STOP BLEATING

Recent controversy over the number of players being sent off this season has been closely linked with the new interpretation of the so called 'professional foul' offence.

With each incident being entirely different the most important factor is that the law reads 'in the opinion of the referee . . .'. The man in black can only judge the offence by what he sees without the benefit of action replays. This new interpretation of the law was introduced to improve the entertainment level of the game and to punish those who seek to gain advantage by serious foul play. Everyone in football must accept the referee's decision as final and concentrate their efforts on achieving success within the laws of the game.

ONE OUT ALL OUT

The French players football union have recently called for a strike from all their members. The dispute concerns something which has also affected the British game.

Freedom of Contract has dramatically changed the transfer system and movement of players in this country, allowing individuals the right to move on at the end of their contracts. The French players are trying to insert release clauses into their contracts which will virtually give them the right to leave clubs when it suits them. Surely the players must allow the clubs some sort of stability so that they can plan for the future knowing which players will be available to them. The balance has already shifted hugely in favour of the players but this would be one step too far.

FICKLE FOLK

Yesterday's hero, Howard Kendall received a less than friendly reception from Manchester City supporters during the recent televised game against Everton at Goodison Park.

In the second half of last season Kendall lifted Manchester City clear of the relegation zone to a final position of 14th in Division One. He was hailed as a 'messiah' and his success continued in the early part of this season as he took City to a lofty position in the league. The choice he made to return to his old club, Everton, was a controversial but understandable one. City fans may not find his choice acceptable but the desire to return to his old stamping ground proved too strong and the personal abuse he received was not justified.

REPLAYS PERMITTING

Providing neither ourselves nor Southampton draw in today's FA Cup matches we will play hosts to The Saints on Wednesday in the rearranged Zenith Data Systems Cup.

The chance to reach the Southern area semi-final is at stake, with the exciting prospect of a home tie with near neighbours Ipswich Town the reward, which is in turn only two matches from a Wembley appearance. With the result having to be reached at the first attempt it should prove to be a cracking cup tie. Don't miss it . . . Norwich City v Southampton Wednesday January 30th - kick-off 7.45 pm.

The Leeds United result was one we sorely needed, particularly after those setbacks over Christmas and the performance against Nottingham Forest. Yet when you looked at the two fixtures – Leeds United and then a visit to Crystal Palace – they seemed more difficult than any other pair of consecutive fixtures on our list this season.

DESERVED

Leeds United's record thus far has been excellent and, of course, they had already beaten us at Elland Road but we played very well on the day. We combated the physical side of their game and started to create chances of our own.

Equally, Crystal Palace don't give anyone an easy ride and we were able to break their run of home success stretching back almost a year. We worked hard, gave them very little space and, I believe, deserved our victory.

In both games we had to weather a few storms but, when you are playing against top of the league sides who are going well, you have to expect, at some stage, to be under some extreme pressure.

SIGNIFICANCE

But the real significance of the six league points is to stabilise a decline and to create for ourselves a platform on which to build a challenge for a high finish in the First Division table. Those points have now put us in a reasonably comfortable position and, looking at the next few fixtures, we should have a good opportunity to advance.

We really have had so many hiccups this season in terms of having achieved that platform only to be set back by a result or series of results that should not have been.

It was nice to see Jeremy Goss playing such an important part in the two games but, as everyone knows by now, he will miss the next three matches because he was sent off in a Reserve game. This is a great personal disappointment to him because he knows that he has shown enough form to keep himself in the side. It was the opportunity he was waiting for and it is made worse because, perhaps of all our players, he is the very last person I would have expected to react as he did.

OLD CUP FOES

We had to wait a long while to find out who we would be playing this afternoon but Monday's much delayed replay was finally decided – in the dying seconds of normal time – in favour of Swindon Town. You won't need me to tell you that we have been making a bit of a habit of getting involved with the Wiltshire side in cup matches in recent seasons – nor that we have NOT exactly been making a habit of winning these meetings!

We would rather like to reverse the trend today but I would caution that they are a very good side. In footballing terms, they earned the right last season to have joined us in Division One this year and their success in winning 'promotion' on the field stands to their credit whatever may have happened elsewhere in the club. They are still playing that same brand of skilful football which, under the coaching of Ossie Ardiles, took them through the play-offs.

I see them as a different proposition altogether from the teams we have faced in the last two matches. Indeed, they could pose more problems in the way they form their side and the way they play their football. It is another style that we have to cope with and, having played against them and had problems in the past, we must not underestimate the task ahead.

Finally I would like to welcome Norwich Electrical and Mechanical Services Company Limited, our match sponsors today. I hope their representatives and guests enjoy their afternoon at Carrow Road.

CLUB CANARY

As always seems to happen the January and February fixtures are subject to late changes. Cup replays, the demands of television and the vagaries of the British climate make the planning of fixtures quite complicated. We may or may not be going to Swindon next week which in turn could affect future away trips. Derby County on February 9th should remain unaffected but the scheduled trip to Villa Park on February 16th coincides with FA Cup 5th Round day which we obviously hope to be involved with. Midweek away games are obviously the most difficult for travelling supporters who have to obtain time off work, especially if they are at short notice.

Last Saturday's tremendous result and performance at Crystal Palace was just reward for those of you who have continued to support The Canaries away from home.

Don't forget that Derby County and Aston Villa are all seater matches for visiting supporters.

WELCOME

We would like to welcome the Directors, Officials, Players and Supporters of Swindon Town Football Club to Carrow Road for this afternoon's FA Cup tie.

For the second round in succession it is a case of The Canaries facing The Robins as Swindon share the red breasted nickname with Bristol City. All Norwich fans will be hoping that once again The Canaries come out on top in this battle of the birds.

COVER MAN

Tim Sherwood who has scored some cracking goals amongst the six which have made him our joint top scorer with Robert Fleck.

BIRTHDAY BOY

Completing our busy time of January birthdays is skipper Ian Butterworth who celebrated his 27th birthday yesterday.

In the Leeds programme it was stated that Dean Coney was 28 on the 18th January, in fact Dixie's birthday is in September and it was Ian Crook who had reason to celebrate our win at Palace the day after his 28th birthday. Belated greetings Chippy.

GET WELL SOON

Everyone at Norwich City Football Club would like to send their best wishes to season ticket holder Ted Blanchflower who has supported The Canaries since

City Life

1921. Chief Scout Duncan Forbes recently visited Ted in hospital and we hope he makes a speedy recovery.

LAST DUTY

Superintendent Swain, who has gained promotion, will be replaced by Chief Inspector Fred Hoyle who will assume control today for the first time.

MATCHBALL SPONSORS

IMPORTANT DATE

FA Cup replays permitting we will be playing our Zenith Data Systems Cup Southern area quarter-final against Southampton at Carrow Road next Wednesday, 30th January, kick-off 7.45 pm.

ENGLAND CALLS

Robert Ullathorne and Daryl Sutch have been invited to join the England Under 19 squad to face Denmark at Oxford this coming Monday. Both lads have represented England at other levels and this call up is a reward for their hard work this season.

ROBERT ULLATHORNE

LOCAL DERBY

The semi-final of the Eastern Junior Cup will be played at Portman Road, Ipswich on Monday January 28th kick-off 7.30 pm. Our young Youth team lads would be grateful for any support. So if you can make your way down the A140 to Ipswich you are bound to see an exciting match.

ARSENAL RESERVES

Our Football Combination clash with Arsenal which was due to have been played last night has now been rearranged for Tuesday April 9th kick-off 7.30 pm.

OLD BOYS REUNION

Former Aberdeen team-mates Bryan Gunn and Gordon Strachan pictured here prior to the Leeds game a fortnight ago. Both players were in the squad which won the European Cup Winners Cup against Real Madrid in 1983. Bryan had the bigger smile after Saturday's match too.

SAFETY MESSAGE

In the interest of safety all Police messages will be preceded by a distinctive tone which will be demonstrated to the spectators in a test call before the start of the match.

