The business man's hotel with a top class steak bar tool

Today we welcome to the County Ground, newcomers in every sense of the word. This is the first occasion we have played Bolton, either in League or Cup football.

Bolton Wanderers — what memories that name conjures up in the minds of older supporters. A wonderful club, with a fine tradition and a great record. Many still look upon this as a Division 1 team, and what Cup fighting qualities they possess. Winners of the coveted trophy four times, and defeated finalist three times. Many will recall the wonderful final of 1953, when Bolton were defeated 4-3 by Blackpool, but quite a number will remember the first Cup Final played at Wembley in 1923. I myself still retain vivid memories of that match. The break through by the crowds and the fantastic scenes, with the pitch black with people at the time of the kick-off. What stands out most, however, was the quiet confidence and lack of nerves displayed by Bolton. Spectators were massed right to the outside lines of the pitch, and even after the game had started Dick Pym (the goalkeeper obtained from Exeter) was helping to move the crowd back from the bye-line. I well remember Ted Vizard, outside-left (later to become manager of Swindon Town), and how he wouldn't attempt to retrieve a ball within three yards of the touchline. What tremendous enthusiasm when David Jack later transferred to the Arsenal), coolly scored after twelve minutes. Poor West Ham never really settled down, the occasion was a little too much for them, although they only lost 0-2. The Bolton team was undoubtedly a great team of experience and talent: Pym; Haworth, Finney; Nuttall, Seddon, Jennings; Butler, Jack, J. R. Smith, J. Smith (a most successful manager of Blackpool), Vizard. Of that team Pym, Nuttall, Seddon, Jennings, Butler, Jack, J. Smith and Vizard all gained International honours.

Bolton repeated their Cup success three seasons later in 1926 with almost the identical team. Just one change, Greenhalgh replacing Finney at left-back.

Today their team contains a fine international player who has won many honours for England, namely Roger Hunt (a player's man), but whilst he was on the books of Liverpool. A great player and a great sportsman. He might easily have joined Swindon Town when stationed in the Army Pay Corp at Devizes.

Bolton Wanderers, known as the "Trotters", was founded in 1874, and was one of the original members of the Football League founded in 1888. It has always played at Burnden Park. Ground capacity, 70,000.

The present manager, Mr. Nat Lofthouse, scored the two goals by which Bolton defeated Manchester United in the 1958 Cup Final. He will no doubt be hoping for a good result today as Bolton occupy fifteenth position in the League table, having gained 24 points from 28 games. Swindon, with 32 points from 28 games, is in sixth position. Division 2 is very open, with more than half the clubs still in with a chance of promotion.

BOLTON WANDERERS F.C.

Pen Pictures 1969/70

ALAN BOSWELL

Goalkeeper signed from Wolverhampton Wanderers in November 1969. Already he has proved a more than capable replacement for former England star Eddie Hopkinson. Has had spells with Walsall and Shrewsbury.

JOHN RITSON

A 20-year-old defender who joined Bolton from school and came into the senior side last season. Slimly built with a fair turn of speed he forms, with Paul Hallows, one of the youngest full-back pairings in the Division.

PAUL HALLOWS

Born in Chester and signed by Bolton on apprentice forms in 1965. Signed full-time in 1967 and made his first-team debut last season. Originally a centre-forward he has converted into a fine defender and became a regular this season when Syd Farrimond was unable to start the season.

WARWICK RIMMER

Born Birkenhead and a former English Schools International, Warwick is a former club skipper who is at home in midfield. A versatile player and a first-class club man who has been at Bolton for 13 seasons.

CHARLIE HURLEY

A six feet tall International centre-half signed during the close season from Sunder-land, where he spent eleven years. Began his career at Millwall and has brought experience and a cool head to the Wanderers' defence.

ARTHUR MARSH

Just 21 years of age, Arthur joined Bolton as an amateur from his home town of Dudley. Settled this season at left-half and is one of this season's successes.

TERRY WHARTON

A Bolton born winger who cost Wanderers £70,000 when he was brought home from Wolverhampton Wanderers. A clever ball player with a fine turn of speed he is having his best season since joining Bolton.

JOHN BYROM

Currently the country's leading goalscorer, inside-right Byrom joined Bolton from Blackburn Rovers for £30,000 in 1966. A clever, dangerous and hard-working player who packs a useful shot.

JOHN MANNING

A Liverpool born forward who was signed from Norwich City last season. A strong running player who is difficult to move off the ball. A prolific goalscorer, especially dangerous in the air, John has had bad luck with injury since joining Bolton.

ROGER HUNT

The former Liverpool and England star needs no introduction to soccer fans. He cost Bolton over £30,000 when he signed for them just before Christmas. Record goal-scorer for Liverpool he holds 34 England caps and a 1966 World Cup Winners Medal. With Byrom and Manning he now forms one of the most dangerous goal hungry trios in the four Divisions.

