Billy's Message

Today we welcome the Directors, Players and Officials of Swindon Town to the Victoria Ground.

What a difference 10 days can make, 3 straight victories have greatly improved our league position and now things are looking very healthy, taking into consideration our injury problems. Last Saturday's win at Torquay was an excellent result, the lads played with determination and from the moment we scored the game was ours for the taking.

Today we face a good test of our recent improved form, Swindon Town managed by Lou Macari haven't started the season as well as many people expected but on paper look to have a good squad. But I'm sure the lads will be hoping to make it 4 victories on the trot.

BILLY.

HARRY'S WEEK

HARRY BLACKWOOD

Sports Editor of the
HARTLEPOOL MAIL

THE topsy turvy world of sport has never ceased to amaze me and this week I have been amused with the world of fighting.

When footballers fight on the pitch, the referees send them off but when rugby players fight on the field the referee walks off. Very strange so far.

But then we have a boxing match where neither boxer wanted to fight.

Now if any logic at all applied, the law of inverted distractions suggests that the boxers should have been warned.

The two lads in question—Funso Banjo and Hughray Currie—looked about as likely to land a knockout punch as Maggie Thatcher joining the communist party. But the amazing thing was that the referee managed to sort out a winner.

How he did so is not immediately obvious but I think in view of the half-point margin, one extra call of "do that again and I'll scratch your eyes out" probably impressed the referee more than a growled "You smear my eye shadow again and I'll smudge your nail varnish ducky."

Britain has had more lousy heavyweight champions than I care to remember and the latest champion is destined to lose his crown fairly quickly.

Both fighters were a joke and they didn't look like they could fight their way out of a paper bag.

But don't tell them I said so.

In what is always a difficult fixture, Pools Juniors played very well and were unlucky to return home without a point from this encounter. Despite goals from Gordon and Redhead, both of whom are proving thorns in the sides of every opposition, the defence couldn't keep Barnsley out on sufficient occasions to gain the reward their attacking display deserved.

With a blank scoreline, people who were not there can be forgiven for thinking that this must have been a drab game, but this was far from being the case as both teams hammered each other's goal for the full ninety minutes. The only thing missing from this game were the goals both sides richly deserved, neither team deserved to beat the other and sharing the points was the fairest result.

A Game to Remember

Hartlepool United 10 - Barrow 1

When Barrow travelled north to take on Pools in the drab looking end of season Fourth Division match, they had no idea what was awaiting them. The Pools team was certainly not carving up the other sides, they had infact been carved once or twice themselves, beaten by 5 goals to 1 twice here at the Vic earlier in the season by Port Vale and York and by April they were dangerously near the bottom four. Barrow were infact bottom of the table so Pools were expected to win.

Sentinels headline "Hartlepoons made fourth Division history on Saturday". "Pools ran into double figures, scoring more goals than they had corner kicks". On average Pools scored 1 goal every 9 minutes, but towards the end of the first half, five were scored in 14 minutes (a football league record).

Clark put Pools ahead in the 8th minute and 11 minutes later Smith increased Pools lead. Luke made it 3-0 in the 30th minute and 4 minutes later Smith netted his second. In the 38th minute Smith completed his hat trick. Scott hit Pools sixth in the 42nd minute and just before half time Langland brought the half time score to Pools 7 - Barrow 0. Kemp reduced the arrears in the 55th minute but ten minutes later Luke scored to make it 8-1. Clark netted at 9th in the 79th minute and Barrow defender Marsden brought up Pools double figure win.

The unfortunate Barrow goalkeeper was Mike Heys and wherever he may be he will never forget the day Pools hit him for Ten!

Pools Team: Oakly, Cameron, Waugh, Johnson, Moore, Anderson, Scott, Langland, Smith, Clark, Luke.