It is requested that spectators keep the gangways clear to assist with stewarding in both the Barclay and River End terraces.

FOUL LANGUAGE

We would like to make spectators aware that foul language and racist chanting could render offenders liable for prosecution. Closed circuit television is already in use on this ground and where there is evidence of either of the above, Norwich City Football Club reserves the right to take appropriate action through the courts. Please help us to ensure that such drastic action does not become necessary.

IAN BUTTERWORTH collected his third 'Man of the Match' award for another fine performance.

Ian Butterworth seen here receiving his Manns & Norwich Brewery Company Limited 'Man of the Match' award from Paul Reed, lessee of The Bush Public House in Costessey.

IAN Man of the Match

Ian Butterworth was presented with the Manns & Norwich Brewery Company's 'Man of the Match' award for his excellent performance in the match against Leeds United.

Playing a very solid all round game, Butterworth was particularly impressive against Lee Chapman, notably one of Leeds' most dangerous players. Ian mastered the defence superbly and gave support on numerous occasions.

This was Ian's third 'Man of the Match' award for the season. He previously collected the awards for the Aston Villa and Everton games. This highlights the consistently high level of his performances in what is usually an unsung position in the centre of defence.

Today marks Ian's 182nd senior appearance for The Canaries since his transfer from Nottingham Forest in November 1986. Having taken over as captain when Michael Phelan left for Old Trafford in 1989 Ian's cool displays have impressed all City fans.

Paul Reed, lessee of The Bush Public House in Costessey, near Norwich, presented Ian Butterworth with the 'Man of the Match' award.

Ipswich born Paul has been a football supporter for the last 15 years and since moving to Norwich last September has been a fan of The Canaries.

Although Paul enjoys the game, his wife Andrea and children Mark and Emma do not share his passion for football, in fact, Andrea prefers fishing!

As well as supporting The Canaries, why not take part in the many pool and darts marathons being held to raise money for charity in Manns & Norwich pubs. The preliminary rounds of the British Darts Open competition, sponsored by Webster's Yorkshire Bitter are taking place at the moment in pubs in the region. All entries stand a chance of getting through to the regional finals and playing top national players in this professional competition.

So check out your local, and liven up the first few months of the New Year with the help of Manns & Norwich.

We have had two very satisfying games and two important results, not just by the way that we played but that we now know that we can still produce top class performances, even against two of the most outstanding teams in the First Division.

Our one-touch football, particularly against Crystal Palace, was excellent. Leeds and Palace are similar in many respects; they are very direct, they pressurise you and try to force you into errors but we stood up to that and matched them in their physical determination. We have beaten teams in consecutive weeks who could well be there amongst the honours in league and cup competitions at the end of the season.

ANOTHER SYSTEM

Again, we have adopted a slightly different system of play which strengthens our presence in midfield. This has been a significant area of strength of both Leeds and Crystal Palace this season but we made it very hard for them to play there. The bonus for us is that we have been able to break opposition defences from very deep positions using players attacking on long forward runs to avoid the offside traps.

By playing just the one man right up front we have managed to cause some confusion for the second central defender who finds himself without anyone to mark in his normal role. It isn't quite so easy to pick up the man running from deep because he is coming from a different area of the pitch each time. The element of indecision that created has served us well – especially against Leeds United.

Captain's Log

IAN BUTTERWORTH

MAKE IT WORK

However, I would stress that systems, as such, don't win games. It is important to remember that it is the players within the system that make it work. Aston Villa tried to use our method against Leeds United in a cup tie the following Wednesday and they lost four-one because their players didn't make it work to their advantage.

I think I should just comment briefly on the role of Jeremy Goss in these two victories and record what a disappointment it is to him and to us all that, after grabbing his first team opportunity so well, he will miss the next three games because of suspension. He really isn't the sort of player to get involved in disciplinary difficulties.

If we can continue this sort of form now to the end of the season, I still don't think it is being too ambitious to look towards a possible place in Europe – either through our final position in the league or by success in the Cup. Our problem always seems to have been turning it on every week. So often this season we have been on the verge of taking off on a long run of success and so often we have been brought down by a silly result. In any sport, top rate performances week after week are hard to produce but they are also the key to ultimate success. Our performances against Leeds and Palace would win a championship or a cup if we could do it regularly!

IMPORTANT MONTH

Swindon Town need little introduction to us in cup matches. They are a very good side whose football not only deserves a place in the First Division, but did earn that place last season. We have to recognise that and work hard to win this afternoon to progress further.

On reflection, January could turn out to have been a very important and significant month for us. It has certainly been a busy one but we have the chance to end it in better league shape and still in two cup competitions – and the prospect of a bumper crowd for a game at Carrow Road against Ipswich Town in the Zenith Data Systems Cup, if we manage to overcome Southampton next week.

"Already, CCTV has had a major impact on the hooligan problem inside football grounds as well as proving extremely useful to monitor safety measures. If any trouble appears on the screen or is reported from any quarter of the ground, the CCTV can zoom in on the incident. The police can then record what occurs on colour video and on hard copy prints. Individuals can be picked out by facial appearance and the colour of their clothing. The evidential effect of such a video recording has proved formidable. It has persuaded hooligans, who would previously have sought to challenge oral evidence of identification, to plead guilty. Hooligans know cameras are keeping a roving watch and their activities in the ground are inhibited by that knowledge."

The months of January and February each season provide football supporters with a glut of action as the battle for league honours hots up and the three cup competitions progress on their separate routes to Wembley.

IFS AND BUTS

It is inevitable that everyone connected with football begins to look beyond the next game forgetting the well worn cliché of 'taking each game as it comes'. Here at Norwich City things are no different with the planning of fixtures much to the fore. Our current involvement in two cup competitions and our recent improved league form is helping to keep our season exciting.

The draw of the Area Semi-Final of the Zenith Data Systems Cup, pairing the winner of our game with Southampton at home to Ipswich, has set everyone talking.

The Saints will be as keen as we are to play Ipswich but the game will mean so much more to the people of Norfolk and Suffolk if the two old rivals should meet. Despite the anticipation of this possible clash everyone, supporters included, must concentrate their efforts on disposing of Southampton next week.

ANGLIAN PRIDE

For youth coach Keith Webb and City's under-18 squad, there's more than just traditional East Anglian pride at stake in Monday's Eastern Junior Cup semi-final against Ipswich Town at Portman Road (kick-off 7.30 pm).

For a start, the Canaries are the current Cup holders. They also won it in season 1988/89 – so are bidding for a hat-trick of triumphs in a competition which involves the youth teams of sixteen of the region's league and senior non-league sides.

On the other hand, Ipswich feel they have more than a few overdue scores to settle. Besides having been beaten in two South East Counties League meetings this season, they were also losing finalists in the Eastern Junior Cup in both the last two years and previous to that had won it no less than five times on the trot.

Comments Tim Wooding, City's youth team skipper: "It will be tougher on Monday than in the two recent league games because several of their better youngsters were playing for their Reserves on those occasions. With Ipswich also wanting to avenge last season's result, it's bound to be a tough test for us."

If City's youngsters do pass the test, it will have promising portents for the future. For, significantly, all but three of the team is young enough to still be eligible for next season's youth squad.

The winners of Monday's intriguing battle will play either Colchester United or Cambridge City in the two-legged Final.

INTERNATIONAL VENUE

The Norfolk Schools Football Association and Norwich City Football Club have been invited to stage an Under 18s Schools International match.

The match, between England and Switzerland, will take place at Carrow Road on Tuesday March 19th, kick-off 7.30 pm.

There are plans for pre-match entertainment involving Norfolk schools to make the occasion an excellent family night out. It is also hoped that former England Under 18 players, who have since made their mark at professional level, will be in attendance.

The fixture is part of the Centenary Shield played for by England, Wales and Switzerland on a triangular basis.

If you require further information please contact Dave Kimber of the Norfolk Schools Football Association on 0263 720651 and he will be glad to help you.

