news Eviews

Today we play our last home League fixture of the season.

What appeared at one time to be an exciting finish to our matches in the League seems to have disappeared. Granted our visitors are not quite out of the running for promotion, but our two remaining games have lost some of their 'bite'. Watford, by virtue of their win at Cardiff, seem quite free of relegation problems, and Luton, having lost all three of their games at Easter, cannot possibly gain promotion.

Perhaps in some ways the season has been a disappointing one, but it has been most interesting, with our best spell coming in the middle. We have scored 58 goals, and only three other clubs in our Division has exceeded that total.

The average attendance is a little lower than last year but, nevertheless, the Club has been very well supported.

Talking of supporters, I expect many of you saw the incident on television in last Saturday's 'Match of the Day', After all the commotion had settled down and play had restarted, the commentator remarked that the home supporters were singing 'We'll support you ever more'. Those are the real supporters, he remarked, but are they? I wonder if they would have been singing that, or even been present had their club been in bottom position. No, the real supporters are those who come to the matches week in and week out, and stand by the club through thick and thin, and they certainly do not demonstrate or barrack the players. People, like one 'old-timer' we heard of a few days ago. 'Herbie' Griffiths of Nailsworth travels at least sixty miles for every game, and has been a regular supporter since the days of Harold Fleming. Well over the retiring age but still working, he just lives for Swindon Town F.C. He has to endure a lot of leg-pulling and 'stick', because most of his friends at the Social Club support Bristol Rovers or Bristol City. Maybe we ought to thank his wife because she always buys his Christmas persent well in advance - yes, you've guessed, a Season Ticket in the Old Stand. 'Well played' Herbie. We salute you.

The point is, we have many, many more supporters like this. I wish we knew more of them, but men of this calibre dislike the limelight.

With the building of the new stand many difficulties have arisen, especially for the officials and stewards of the Club. Throughout the season the office has been under constant pressure with the coming and going of various companies and sub-contractors. Sudden decisions and alteration of plans has created many difficult problems. I have often heard the office likened to Waterloo Station. Yet despite all this, the organisation has continued smoothly and efficiently, but I'm sure Mr. Morse, Mr. Jefferies and Mrs. Moss have often crawled wearily home with telephone bells still ringing in their ears.

The stewards and gatemen connected with the Old Stand have faced many difficulties. At times the official entrance and the underneath portions of the stand erected, were reminiscent of the trenches in World War I.

Most of the official rooms were demolished, and temporary buildings (almost Heath Robinson) had to be used. However, good humour has prevailed, and everyone, including all our visitors, have willingly put up with the discomforts. Thank you all very much.

Thanks also to St. John's Ambulance, Ladies and Gentlemen, who at all times and in all weathers have been present to care for any in need of help.

To the Police also, our grateful thanks, for the many difficult tasks they have been called upon to perform. Due to their efforts, and also the good sense of all spectators, we have had little of crowd scenes.

Finally a little pat on the back for ourselves, we who are connected with this programme. It was pleasing to read in the Football Review that the cover of Swindon Town programme is one of the most attractive. Here I feel the credit must go to Mr. Lewington of the Borough Press and our own Secretary, Mr. Bob Jefferies.

Supporters club notes

As this is the last League match of the season, the Officers and Committee of the Supporters' Club wish all supporters a pleasant summer holiday, although most of you, I expect, will be at the County Ground for the two home matches against Bologna City on Wednesday, 26th May, and against Sampdoria (Genoa) on Saturday, 29th May.

Some 40 of us will be packing on Sunday, 30th May for the flight to Venice on the Sunday night, where we shall meet up with the coach party who leave the day before. We will then meet the two day flights, which will arrive on Tuesday, 1st June and Friday, 4th June. This is provided that these flights are sufficiently supported.

If Swindon reach the Final, those of us on the 15-day holiday hope to meet a third flight of supporters somewhere in Italy. If Cagliari reach the Final, we unfortunately will miss the Final, so therefore you may take it from me, that we in Italy will be cheering for Inter-Milan which is just up the road from Venice.

If there is anyone interested in the day flights, contact Patrick Travel, 32 Havelock Street, Swindon, telephone 21262.

The Social Club will be open as usual throughout the close season and members are reminded to renew for next season, especially those who live out of Swindon. Also a reminder of the Annual General Meeting, which will be held sometime in June, so keep your eyes peeled for the date.

Our London branch have organised a coach for the Luton game (1st May), so if any of our London fans are interested contact Mr. D. Talbot, 18 Homedale Road, London, N.W.1.

Social Club Draws

Sunday, 11th April – winning numbers 29 and 20. One winning ticket, number 6115 wins £45.

Sunday, 18th April – winning numbers 6 and 15. Four winning tickets numbers 2912, 8562, 8552 and 8867 share £45.

the man in the middle

Started refereeing Schoolboy games and Rugby matches during 1949. Took Class Three in 1956, Class Two in 1957 and awarded Class One in 1961 by Lancs. F.A. Commenced serious refereeing after playing season 1959 in Accrington Combination and Lancs. Amateur League, 1961/62 West Lancs. League, 1963 Lancs. Combination, 1965 Football League Line, 1969 Football League Auxiliary Referee/Linesman List.

Officiated as Linesman in 1970 Semi-Final second leg Manchester United v Manchester City at Old Trafford also 1970 Linesman in Turin Anglo-Italian Competition Juventus v Sheffield Wednesday.

Mr. Smith is married with a daughter aged nine years and is a Lecturer in Physical Education at Accrington College.

Ivan Thomas Smith

Plays all sports at the College including soccer and has a keen interest in social and community work. Is a past Chairman of Accrington R.T. Enjoys holidays abroad – camping, caravanning and skiing.

F.A. Preliminary Coach also qualified umpire and referee for many games. Played soccer from schoolboy to semi-professional. Number one fan is his daughter, Karenne, who collects photographs and pennants. His wife also gives full support.

At the College staff and students follow his games quite critically so he has to keep on his toes at all times. Many of his friends are professional League players. Discussions of the game etc. helps his refereeing, and a better understanding of referees', linesmen's and players' problems.

Saturday, 29th May, 1971 Kick-off 3 p.m.

In this Competition the rules provide that two points be awarded for a win, one point for a draw and one point for each goal. It is imperative, therefore, that we score as many goals as possible in our home matches and this is the field in which we ask for your help.

Please come along to the County Ground on the abovementioned dates to give the team your vocal support in their defence of the trophy of the Competition.

The Anglo-Italian Inter-League Cup Competition has a great future in European Football, help us to have the name of our Club engraved on the trophy for the two successive inaugural years of the Competition.
