half rally after losing two unfortunate goals, one in the early stages and another when Gerry Stewart unluckily slipped on the greasy surface at a vital moment.

Any team visiting Cardiff would not find it easy. They have proved themselves a strong side at home. We took the expected early pounding at a cost of one goal and gradually came into the game. We were playing quite promisingly when Cardiff snapped their second goal.

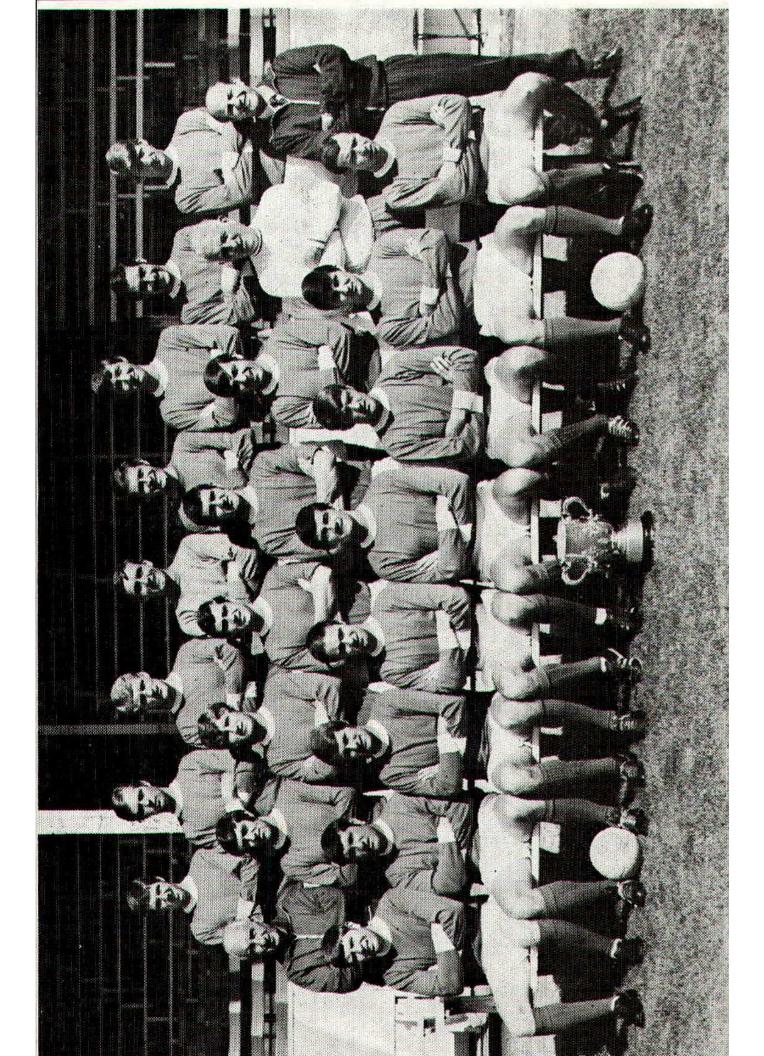

In the second half North End were well on top and dictating the play. But, though often dangerous, the only goal we could pull back was one by Gerry Ingram.

OUR VISITORS

NORTH END are happy to welcome promoted Swindon Town, League Cup helders and pride of Wiltshire, on their third visit to Deepdale. The first was in the League Cup round two, 1961-62, when we won an attractive game by 3-1. The visitors left a good impression.

Thus it was not surprising to see the "Moonrakers" or "Robins" promoted from the new Division Three the following season. In a brief stay they came to Preston twice, losing 0-1 and 1-2. We won the first return match 4-1 and drew the other 2-2. Thirty years earlier (1934-35) North End won a fourth round F.A. Cup-tie

At the County ground, Swindon, by 2-0.

Now they are back in the Second Division as runners-up to Watford, the Champions on goal average.