NO COMPLAINTS

Norwich and District Sunday League side Poringland Wanderers, with Box Office manager Danny Casey in their squad, crashed out of the FA Sunday Cup last week.

They were beaten 3-0 by Lodge Cottrell from Solihull and Danny says they had no complaints.

'They were quicker than us and sharper to the ball and well deserved their victory.'

Poringland must now try for the Division One title and the Sunday Senior Cup.

TODAY'S SPONSORS . . . .

are Norwich Electrical and Mechanical Services Company Limited. This is the first time they have sponsored a match here at Carrow Road but their vans are a familiar sight as they have often undertaken work for Norwich City Football Club. We hope they enjoy their day as match sponsors.

Supporter's Forum

With two great results behind us against teams from the top of the First Division we must now turn our attentions to the delights of FA Cup football.

Today's clash with Swindon may remind some of our older supporters of the two games against The Robins at the beginning of our cup run in 1958-59. On that occasion we scraped through after a replay at Carrow Road before moving onto greater things later in the competition. Let's hope we go through at the first attempt today.

YORKSHIRE PRAISE

I received two very nice letters concerning the recent match against Leeds at Carrow Road. The first came from a branch of the Leeds United Supporters Club concerning disabled supporters:

'On behalf of our two disabled supporters and their escorts, I would like to thank your club for the excellent facilities and hospitality offered to them last Saturday.

Our members travel to all away matches and have never received such exceptional treatment at a Football League ground.

We have found from experience that more and more disabled people are going to football matches and they require special facilities. I only hope that other football clubs, including Leeds United, upgrade their facilities and bring them in line with the standard set by Norwich City.'

The second came from Paul Dickinson of Batley. His letter praised several aspects of his day in Norwich. Here are just some of the points he mentioned:

'I was impressed with the general friendliness of the police throughout the day as well as not feeling threatened as I went for a lunchtime drink in a nearby pub. The lounge area in the South Stand helped keep us warm and enjoy the television prior to taking our seats. My next excursion is to Highbury, the comparisons will be interesting.'

It is always nice to receive such positive comments and I make no apologies for reproducing such letters.

LOCOMOTIVE NAMEPLATE

Proudly displayed above the players tunnel is a locomotive nameplate bearing the name Norwich City. The club has received a detailed history of the nameplate from Michael Joyce of The Gresley Society. Here are some of the most interesting points:

'The name 'Norwich City' was originally allocated to locomotive No: 2860 but this was changed before the locomotive left Darlington Works - 'Hull City' being substituted. In fact, 'Norwich City' was fitted to locomotive No: 2859 that had originally been allocated to 'Sheffield United', and it came into service in June 1936.

The name 'Norwich City' was then transferred to one of the original 'Sandringham' Class locomotives - No: 2839 which was built in 1933, and named 'Rendlesham Hall'. In retrospect, it was perhaps a wise change of name because that stately home had become a high-class nursing home for alcoholics and drug addicts!!

In January 1946 the locomotive was rebuilt with only 2-cylinders and placed in Class B2. It was renumbered by the LNER as 1639 in May 1936 and, following Nationalisation, renumbered 61639.

During LNER days it was painted in the standard Apple Green and the Club colours painted on either side of the brass football. During the war years all engines were painted black, as an economy measure, and the colours painted out. After Nationalisation, the locomotive appeared in a darker Brunswick Green and the Club colours re-instated.

The locomotive finished its working days at Cambridge Shed (31A) and was withdrawn in May 1959. It was finally broken up at Stratford (London) in July 1959.'

The nameplate then appeared outside the players entrance to the old Main Stand where it remained until the fire in October 1984. It subsequently reappeared over the players tunnel when the City Stand was built.

Thanks Mr Joyce for such a detailed history.

70 YEARS ON

At half time today I will be making a presentation to 80 year old Peter Hindley from Wymondham who has supported The Canaries for 70 years.

Peter still holds a terrace season ticket for the River End and well deserves the recognition he is receiving today.

Junior Canaries

Hi Everybody,

Welcome to Carrow Road for today's 4th Round FA Cup tie against Swindon.

Our Junior Canary teams played some thoroughly entertaining football against Leeds Juniors two weeks ago. The younger eleven enjoyed a 6-2 triumph over their opponents while the seniors narrowly lost 4-3 to a closely matched side.

Last weekend, 2 coach loads of Junior Canaries and their families spent a very enjoyable day at Selhurst Park. We played the Junior Eagles in the morning where our senior boys scored a convincing win by 7 goals to 4 and the Under 12s played some skilful 5-a-side football, winning 3 and drawing 3 of their matches. Our sincere thanks to the family section staff who extended such a warm welcome to our party.

We are now looking forward to a day at Aston Villa, Cup run permitting, so watch this space for further details.

Our thanks to Wally's Windmill and the Marina Centre in Great Yarmouth for their generous donation of prizes for today's competition, and congratulations to Laurie Brooker who was our competition winner from the last match.

Pictured here is Mr James Chamberlain of Barclays Bank presenting T-shirts as prizes for our competition at a recent match. The lucky winners are Mark Thompson (left), Mark Hammond (centre) and Daniel Pratt (right). Well done all three of you.

Let's hear from you all today as the team look to progress into the Fifth Round of the FA Cup.

Enjoy today's game.

ROS and DAVE

The New Year Junior Canary party went with a swing earlier this month when a good time was had by everyone who attended, (including the organisers).

Pictured above are some of the 90 or so Junior Canaries who attended tucking into the party food.

There was plenty of dancing as well as lots of party games and competitions. Pictured below is Bryan Gunn presenting a Norwich City calendar to a lucky raffle winner.

We hope you all enjoyed yourselves and went home completely tired out. There are a number of photos available of the party, so please see Ros today if you are interested in obtaining any copies.

ABBEY NATIONAL MATCH MASCOT

This afternoon's Abbey National Match Mascot is nine year old Gavin Howes from Hellesdon. Gavin attends Firside Middle School and lists as his hobbies playing football, model making and swimming.

His favourite players are Dale Gordon, Bryan Gunn and Ian Culverhouse. We hope Gavin has a great day as Norwich City mascot and that he will remember the occasion for a long time to come.

SPECIAL REQUEST

In the interests of Family Enclosure members comfort, we respectfully request that you do not smoke in this area during the match. Thank you for your co-operation with this matter.

This is the fifth time we have been drawn against Swindon Town in cup competitions since 1987/88. The Robins have progressed at our expense on three of those four occasions, our sole victory coming in the Simod Cup during 1988-89.

It was Lou Macari's Swindon side which caused us great problems with their very direct style. Since the arrival of former Argentinian international Osvaldo Ardiles, Swindon have transformed their game and are now playing a much more attractive type of game based on good passing.

OSSIE ARDILES

Last season, on the pitch, Swindon proved themselves worthy of a First Division place by defeating Sunderland at Wembley in the play-off final. Subsequent events led to Swindon being demoted first to Division Three and then back into Division Two. This seemed to knock Swindon back as they struggled for consistency at the start of this season.

Recently, however, they have found something like their true form and are beginning to make their way up the table to challenge for a play off spot.

The arrival of Micky Hazard from Portsmouth and Nestor Lorenzo from Bari in Italy have added great experience to the squad in defence and midfield. The departure of Republic of Ireland midfielder Alan McLoughlin to Southampton for £1 million has been the only major sale this season.

In recent weeks The Robins have been lucky enough to be able to field a virtually unchanged side. Lorenzo has partnered Jon Gittens in the centre of defence with Ross MacLaren playing just in front of them.

The experienced strike force of Steve White and Duncan Shearer are supported by Hazard who plays in a very advanced midfield role.

With both sides committed to attacking play, mainly on the ground, we should see an enthralling cup-tie today.

THE MAN IN CHARGE

Osvaldo Ardiles earned 42 caps for Argentina which included the 1978 World Cup Final victory over Holland. Together with Ricky Villa he joined Tottenham Hotspur in 1978 and proceeded to delight football fans all over the country with his busy, short passing game. A brief spell in France was followed by a move to QPR and Blackburn on loan.

