Blackburn Rovers - how that great name resounded throughout the football world a decade ago. Today, as we entertain them, we see them striving desperately to avoid relegation to Division 3. What a tragedy for a club with such a wonderful record and line tradition. Six times winners of the F.A. Cup in eight Finals, and sixteen semifinal appearances. We wish them every success in their efforts to remain in Division 2. It is very sad to see one of the great centres of professional football literally fighting for existence.

In the past three seasons we have met four times in the League and three times in the F.A. Cup competition. Earlier this season, 5th September 1970, we lost 0-1 at Blackburn.

The home game last year was the very last League match played on Monday, 20th April, 1970. The previous week we had lost our first home game 0-3 to Middlesbrough, and so finally ended any hopes of promotion to Division 1. Unfortunately this result had a very adverse effect upon the gate, down to 10,491.

Despite this, it was a bright, entertaining game, the only goal being scored by Arthur Horsfield, two minutes after half-time.

Football organisation etc. obviously changes from time to time, but one of the most significant factors to me is now the number of newspaper reporters present at our games. Far be it from me to question why, but only a few seasons ago it seems, there were present our own local reporter, and possibly three others, except for certain occasions, such as important Cup games. A fact which does concern me, however, is that the reports can influence supporters, although I firmly believe the man in the street is now much more discerning, and for the most part really knows his football. Sometimes when I see markings on the performance of players I wonder what I have been doing during that game. However club officials etc. are supposed not to know much about football but, is it heresy on my part, when I say some of us have been involved in professional football for something like fifty years, and surely during that period we have gained some little knowledge? Obviously football needs reporters, and is helped by them. I well remember an editor once saying: 'It is not my job to sell football. My job is to sell the newspaper'.

Conversely, football must surely help the newspaper world. Think of all the sports papers printed each Saturday during the season.

The lack of big transfers before the 'dead-line' gives a true indication of the financial position of clubs. Almost each week we read of distress signals sent out by various clubs. This week, Peterborough, who entered the League with high ambitions in 1960, are in danger of having to quit, because they are so heavily in debt. What are the reasons? Is football, apart from the very big games, losing its appeal? Certainly gates all over the country have shown a decline. Are the expenses of running a football club out of all proportion to the income? It is a very well-known fact that most clubs rely on other sources of revenue (Lotteries, etc.) to maintain financial stability, and some would question if football should be subsidised in this way. One sobering thought is will the public in view of present affairs continue to support these fund-raising schemes? Is the solution to the problem sponsorship? But this will surely apply to certain competitions, not individual clubs, so we come back to the old adage, the rich get richer, and the poor

The true, straight answer to the problem is clubs must cut their cloth according to the cost. Money taken at the turnstiles should be the amount with which to run the club. In other words, spend only the money taken at the gate. If only clubs could keep their expenditure within the limits of their income. many Directors would be much happier men, and sleep better at night. As Mr. Micawber said: 'Income £1, expenditure £1 and a penny - misery; but income £1, expenditure 19/11 - happiness'.

Supporters club notes

A welcome today to Blackburn Rovers' team and supporters. We have seen quite a lot of Blackburn Rovers over the last two or three seasons, in both League and Cup matches. Our Social Club is still in the car park, and a cordial invitation to visit the Club, before and after the match, is extended to our Blackburn visitors.

Grand National Draw

The promoter and Committee thank all who helped to make the Grand National Draw a success. Here are the list of winners, which has already been circulated to Agents. The horses drawn were those left in after the 2nd Acceptance Stage (March 16th). The £1 consolation prizes are only paid on horses that actually run, other than the four horses in the first four places, which carry the main prizes: Quick Fellow (13392) W. S. The 33rd Annual Dinner and Dance on the 3rd March was one of the best in recent years. With McIlroys Restaurant giving up catering for such functions in the near future, it could well become a problem to find a suitable place in future years. It was always the hope of the Supporters' Club that there would be provision in the new stand being developed for such functions, but looking at the mass of cross-tie girders at present erected, I find it difficult to see any space of sufficient height from floor to ceiling to give any reasonable acoustics for dance bands or Groups. With the present shortage of dance floors in Swindon this is a great pity as the revenue producing potential of this expensive undertaking will be seriously reduced. Not having seen the plans in detail, I trust that I am wrong.

At the Dinner our Chairman, Don Pearce, referred to the Supporters' Club tradition that, where the Chairman is willing to continue, he is elected unopposed. He felt that with the changes that must come in the Supporters' Club organisation, consequent upon the new stand development, Supporters should have an opportunity to 'go to the polls' again. Accordingly, he announced that he was officially standing down as Chairman at the end of the season. This would allow members to elect a Chairman of their choice without breaking tradition.

History of Blackburn Rovers F.C.

Blackburn Rovers were one of the League's original members in 1888 and, together with Aston Villa, until 1936 they maintained the longest unbroken sequence of First Division membership from its formation – 44 seasons. Rovers have won the F.A. Cup six times and the League Championship twice, and only Aston Villa (F.A. Cup 7, Championship 6 and League Cup 1) and Everton (Championship 6, F.A. Cup 3) of the original members have won more top honours. Rovers were also Division 2 Champions in 1939 and runners-up in 1958. They have appeared in eight F.A. Cup Finals and 16 Semi-Finals.

The Club was formed by old boys of Blackburn Grammar School in 1874 and they initially played in a rented field with a pond in the centre of the pitch! This was covered with boards and sods of grass. In 1879 they moved to Alexander Meadows where a crowd of 5,000 turned up for a friendly with Partick Thistle. They first entered the F.A. Cup. which was to bring them fame, in 1879. and in only their first attempt they reached the Final . . . in 1881/82. So confident were Rovers' fans of success against Old Etonians in the Final that one property owner wagered a row of houses on the result. The Rovers lost 0-1. Two years later when Rovers returned to the Final they won the first of three successive Finals to equal the record of the now defunct Wanderers F.C. and they still display in their boardroom the silver shield awarded them in honour of that feat which was never repeated by any club.

In 1890 and 1891 they won the trophy again and between these successes they invested in acquiring their present headquarters at Ewood Park. In 1928 they had their sixth and final cup success – though they reached Wembley in 1960.

Laws illustrated

At last! A simple, authoritative and attractive book on the mysteries of the Laws of Football. 'Association Football Laws Illustrated' by Stanley Lover. Foreword by Sir Stanley Rous. Preface by Ken Aston.

Conceived by Stan Lover, a Soccer referee for 20 years, this book is packed with over 100 dynamic illustrations of actual match play situations. Seen from the viewpoint of the player, spectator and official, every page transforms the rather dull official text of the laws into live, exciting, easily absorbed facets of modern football as it is really played. Because football has such a magnetic attraction for vast millions, Stan Lover's book fills a long neglected gap in explaining the finer points of play.

In addition to the excellent illustrations, the book contains simple and logical explanations of every law. Each opens a new door to the fascination of a wonderful sport. No player, fan or official can afford to miss this book which should become an internationally recognised work of reference for football at all levels, whether School, Amateur or Professional.

Size 8½in x 6½in. 112 illustrations. 128 pages. £1.50 net (30/-).

In his Foreword, Sir Stanley Rous, President of F.I.F.A. writes: 'The whole of the game is covered in a logical arrangement and will appeal, I hope, to players at all levels, referees, coaches, club officials and to spectators. The author of this work, Mr. Stanley Lover, knows the needs of followers of the game, having been a player, a referee, a lecturer and an administrator. This contribution to the text books of Association Football should have a wide circulation.'