Both got 64 points. This was Swindon's ninth season in Division Three, after 31 successive seasons in the old Southern Section. Swindon were among the founder members of this Division in 1920 as a successful Southern League Club.

In a highly encouraging start they finished fourth, fifth or sixth in seven of the first eight seasons, their lowest position being ninth. Altogether the club occupied fourth place five times, but in three off-colour years, 1933, 1956 and 1957 had to seek re-election.

Swindon's most memorable period began in 1907-08 when the Club entered the F.A. Cup for the first time and reached the third round. They vanguished redoubtable Sheffield United by 3-2 on the First Division club's ground, after a goalless draw at home, won a home tie with Queen's Park Rangers, then lost 0-2 away, to Wolves, the 1908 Cup winners.

Two years later Swindon earned greater fame as giant-killers by ousting Crystal Palace, Burnley, Tottenham Hotspur and Manchester City. These feats took the team to the semi-final. They were beaten 2-0 at Tottenham by Newcastle United, again the ultimate winners.

The Reverend W. Pitt certainly never dreamt such dizzy heights would be reached when, in 1881, he founded the Swindon club as an amateur organisation. Professionalism was not accepted until 1894 and then with a weekly bill of only £10 for the whole side.

It ensured founder-membership of the Southern League. Along with Millwall and Southampton, Swindon remained continuously in it to 1920 and were champions in 1911 and 1914.

Inspired by England forward Harold Fleming, Swindon again reached the F.A. Cup semi-final 1912. Thay were beaten in a replay by battling Barnsley, the Cup winners, after victories against Notts County, West Ham and Everton. The following season Swindon got to the third stage, losing away against Sunderland League Champions and defeated Cup Finalists.

Such are Swindon's most cherished traditions.

SWINDON TOWN

FOCUS on Alan Spavin

FOR TEN SEASONS since he was a thoughtful 17, Alan Spavin has been illuminating or inflaming the Deepdale scene, according to how the observer interprets his football. Which, in the vernacular, means you are either with Spavin or agin him: you want him in, or out.

This is all because of his style of play which, at this stage of his interesting if controversial career, is unlikely to alter. His value could increase through the experience he has acquired in maturing into a shrewd, quick-thinking midfield player.

Assessments of his worth really turn on whether the spectator is concerned solely with watching the fingers of a clock go round, or interested in the works as well. The discerning eye sees what makes it tick. For others the regulator has always been too slow.

For Spavin it may be a consolation to reflect that such a talented North End artist as Bobby Beattie was a whipping boy before him! As with Beattie, so with Spavin — the team play better with him in than without him, in terms of cohesion, which is no mere coincidence.

It is significant, too, that team-mates have seldom criticised either player for the simple reason that they appreciate a good provider when they get one. Spavin used to worry about the barbs and brickbats, but time has taught him the philosophical Beattie approach.

"I can turn round and smile now," he says, "After all, no one can truthfully say I do not play my hardest for the team. My job is to relieve the defence and help the forwards. I work for possession. If I get the ball I try to use it to a purpose and to advantage.

"I know I am criticised because I so rarely score. I wish I could. I like to have a go and enjoy getting my occasional goal, but it's hardly my strong suit. Maybe it is lack of confidence, but I prefer to slip the ball to someone who has a better chance. Perhaps I should shoot oftener, but frankly it doesn't matter to me who scores as long as someone does.

"Fans have said I play too far back. One has to do that in away matches, of course, to help in defence. Since coming back this season I have found what seems to be the happy medium for my role in the team — not too far back, nor too far forward. But my style has been part of my make-up since coming to Deepdale as a boy of 15; too late to change now.

"We have a good, enthusiastic team and I am glad to be in it. I have no anxiety about the position in the table. I feel more relaxed now that my worries about my future, business-wise, are happily settled, and certainly I have no wish to leave Deepdale, none whatever."