Ossie was appointed Swindon's player-manager in 1989 and led his side to a play off place last season.

FRASER DIGBY

Born Sheffield. Highly rated England Under-21 goalkeeper. Missed just one game in 1989/90, the first time he had been absent in over two years. The former Manchester United apprentice, who also spent a loan period with Oldham Athletic, made his League debut for Swindon in September 1986.

DAVID KERSLAKE

Signed for £110,000 from Queens Park Rangers a year ago. David stepped in at right-back and became a firm favourite with the fans with his forceful runs upfield. Represented England at Schoolboy, Youth and Under-21 levels. He joined the Loftus Road club as an apprentice and made his first team debut in a UEFA Cup tie in 1984. Can also play in midfield.

PAUL BODIN

Born Cardiff. Attacking left-sided full-back who is now a regular in the Welsh international side, having gained his first cap against Costa Rica in May. Signed for a bargain £25,000 from Newport County in March 1988 and previously with Bath City, where he was top scorer with 15 goals in 1986-87.

ADRIAN VIVEASH

21 year old defender who acquitted himself well in Swindon's pre-season friendly with Everton in Dublin, but had to wait until mid-October for his League debut, in the local 'derby' with Bristol Rovers. Injuries and suspensions have since given Adrian the opportunity to claim a regular place and he has acclimatised to Second Division football well.

JON GITTENS

Competitive central defender who was recently suspended after enjoying his most consistent spell since arriving from Southampton three years ago - having

not been absent from the Town line-up for a year. Scored his first goal of the season at Newcastle on Boxing Day. The Saints spotted him playing for Midland Combination club Paget Rangers in 1985.

COLIN CALDERWOOD

Accomplished central defender who is the club captain and one of only two Town players with an 'ever-present' record in 1989/90, but currently an injury casualty. Colin suffered badly torn knee ligaments in only the sixth game of the season. He recommenced training on December 28 and hopefully will be back to full fitness in the near future. Signed from Mansfield Town in 1985, he is the sole survivor from the club's record-breaking Fourth Division championship side.

NESTOR LORENZO

The Argentinian, who played in the World Cup Final, is Swindon's most recent signing, from Italian club Bari, for a club record fee believed to be around £400,000. Nestor has appeared 25 times for his country and was previously with Argentinos Juniors. He made four appearances while on loan, scoring against Portsmouth on his League debut on November 10. Settled well into English league football.

ROSS MacLAREN

Edinburgh born midfielder who has also played in defence. The other 'ever present' in the Swindon side last season, along with Colin Calderwood, Ross has assumed the role of skipper in the absence of his fellow Scot. Signed two years ago from Derby, where he won a Second Division championship medal, and previously with Shrewsbury Town and Glasgow Rangers.

TOM JONES

Born Aldershot. Made a speedy recovery from a cartilage operation in the 1989 close season and clearly enjoyed the short ball game favoured by Ossie Ardiles. A former Chelsea apprentice, Tom arrived at Swindon in September 1988 via the circuitous route of Farnborough Town, Weymouth and Aberdeen. Recently switched to the left-back berth in place of the suspended David Kerslake, usually operates in a midfield role.

MICKY HAZARD

Midfielder with great individual skills and shooting ability. Ossie Ardiles' most recent addition to his ex-Tottenham stable at the County Ground. Signed from Portsmouth on September 28 for £130,000. Spent eight years at White Hart Lane, during which time he collected both FA Cup and UEFA Cup winners' medals, before moving across London to Chelsea for a £300,000 fee in 1985.

STEVE FOLEY

28 year old midfielder with a good goalscoring record. Missed the first three months of last season through injury but was soon buzzing again as the Town fielded an unchanged line-up in 22 successive League and Cup games. A knee injury forced him out again in the spring. Spent four years at Anfield, without making a senior appearance. Signed from Sheffield United for £35,000 in 1987.

FITZROY SIMPSON

Attacking midfield player who is highly rated at the County Ground. A former trainee, he made a 30-second debut as a substitute at Shrewsbury in December 1988. Sent off twice last season, but now seems to have overcome his disciplinary problems. During Swindon's recent injury set-backs he has played up front.

DUNCAN SHEARER

Bustling striker who was joint top scorer with 27 goals last season, Duncan has topped his club's scoring list for a fourth successive season (twice with Huddersfield Town) and leads the way again this term with eleven to the end of December. Signed from the Yorkshire club for £230,000, he was previously released by Chelsea on a 'free' transfer. Scored two FA Cup goals against Norwich for Huddersfield in 1987.

STEVE WHITE

32 year old striker whose goal against Leyton Orient took Swindon through to the 4th Round. Probably the best 'free' transfer signing ever made by Swindon Town, Steve was the other half of the club's 54-goal partnership last season. Previously with Bristol Rovers (twice), Luton Town and Charlton Athletic. He missed the first five weeks of the season with a back injury, sustained during a pre-season tour of Ireland.

NICKY SUMMERBEE

19 year old striker from Altrincham who has yet to start a game for Swindon. He played just 22 minutes of League football in 1989/90 and had been called upon just three times as substitute by the turn of the year this season. Son of the former Town, Manchester City and England forward Mike Summerbee.

Mark calls time out

MARK WALTON

Frustrated ambition is a common occupational hazard amongst reserve team footballers.

And all must exercise extreme patience, while they wait in the wings for a chance to shine alongside their first-team colleagues.

By necessity, second string goalkeepers are particularly adept at this waiting game – unlike outfield players, goalkeepers are rarely injured, so opportunities to climb the career ladder are naturally limited.

No-one knows this better, at the moment, than Reserve goalie Mark Walton, who has recently asked to go out on loan in order to gain valuable first-team experience.

Since the return of Jonathan Sheffield from Aldershot, the goalkeeping duo have shared the number one slot in Mike Walker's side – a situation which Mark believes is far from ideal.

"For the last six weeks or so, me and Sheff have been played alternately, which has been a bit frustrating. But I've discussed everything with the manager and we have agreed that it might be best for me to go out on a loan period to gain more experience.

"I would go absolutely anywhere – Third or Fourth Division, it really doesn't matter. I'm just waiting to see what offers come in."

STILL HAPPY AT CITY

This new development does not mean the 21 year old Welshman is unhappy at Norwich City – far from it. But he's realistic enough to realise that it could be some time before another opportunity arises for him to step into Bryan Gunn's boots.

Mark joined The Canaries from Colchester United in the summer of 1989 and quickly set about proving his worth in the Reserves. But he has Bryan Gunn's wife, Sue, to thank for his first and only outing in the First Team.

While the Norwich number one was settling into a Birmingham hotel, prior to last season's important clash with Aston Villa, Sue went into unexpected labour.

Bryan was released from his duties by Dave Stringer and bequeathed his 'keeping responsibilities to Mark. The news of his impending debut was broken to him on the doorstep of his Colchester home by the local constabulary.

"Everything happened so quickly, I didn't really have the chance to get nervous. It was a great atmosphere and I ended up really enjoying myself."

And what a match it turned out to be – a 3-3 draw in front of an anxious Villa crowd ended the team's Championship hopes and made league honours inevitable for Liverpool.

But that was nearly a year ago now, so it's not surprising Mark would like to trade in his Canary colours for a coveted first team shirt elsewhere – for a while at least...

"Really the situation was brought to a head when Sheff came back, but there's no bad feeling between us. We get on well and we have both found it difficult. Sharing a spot means you may only play a match every three weeks, which makes maintaining your fitness and sharpness that much harder."

KEEPING FIT

"But obviously having an ex-goalkeeper as the Reserve coach helps a lot. We train with all the other lads and do the same things, but afterwards we may do about 30/40 minutes extra of pure goalkeeping training, mainly agility work."

These specialist sessions help the City 'keepers perfect their goalmouth techniques and Mark says he is quite pleased with his performances to date.