ROY GREAVES

A 21-year-old local boy who signed for the Club as an amateur. His fine ball control and strong running has made him a regular and popular first-team player. He has settled into the midfield position since the departure of Freddie Hill to Halifax during the close season. Roy has been Bolton's leading scorer for the last two seasons.

NAT LOFTHOUSE

One of the greatest centre-forwards the game has known, Nat became Manager of Bolton Wanderers last season. He has spent more than 30 years with the one Club and as a player became known as the "Lion of Vienna" after leading England to victory in an international with Austria, at that time the leading European national side.

GORDON TAYLOR

A fast, tricky and hard-shooting winger. He joined Bolton from School and has continued his studies in his spare time to gain a Bachelor of Science Degree just before the start of the season. Bolton fans love to see Gordon in full cry. He helped to make Wyn Davies one of the most feared centre-forwards in the game.

GARETH WILLIAMS

Signed by Bolton from Cardiff City in October 1967 for a £60,000 fee. An attacking half-back with a powerful shot he has had difficulty in commanding a regular first-team place this season.

JOHN HULME

A six feet tall centre-half with a strong tackle, Hulme is another player who joined Bolton on leaving school in 1960 and graduated through the junior ranks. First choice centre-half for the past two seasons until the arrival of Charlie Hurley.

HISTORY

In 1953 Bolton Wanderers, the famed "Trotters", who were among the League's twelve founder clubs, made their seventh F.A. Cup Final appearance and won the trophy for the fourth time. When relegated six years later they had spent all but two of the previous 40 seasons in the First Division.

Their subsequent struggle to cope with financial burdens, and lack of success, is one of the tragedies of grim, sink-or-swim modern football.

This is Bolton's sixth Second Division season, three times longer than any of the previous spells, which altogether comprised only seven seasons, hence the bitterness over their present plight. In those seven years the Wanderers' final positions were 2, 7, 2, 1, 2, 3, 2.

They left no doubt about Bolton's rightful place, even though the Club never succeeded in winning the League Championship. Their best attempts ended with the Wanderers three times third, and four times fourth. Rarely, however, had they a season comparable with 1902-03 when 23 of 24 matches were lost and only 10 points gained. Their best in that period was 36 of 52 points in 1891-92 and, 33 years later, 55 out of 84.

Bolton originated in 1874 from a Sunday School team and for three years were known as Christ Church. Their eventual home, Burnden Park, has held nearly 70,000 spectators.

Their proud record of 58 First Division seasons is inferior only to Everton's 66, Aston Villa's 65 and Sunderland's 62. In the F.A. Cup Wanderers also have a distinguished record as winners four times, finalists seven times and semi-finalists 12 times.

Starting with the first Final at Wembley in 1923 they beat West Ham 2—0; Manchester City 1—0 (1926 — and revenge for 0—1 in 1904); Portsmouth 2—0 (1929); and Manchester United 2—0 (1958). Thus they can boast a clean sheet at the Stadium, each time they won the trophy, but not in 1953.

Their other two Finals resulted: 1—4, v. Notts County (1894); 3—4, v. Blackpool (1953). Ironically their renowned scoring inside-left Joe Smith, Bolton's individual goals record holder with 38, was Blackpool's manager when they vanquished his old club in what became known as the Stanley Matthews Final — despite "Morty's" hat trick!

Wanderers have never won the League Championship. Three times third, their best season was 1924-25 — 55 points after a bad start. A poor away record was offset by 17 consecutive home wins and 61 goals at Burnden.

OUTSTANDING PLAYERS OF BURNDEN PARK

Joe Smith, of the cannonball "daisycutter", joined Stockport after loyally serving Wanderers 1908-27, and banged in another 38 goals in his twentieth League season. What a marksman!

David Jack became the first £10,000 transfer (actual figure £10,340) when signed by Arsenal to work in sweet harmony with Hulme, Lambert, Alex James and "Boy" Bastin.

"Ted" Vizard, elegant Welsh wizard winger No. 2 after the immortal Meredith, gave Bolton 21 years distinguished service.

Tall, iron-man Jimmy Seddon was fearless and peerless as a centre-half.

Young and old always had their heroes at spacious Burnden (record crowd 69,912 in 1923) starting with famed goalkeeper J. W. Sutcliffe, whose first love was rugby. Albert Shepherd, terror of goalkeepers, and Alec Donaldson, delightful wing artistes, are fondly remembered, too.

Lastly, one must not forget the builder of those Cup teams, benign secretarymanager Charlie Foweraker, who had served 50 years when he retired in 1945.