FRED FORD

(SWINDON'S MANAGER)

FRED FORD'S disappointment in having his playing career severely hampered by injuries and the war has been well compensated by a very good career in club management.

He was a First Division player with Charlton before the war but he was continually troubled by leg injuries. When war came he joined the Royal Engineers and was mentioned in despatches. He was chosen for his regiment v. All-England XI and when the war ended he picked up the threads of his career after transferring to Millwall.

In 1947 he moved to Carlisle and it wasn't too long before his damaged legs forced him to retire from the playing side. Carlisle appointed him club trainer, a job he filled until Bristol Rovers asked him to join them as chief coach in 1955.

At that time he was appointed trainer to the England Under-23 side, travelling with the team on foreign tours. He got his first chance in club management in 1960 when he took charge of Bristol City. The Ashton Gate club had just lost its Second Division place, but Mr. Ford rebuilt the team and took them back into Division Two in 1965.

Two years later he was relieved of his position and spent some months coaching at Swindon. Then Bristol Rovers asked him to fill their vacant manager's chair so he returned to Bristol until accepting his latest post with Swindon during the summer.

DANNY LYDEN

(BIRMINGHAM)

IN SIX SEASONS as a League referee, DANNY LYDEN has shot to the top of the tree and this season was selected as one of the officials allocated to the First and Second Divisions under the Football League's new policy for appointments.

Mr. Lyden must be one of only a handful of referees to handle matches involving all 92 League clubs. "I completed the set last season" he chuckled. In 1963/64 he was in charge of the Wales v. Scotland Youth International.

Danny Lyden played in goal for Walsall and Bradford City as an amateur and spent four years with Yorkshire Amateurs. He took up refereeing at the age of 28 when he finished playing and worked his way up to the Football League Referees List in 1963 through the Birmingham Works F.A. and the West-Midlands Regional League.

Employed in the service and spares department of a large machine tool company in Birmingham, Mr. Lyden is married with a son and daughter. Much of his spare time is devoted to youth work, and when relaxing, he enjoys nothing more than a spot of good music.

FIVE YEARS AGO

SUNDERLAND appointed George Hardwick, former Middlesbrough and England full back as manager in succession to Alan Brown.

F.A. and Football League set up a committee to investigate the behaviour of players and crowds about which they expressed "grave concern.

MAURICE SETTERS, 27-year-old Manchester United wing half, transferred to Stoke City for £30,000.

F.A. suspended Fulham and former England captain, Johnny Haynes, for 14 days for alleged misconduct during a League match.

SWINDON TOWN paid Chelsea £15,000 for the transfer of inside forward Denis Brown.

JIMMY McGUIGAN, Crewe Alexandre manager for four years, left to take charge of Grimsby.

HITCHIN TOWN, Isthmian League amateur club and eight officials and players, punished by F.A. for alleged payments and inducements to players.

DAVID HYDE, Hendon, equalled Norman Creek's 1922 record by scoring four goals for England (v. Wales) at Shrewsbury on his amateur international debut.

BILL HARVEY, Luton Town manager, resigned.

IAN LAWTHER, Scunthorpe's Irish international forward transferred to Brentford at the House of Commons, his new club's chairman being Jack Dunnett, M.P.

COVENTRY signed Chelsea reserve left back, Alan Harris (21) for £30,000.

BILLY WALKER, former manager of Nottingham Forest and famous England forward with Aston Villa, and Jimmy McMullan, Scotland, Partick Thistle and Manchester City, died.

TEN YEARS AGO

December 5th, 1959 - North End, in their 19th League match, dropped a home point as First Division leaders and failed to score the first time in that season after creating a club record for an opening sequence. Everton's 0-0 draw ended a Preston run of seven victories. Young centre half Brian Labone left a powerful impression on the 25,000 crowd by curbing centre forward Tom Finney.

North End team: Else; Cunningham, Walton; Milne, Richardson, Smith; Mayers, Thompson (T.), Finney, Sneddon and Taylor.