"But I would like to lose a little bit of weight," he confessed. "I'm not saying exactly how much or I'll get gip from all the lads."

Commuting from Colchester every day for training at Trowse may seem a long haul, but Mark has lived in the town for the last four years and sees no reason to up sticks. Fellow Reserve player, Steve Ball lives just around the corner and the lads share transport to and from Norwich – picking up Ruel Fox, who lives in Ipswich, along the way.

"It only takes us just over an hour so it's not too bad and it means I can keep in touch with my mates in Colchester."

A single fellow, Mark invariably spends a fortune eating out. He insists he can cook, but prefers not to!

"I have a varied diet. Anything and everything usually, but I suppose that will have to stop soon," said Mark, probably thinking of the weight he'd like to lose.

WATCH OUT FOR THE CROSS.

This is the deadliest cross in football.

It belongs to an Asics boot.

Because when a player puts on a pair of Asics he gets more support, more control and more stability.

And that makes him dangerous.

That's why more and more players are wearing Asics. World class professionals like Franco Baresi and Gianluca Vialli of Italy, Chris Waddle and Paul Parker of England, Maurice Malpas of Scotland and Andy Townsend of Ireland.

And with talent like that wearing Asics you'd better watch out.

RUEL FOX

Mexico, June 1970 – a crowd of 110,000 spectators pack the country's Aztec Stadium for the eagerly-awaited World Cup Final between Brazil and Italy.

Ninety minutes and five goals later – four scored by the indomitable South Americans – soccer experts were hailing the Brazilian team as the finest footballing side of all time.

It was Brazil's third World Cup victory and their most satisfying. For their outstanding contribution to international football, FIFA allowed them to keep the magnificent Jules Rimet trophy. When it was presented to captain, Carlos Alberto, the huge crowd erupted.

On another continent, in the East Anglian town of Ipswich, Ruel Fox could be forgiven for missing the magic moment – he was just two years old after all.

But over the years to come, the football-mad youngster had numerous opportunities to view the highlights from that classic final and he grew up mesmerised by the style and skills of the mighty Brazilians. It wasn't long before he was naming the entire 1970 team as his heroes...

"I suppose people remember Pelé best but the whole team were just brilliant in 1970," said Ruel. "Their individual skills just couldn't be matched. I've got three videos about the Brazilians and I watch them quite often."

MAGIC ON THE WING

"When I saw the 1970 Final, I was initially impressed by the whole team effort and I think that was the first time I saw a team using wingers so effectively. I know England had Nobby Stiles to try to counteract Rivelino or Jairzinho but he could not contain players with such great individual skills."

My Heroes..

BRAZIL 1970

Indeed the speedy Jairzinho had a lot to do with Brazil's World Cup triumph, scoring in every round of the competition, including the final. To get there, the South Americans defeated Czechoslovakia, England, Romania, Peru and Uruguay. European soccer giants, Italy, were the only team left standing between Brazil and the trophy... but they too were to be swiftly despatched.

Ruel Fox can probably recall every move of the game. "Brazil had almost total possession, Italy couldn't get anywhere near them. Before one of the goals, there were about 15 or 16 passes. But it wasn't just aimless passing, they were moving the ball forward all the time."

Soccer supremo, Pelé scored the first goal after just 15 minutes play but Italy swiftly claimed one back with a successful shot from Boninsegna.

Twenty minutes into the second half, Gerson unleashed an unstoppable shot with his left foot to make it 2-1, then set up Brazil's third with a cross to Jairzinho, who scrambled the ball home.

The Italian's misery was made complete when, three minutes from time, Alberto powered home a thundering drive to give the South Americans their fourth goal.

WRONG BRAZILIAN BLEND

"Before the final, Italy were strongly fancied to win," said Ruel. "They had just beaten West Germany in the semi's and looked as if they could give Brazil a run for their money."

"But since 1970, Brazil have been a bit disappointing in the World Cup. They are nearly always tipped to win or do well, but for some reason, it hasn't really happened for them. I think they've been a bit unlucky.

"The combination of players has never worked as well as it did in that World Cup, but now I believe they've got some new blood coming through, so who knows? Careca is probably the only Brazilian at the moment with skills to match any of the members of the 1970 team."

Ruel may be fond of his home town, Ipswich, but there is no doubt that, given the choice, he would have preferred to have been brought up in one of the soccer-orientated South American countries.

"I've got one video which shows the team as youngsters – playing football barefoot on the beach and just passing the ball around. Even then, you can see they had talent. South Americans seem to have natural ability on the ball and sometimes I think it would have been nice to have been brought up in one of those countries and have your life totally dominated by football."

And Ruel isn't exaggerating their passion for the game...

Where else, but Brazil, would they declare their finest player – Pelé – a national treasure to prevent him being transferred abroad?

ROBERTO RIVELINO – his dynamic left foot shooting was a highlight of this brilliant Brazilian side.

Whatever Happened To....?

DON HEATH

DON HEATH

Don Heath was lucky enough to be involved in great cup exploits for both Norwich City and Swindon Town in the late 1960's.

Stockton born, Don came to the attention of Football League scouts with the success of the Stockton boys team.

'It is only a small town but in 1959-60 we reached the semi-final of the English Schools Trophy at under 15 level. I think six or seven of us were taken on by league clubs. There was John Pickering, Dennis Thwaites, and David Butler who is now the Tottenham physiotherapist.

Don was taken on by his local club Middlesbrough and turned professional in December 1962. He established himself at Reserve level and then saw manager Bob Dennison replaced by Raich Carter.

'Other youngsters were given a chance as the team struggled but I was left out in the cold. At the end of 1963-64 I was given a free transfer. I had plenty of offers, Newcastle amongst them, but my father knew the Norwich scout and I travelled down to Norfolk. I immediately took to the place, Ron Ashman impressed me and fellow Stockton lad Barry Butler convinced me to sign'.

Don moved to Sprowston and married his girlfriend the following year settling very quickly into Norfolk life. On the pitch Norwich were not taking the football world by storm.

'We had some good players, Ron (Kipper) Davies, Mal Lucas, Gordon Bolland and one of the best midfield players I ever saw, Tommy Bryceland. We were always just one or two players short'.

In February 1967 Norwich were drawn away to mighty Manchester United in the F.A. Cup. United were running away with the Championship and no-one gave Norwich a chance.

'I will never forget the day, I scored in our 2-1 win and when we arrived back in Norwich I learned of the birth of my son, it was a real double celebration'.

The arrival of Lol Morgan at Carrow Road hastened Don's departure. Swindon came in for him and when Don said he didn't want to move Morgan told him he would never play in the Norwich first team again.

'I couldn't believe it, we were settled but I was not wanted so I joined Danny Williams at Swindon. The highlight of my career was our fabulous 3-1 League Cup Final victory over Arsenal at Wembley. This led to our participation in Europe and also the Anglo-Italian tournament which we won, defeating such sides as Napoli, Juventus and Sampdoria'.

Manager Danny Williams left for Sheffield Wednesday and gradually the side broke up. Don moved on to Oldham for two seasons, again linking up with Tommy Bryceland before moving to Peterborough.

'I hoped a return to East Anglia would suit me, but I didn't like Peterborough so I moved back to my native North-East with Hartlepool. About half way through my second season there I was offered a job on the docks which I took. This still allowed me to play part-time with Gateshead and Crook Town'.

Don's involvement with football continued as he scouted for former Swindon team mate Frank Burrows, something he still does when Burrows has managed Sunderland, Cardiff and Portsmouth. Don still worked on the docks and also was a partner in a sports shop in Stockton for three years before selling out his interest.

'I worked on the docks for fifteen years before the closure of the National Dock Labour Board when I took a severance payment and moved to my current job. I now work as stock controller and buyer for a major car and commercial vehicle group which has sixteen companies throughout the country.'

Although Don has returned to Norwich on several occasions he has little contact with any of his former team-mates although he has had occasion to speak to Dave Stringer about various things.

Don's vivid memories of his playing career, especially at Carrow Road, cannot hide the deep affection he still holds for the club and the city of Norwich.

MATCH SPONSORS

ELECTRICAL
MECHANICAL
COMPANY LIMITED

Norwich Electrical Co. Ltd. was formed in 1945 to compete throughout the East Anglian Region in the Electrical Contracting Business. Since then it has grown into one of the largest contracting firms within the region employing in excess of two hundred permanent contracting staff and over 30 supervisory/admin. staff.

The company's activities are far more diverse than might at first be appreciated – not only are they involved in mainstream Electrical Contracting but also have a successful Mechanical Services Division.

During October 1989 the company moved from its Exeter Street address to a new purpose built office and stores complex on the Pinetrees Business Park, Norwich.

The opportunity was taken at this time to change the name of the company to more accurately describe the services they have in fact offered for some years.

During July 1990 the company expanded its operation by opening a branch at Wisbech known as Fenland Electrical & Mechanical Services. This will enable the company to service the Fenland Areas of Kings Lynn, Peterborough and Ely.

The Electrical Contracting side is not only involved in mainstream installation work but can also specialize in fire protection systems, security systems, electrical heating, computer data transmission, airfield lighting, high voltage cabling and jointing installation.

The Mechanical Services Division specializes in heating and ventilating systems, hot and cold water services, air conditioning, plumbing and drainage systems, process control systems, petrochemical systems, and compressed air/vacuum systems; including a Mechanical Design Service.

Both divisions undertake maintenance contracts tailored to suit clients requirements, and offer a 24 hour breakdown facility as well as having repair and Small Works Department.

In its aim to be the complete Building Engineering Services Contractor a recent addition to the company's portfolio is that of a Communications Division which services the needs of our varied client file in respect of business telephone systems, data-computer communications, security alarm systems, access control and CCTV systems.

The quality of the company's work is reflected in our prodigious client file which includes those whose standards require the most efficient and reliable contractors. With this in mind they are at present undergoing preparations to become Quality Assured to BS 5750.

To respond to the requirements of the Electricity At Work Regulations 1989 in which all employers have a legal responsibility for the safety of its employees the company can provide a complete testing procedure for portable and fixed electrical appliances.

In response to recent trends within the Contracting Industry the company are able to offer a complete design service for design and build projects and also preparation of detailed specification and drawings incorporating latest computer aided design calculation and draughting methods.

Norwich Electrical and Mechanical Services Company Limited would be delighted to assist you and your company on any contract that you may be involved in at present or indeed be included amongst those invited to tender for your future work.

If you require any further information please do not hesitate to contact Mr R.M. Ross, Managing Director of Norwich Electrical and Mechanical Services Company Limited.

KEEPING IN TOUCH

There will no doubt be times when you can't be in Norwich when The Canaries are playing at home; on these occasions it's difficult to keep in touch with what's happening back at Carrow Road. After all, if you happen to be in say Shrewsbury, or perhaps Bournemouth, information on The Canaries match fortunes is going to be difficult to acquire.

The solution to your problem is found in our CLUBCALL service which for 24 hours a day, seven days a week, every week of the year, keeps you in touch with all the Club news,

Did you realise that every first team match has a full 90 minutes commentary available to you by simply calling 0898 12 11 44? No one's suggesting you call in for the full 90 minutes but you can ring in at any time during the match for the up to the minute information of how the game is going.

All during the week there are interviews with management and/or players, previews of forthcoming matches and general information from inside the Club. There's no conjecture, no mis-quotes, indeed none of the nonsense you might read in some newspapers/magazines. As it's a Club facility you can be assured that CLUBCALL only deals in facts – not fiction!

There's also our additional line for information on match and ticket information; that's on 0898 12 15 14.

You need never be out of touch with The Canaries when you've got CLUBCALL only a telephone call away! (Please see below for charge tariffs).

NORWICH CITY FA CUP FACTS & FEATS

The Football Association Cup

This is the fourth time we have been paired with Swindon Town in the FA Cup since we first entered the competition in 1902-03.

The first occasion was in 1930-31 when we met at The Nest in the first round. A crowd of 11,800 saw two Frank Peed goals take us through to the second round where we lost by 1-0 at Brentford. Our team that day was: Purdy, Graham, Hardy, Brown, Greenwell, Lochhead, Porter, Jordan, Peed, Tennant, Slack.

In the early stages of our momentous FA Cup run of 1958-59 The Canaries were nearly eliminated at Swindon in the second round. A Jimmy Hill goal earned a replay at Carrow Road where a single Errol Crossan strike decided the tie in front of 11,724 spectators, a far cry from the 38,000 crowds which flocked to Carrow Road for the later rounds. The team at Swindon was: Nethercott, Thurlow, Ashman, McCrohan, Butler, Crowe, Crossan, Allcock, Bly, Hill, Brennan. For the replay Peter Cleland replaced Terry Bly.

In 1987-88 we travelled to the Country Ground, Swindon for a third round tie which ended goalless on a bone hard surface. In the replay Swindon scored two headed goals which sent The Canaries crashing out of the Cup. Our side at Swindon was: Gunn, Culverhouse, Bowen, Putney, Phelan, Butterworth, Fox, Drinkell, Rosario, Goss, Gordon. Subs: Fleck and Elliott. The same players turned out in the replay with Fleck coming on for Rosario in the second half.

Like ourselves Swindon have yet to reach a FA Cup Final although again, like ourselves, they have reached two semi-finals. In 1910 Swindon lost 2-0 to Newcastle United and just two seasons later they lost to Barnsley 1-0, in a replay, after drawing 0-0 at the first attempt.

In The Canaries 78 attempts at lifting the FA Cup this is only the 22nd time we have reached the fourth round. This poor ratio is explained by the fact that in our early years there were often preliminary and qualifying rounds to overcome before even reaching the first round.

In those previous 21 fourth round ties The Canaries have emerged victorious on 14 occasions with Terry Allcock specialising in this particular round scoring eight goals including a four goal blast against Newcastle United in 1962-63.

Other Canaries who enjoy the fourth round are Malcolm Allen and Robert Fleck, who scored four and three respectively against non-league Sutton United in 1988-89. Robert Fleck also scored at Anfield last season in a fourth round replay.

MALCOLM ALLEN who equalled Terry Allcock's feat of scoring four times in a FA Cup fourth round tie when he notched four against Sutton in 1989.

5th ROUND DRAW

The draw for the 5th Round of the FA Cup will be broadcast live on B.Sky B. at 5.30 pm tomorrow afternoon. The date for the 5th Round is Saturday 16th February.

As we approached today's F.A. Cup tie I started to reflect on the coincidental 'tricks' that a random draw competition seems to play each year on its participants. I am sure I am not alone in being slightly amused by the little idiosyncrasies that crop up every year.

SWINDON – AGAIN!

Naturally it is our particular game this afternoon that first focused the attention because this will be the fifth time in four years that we have met Swindon Town in a knock-out competition – twice in the old Simod Cup, once, last season, in the Zenith Data Systems Cup and now a third meeting in the F.A. Cup.

And it isn't as if we are at the later stages yet where the odds are shortened. This time around we could have drawn any one of thirty other opponents.

BACK AND FORTH

That set me looking for other ties which create unusual, and sometimes crazy, situations – and I found one! Take the case of the Third Round tie when Plymouth Argyle were drawn away to Middlesbrough. Aside from the fact that they must be just about as far apart, geographically, as any two sides in English football could be, circumstances were to conspire to play a series of exasperating 'twists'. The first game was at Middlesbrough and ended in a goalless draw so both teams went back to Plymouth for the replay on the following Tuesday. That replay was called off because of the atrocious weather conditions and they decided to try again twenty-four hours later.

From The Bench

Middlesbrough stayed overnight but the weather hadn't let up by the Wednesday and they travelled back home after another postponement.

None of that is particularly unique but did you then see what the Football League computer had in store for them the next Saturday? You guessed – Middlesbrough versus Plymouth at Ayresome Park in a Second Division match! There were twenty-two other teams they could have been playing – what a coincidence! By this time, the two clubs must have been sorely tempted to take out a long-term hire on an aeroplane and commute together between Teeside and Plymouth.

The replay was finally played at Plymouth on the Monday and there could have been yet another 'twist' which was, perhaps mercifully, avoided. They had already tossed a coin to decide the venue if a second replay were needed and that would have been back in Middlesbrough.

WE'LL MEET AGAIN

Another talking point so beloved of football fans is the game where players have changed clubs and meet again. Tomorrow's televised match between Arsenal and Leeds United will be one such occasion. John Lukic was a great favourite with the Arsenal supporters for several seasons but has gone back to Leeds, where he started his professional career in 1979, and has been an inspiration to their defence on their return to the First Division. At the other end of the pitch will be David Seaman, who started as an apprentice at Leeds and moved to Peterborough in 1982 because he couldn't displace the regular keeper – one John Lukic!

Two others who have a little something to prove will be Lee Chapman and Chris Whyte. Chapman had a short and, in many ways, unhappy spell at Highbury but has an impressive scoring record in Cup ties this season.

Such is the nature of Cup matches that these elements seem to assume a heightened significance which, though they are obviously still there, mean so much less in league games.

FEBRUARY 12th 1966
FA Cup 4th Round

Norwich City 3, Walsall 2

A 3-1 away victory at Leyton Orient in the Third Round gave us a home draw against Walsall in the Fourth Round of the FA Cup. A crowd of 28,754, including approximately 8,000 from the West Midlands, enjoyed an exciting if not a cultured game.

Bryceland almost gave City an unbelievable start but his delicate lob cleared the Walsall bar by inches. Not long after the visitors nearly conceded an own goal; Anderson's left wing cross caused confusion in the goal area and Sissons, under pressure, sliced his clearance straight into his goalkeeper's arms.

A controversial incident seemed to have given Walsall the lead, from a free-kick, Freddie Sharpe partially cleared the ball to Taylor who rammed the ball past Keelan. The referee gave a goal before consulting his linesman and restarting the game with a free kick to City, presumably for offside.

In retaliation the Canaries twice went close. First Anderson had a header well saved by Carling before he again went close, this time shooting just too high. Both Stringer and Davies had goal attempts as City tried to make their pressure count before half-time.

Walsall were giving it everything, Kirkby seeing his shot hacked off the line by Mullett. Walsall's tactics were not endearing them to the Carrow Road crowd as first Bryceland and then Mullett needed attention following robust challenges.

With a steady drizzle now falling the second half began with Ron Davies being caught offside just as it appeared he was about to score. The game was becoming scrappier as both sides continued to give the ball away.

In the 59th minute Walsall took a shock lead. Atthey's cross was only half cleared to Kirkby who gleefully shot past the out of position Keelan.

Within two minutes City were back on level terms. Stringer's long ball into the box deceived Bennett and fell to Don Heath who steered the ball past Carling from six yards.

The tempo of the game increased with Bryceland becoming the first booking following a foul on Clarke. From the free kick a bad miss by Clarke gave Keelan a let off after he had mishandled a cross.

Despite great territorial advantage City could not make the breakthrough. Davies headed wide under pressure from Carling and Stringer's long shot flew high into the River End terrace.

In the 75th minute Taylor again gave Walsall the lead. A loose ball bobbled to Taylor who gave Keelan no chance from eight yards.

Frantic Norwich pressure seemed to be having no effect when suddenly in the 84th minute Joe Mullett equalised. He strode forward from the halfway line before thumping the ball high towards the goal, keeper Carling misjudged the flight and the ball nestled into the net.

At last Walsall seemed to buckle and they conceded a needless corner. Heath took the kick and there was Allcock to send his powerful header into the net to make it 3-2 to City with just seconds left. When the final whistle blew it was a relieved City crowd that invaded the pitch in jubilation.

NORWICH CITY – Keelan, Stringer, Mullett, Lucas, Sharpe, Allcock, Anderson, Heath, Davies, Bryceland, Punton.

WALSALL – Carling, Gregg, Harris, Sissons, Bennett, Atthey, Riley, Clarke, Kirkby, Summers, Taylor.

PHILIP BUGG

Most young Canaries' fans dream of one day running out onto the hallowed Carrow Road turf proudly wearing the famous yellow and green strip to play for their favourite club.

For the vast majority, that dream is destined to be nothing more than a figment of their vivid, juvenile imaginations. But here's one 16 year old who is but a few steps away from achieving his 'dream come true' - City's youngest trainee professional, Philip Bugg.

"I've always been a Norwich fan," says Philip, who has lived all his life a mere six miles away in the village of Alington, just off the Lowestoft road. "I started coming to the matches with my elder brother, Tom, from the age of ten - I even used to spend my school holidays at Trowse watching the players training."

And "Bugsy" - as he's known to his colleagues - has a drawer full of certificates to testify to the numerous occasions he and his mates were able to persuade Dick Cann to allow them to act as ball boys at Carrow Road matches.

Philip's own footballing career began with the local Poringland under-10 team:

In The Wings

"We did quite well, winning more than our fair share of cups and medals, as virtually the same group of lads stuck together right through to the under-16's."

"Our coach at Poringland, Colin Watts, was a great help. He taught me most things I know about the game and almost became a second father to me," adds Philip.

Not that he's in any way critical of his own parents, Pauline and Brian: "They've always been my best supporters, and have literally taken me everywhere for games," says Philip, whose potential came to the attention of the Carrow Road staff when he was twelve.

He spent the next two years with Keith Webb and John Waters at City's Centre of Excellence - and took part in the trials for the F.A.'s National School at Lilleshall. He additionally gained schools' representative honours with the South Norfolk district under-14 and under-15 sides and even captained Norfolk county under-14's.

Then Philip seemed to slip out of the mainstream: "The Norwich Centre of Excellence ended at 14 and I didn't hear anything else from the club, and I was away when the Norfolk schools' under-16 trials took place, so I just carried on playing for Poringland," he recalls.

NEARLY CHELSEA

In fact, the talented defender nearly ended up at Chelsea: "I was invited down to Chelsea for trials just before Christmas 1989, but I wasn't feeling too well that day and didn't do as well as I might have, so nothing developed."

"Later that Christmas I played for Poringland in a friendly against Norwich City's schoolboys and I must have impressed because shortly afterwards I had a phone call inviting me to join their squad."

He improved sufficiently during the next six months playing for them under Sammy Morgan - "That was a great experience," says Philip - to be invited when he left Framingham Earl school last summer to take part in pre-season training after which he was chosen to become the club's eleventh trainee.

Not surprisingly as the youngest full-time member of youth coach Keith Webb's squad, he's had a battle to gain a regular place in the Canaries' under-18 team.

"The competition for places is tough. Centre back is probably my best position, and there's Tim Wooding, Darren Cleveland, Peter Burrows and myself chasing those two spots, while I'm up against Adam Prior for the right back slot. Fortunately, time is on my side. I'm young enough to play youth team football for another two seasons after this one," adds Philip.

APPRECIATION

Colin Watts, who recently joined City's part-time coaching staff, comments: "From a very young age Philip seemed to have a natural appreciation of the game. I played him as the spare man at the back because he possessed an awareness well beyond his years."

"His strengths are his good control and touch on the ball. He's a good passer too. Also he has a very good attitude, he listens carefully, is keen to learn and an ideal young player to handle."

"He fully understands as the youngest trainee he has to sometimes stand on the side as a substitute. From what Keith Webb tells me he is working very hard in training."

Certainly, having reached the stage he has, it's clear Philip Bugg is going to spare no effort to try to complete the often rocky road to success and turn his childhood fantasies into reality.

MIKE WALKER

It was no bad thing that we only had two days to reflect on the debacle at Millwall. It gave the players an early chance to prove that the Millwall display was a one off and that they had taken to heart comments I had made to help improve their performances.

GOOD TEST

With Southampton providing the opposition we knew it would be a tough fixture and this also helped to wipe out any thoughts of another poor showing.

Straight from the first whistle you could sense the intent was there to make amends. Our passing was crisp, our tackling sharp and our general play lively. It needed to be as Southampton too set about their task in a brisk, workmanlike way. The game ebbed and flowed until we took the lead after which we always looked in control.

The goal came from a right wing cross which came to Colin Woodthorpe who saw his clean strike pushed onto the post by Andrews; Henrik Mortensen was quickest to react and he lashed the rebound into the roof of the net. This goal helped to settle the team even more and we proceeded to play some good football.

Our defensive play was good also, denying Southampton the chance to play their kind of game. When they did manage to threaten our goal Jon Sheffield was in confident mood.

Reserve and

Our second goal came from a move which was started by Andy Theodosiou and finished with Jeremy Goss heading home an early cross from the right flank. This was pleasing as we had been concentrating a lot on getting crosses into the box as early as possible.

Half-time saw an enforced change when Ruel Fox came off with a recurrence of his old ankle injury following a tackle. I introduced Chris Sutton which, to his credit, had no appreciable effect on the team or how they played.

COOL FINISH

In fact it was Sutton who put us into a commanding 3-0 lead, clinically finishing off another good move.

It was at this point that the unfortunate turn of events began with Southampton seemingly losing control as the game slipped away. An ugly skirmish led to Benali and Jeremy Goss being sent off. It is extremely difficult to control your temper in the heat of the moment, especially when provoked but players must learn not to retaliate. 'Gossy' has not only deprived the club of a player but has also put a temporary halt to his run in the first team. He knows he was wrong and will learn from his mistake.

Shortly after Southampton had a second player sent off for elbowing Chris Sutton in an 'off the ball' incident. In the furore that followed a third player also got sent off for foul and abusive language. At this stage I was pleased that we didn't become embroiled in the goings on although we did nearly concede a goal through a lapse in concentration.

The win was nice but it was more important to note the BIG improvement in the team's display. It just goes to show that if EVERYBODY pulls their weight the team can be difficult to beat.

Norwich City: Sheffield, Sutcliffe, Ullathorne, Theodosiou, Blades, Smith, Fox (Sutton), Ball, Mortensen, Goss, Woodthorpe. Sub Wooding (unused).

MORE THOUGHT

Every player, not just at this club, has a responsibility to himself as well as his employers to have a close look at his own game. He must always be striving to improve his fitness and level of technical skills. Many players feel that if they are talented they needn't work at their fitness whilst the superfit player must always try to work on his passing or heading etc.

The coaches have a job to do to encourage and remind players of their responsibilities but as the old saying goes 'You can lead a horse to water but you can't make it drink'.

When things are not going well and blame is being apportioned, each player must analyse his own performance closely before having a go at others. This need for self-motivation is enormous if players are to reap the rewards from the game which are there to be gained.

Youth News

YOUTH REVIEW

Our win against Cambridge gave the boys the confidence they needed to face one of the strongest teams in our league, Tottenham. We always enjoy hard games against Spurs as they have quality players available to them in all departments. I was able to field an unchanged side although I brought Abdul Kamara slightly deeper and pushed Stuart Herd wider to the left.

KEYED UP

Games against Tottenham at Youth level are similar to first team games against Liverpool in so much that the players do not need motivating, they are itching to go out and play.

The early exchanges saw us match Tottenham in all areas of the pitch, playing some very good football of our own so I was extremely disappointed when we gifted them a goal from a free kick.

We were quick to respond with Chris Sutton doing the spadework down the right before crossing to Kamara to stroke home the equaliser from twelve yards. I felt we went from strength to strength, creating and missing a couple of chances as well as having strong claims for a penalty denied.

With the scores level 1-1 at half-time I was slightly apprehensive about the early part of the second half as we have often looked vulnerable immediately after the break. However I was pleasantly surprised when we continued to look the better side. It was no injustice when we moved 2-1 ahead with a super goal from a free-kick. Sean Collins touched the ball to Phil Mortimer who drove the ball high into the net from 25 yards.

Spurs responded with their best spell of the game, putting us under severe pressure but Phil Church was up to the task. Chances continued to be missed at both ends before a mix up between Church and Wooding saw us concede a silly corner. From there we did not pick people up and the ball eventually cannoned into the net off a Tottenham player as we tried to clear the ball.

At the final whistle I was disappointed with only a draw and this surely reflects the high standards I expect from my teams.

Norwich City: Church, Prior, Mortimer, Collins, Cleveland, Wooding, Kamara, Johnson (Bugg), Sutton, Ewens, Herd. Sub: Burrows (unused).

ENFORCED CHANGES

Reserve team call ups and illness led to three changes for our game at Millwall. Bugg and Burrows came in at full back whilst Cureton replaced Sutton up front.

Our confidence was high and we went out not expecting to lose. Some of our football was of the highest quality, not quite as fluent as some of the first team's play but just as good to watch.

KEITH WEBB

Once again however, we fell foul of sloppy play from a dead ball situation; we were not alert to a far post ball and we paid the penalty.

Credit to the lads though, they fought back and created several opportunities and saw a couple of shots cleared off the line before finally getting an equaliser.

Millwall were as sloppy as we had been in allowing a Peter Burrows free kick to reach Jamie Cureton who controlled the ball before placing his shot in the only part of the goal he could see.

At half-time I felt we should have been ahead but the second half belonged almost entirely to Millwall. An early chance for David Ewens was the only respite from some concerted pressure. We defended well, although not always prettily and came home with a hard earned point.

Norwich City: Church, Bugg, Burrows, Collins, Cleveland, Wooding, Kamara, Cureton, Ewens, Johnson (Snowling), Herd. Sub: Brace (unused).

Our recent run of good form will be tested today against high flying Leyton Orient and on Monday at Ipswich in the Eastern Junior Cup. I am hoping for two good performances and results.

WEEKLY POSITIONS - BARCLAYS LEAGUE DIVISION ONE

NORWICH CITY

SWINDON TOWN

BRYAN GUNN

Thurso born goalkeeper making his 205th senior appearance for Norwich City today. Good display at Palace last week.

IAN CULVERHOUSE

Dependable right back who is not afraid to play his way out of tricky situations. Scored his only senior goal against Swindon.

MARK BOWEN

Made a brief appearance for the Barclay's League side in Naples last week. Another player who is confident when in possession.

IAN BUTTERWORTH (Capt.)

Man of the Match against Leeds in our last home match. Leads the side by example from his central defensive position.

JOHN POLSTON

Improving with every display as he settles into the Norwich pattern of play. Positive central defender signed from Tottenham.

IAN CROOK

Master of distribution in the Canary midfield. Playing his 172nd senior game for Norwich today.

DALE GORDON

Eight cup goals in forty five appearances before today. Great natural ability with the confidence to match.

ROBERT FLECK

Six goals so far this season including the two at Palace last Saturday. Effervescent striker who enjoys his football.

TIM SHERWOOD

Won the 'goal of the day' award for his superb drive against Leeds recently. Midfield player who loves to break forward.

DAVID SMITH

Hard working midfielder who will be making his full debut for the Canaries today. Liverpool born former Youth team player.

DAVID PHILLIPS

Playing his 6th F.A. Cup game for Norwich today. Full Welsh international midfielder who can play on either flank.

FRASER DIGBY

Celebrated his 24th birthday on Wednesday. Highly rated goalkeeper who is a former Manchester United apprentice.

DAVID KERSLAKE

Former England Under 21 midfield player who now plays mainly at right back. Loves to get forward and supply telling crosses.

PAUL BODIN

Aggressive, attacking left back who is in direct competition with Mark Bowen for the Welsh number three shirt. Born in Cardiff.

MICKY HAZARD

Well balanced midfield player who began his career with Tottenham. Dead ball specialist with the ability to do the unexpected.
