the gaffer

Good afternoon and welcome back to The County Ground for this afternoon's match against Walsall.

We've had a couple of good performances in the last two games, and although we haven't picked up as many points as we would have liked, we're still fighting for that last automatic promotion spot.

At Colchester last weekend I felt we were very unlucky to not come away

Obviously we're disappointed not to get the home win, but we saw on Monday that this division is very tight, and it's not surprising at all that Exeter have beaten the likes of Leeds this season because they are no mugs.

They played very well and contributed to what was a good footballing game, but we were more than worthy of a point in the end, and it keeps us well in contention for the second automatic promotion place.

We took the boys away from the

"We've got some young lads in the squad who can get quite excitable so we wanted to get them away because it's easy to lose your focus sometimes."

with anything from a game that we dominated from start to finish - but to be fair to Colchester, they made the most of their opportunities.

In all runs of play you would have expected the opportunities we had to have been finished off, but it was a frustrating afternoon.

There was some resilient, and in some cases fortunate defending from their point of view but it was one of those days for us I think.

Sometimes you need that bit of luck yourself and we didn't get it on Saturday.

So we were disappointed with the result but not with the performance and we went into Monday's game with Exeter still full of confidence.

As the second half wore on during that game I must admit I thought it was going to be a case of déjà vu, but fortunately for us that wasn't the case, and I thought we more than deserved a point from the game.

We dominated it for long periods - especially in the second half - and had umpteen chances to score but they defended well and their 'keeper was outstanding.

club for a few days after the Exeter game for some training at the National Sports Centre at Bisham Abbey.

It went well, and I think it was important for us to do it at that time because we just wanted to get some of the players away from the predictions that are coming up around the area.

We've got some young lads in the squad who can get quite excitable so we wanted to get them away because it's easy to lose your focus sometimes.

I think that trip will have gone a long way to clearing their minds and hopefully we'll see a new type of freshness in them today as a result.

The attendance on Monday night was encouraging, especially considering the fact that it was on Sky Sports, and hopefully we can see a similar turnout, if not better, for today's match.

Enjoy the game.

Danny Wilson

Question for the Gaffer?

D. Newsome, Hullavington asked:
Do you still think we're in with a chance of getting into the second automatic promotion space?

"We've still got a great chance of second spot, and we've got to retain the belief that we can get it.

That belief has to grow stronger because I don't just want us to hand it to someone else and settle for a play-off spot. If we don't get it then fair enough, but I think we've got a really good shot at it."

Mobile Ticket Trial →

Swindon Town supporters are being invited to take part in a mobile ticket trial for the last game of the season against Brentford.

Fans can buy tickets anywhere, anytime - and at a cheaper rate than anywhere else!

Mobile tickets are ONLY £18. Once in the stadium concourse why not purchase a drink from the Cross Bar or from any of our kiosks. If you come through the turnstiles before 2.00pm an additional £2 discount on your ticket price will apply.

There are only 150 mobile tickets available for the last game of the season (Brentford's visit to The County Ground on 1st May), all located in Block One of The Don Rogers.

STFC is launching a mobile ticket service to make your life easier by enabling you to buy tickets directly from your mobile or our website.

The ticket will appear on your mobile as a text so no more forgetting or losing your ticket or fiddling about for bits of paper. Simply bring your mobile, scan the barcode off the phone's screen at the turnstile and, bingo, you're in and seated in a dedicated mobile ticket seating area in the Don Rogers Stand.

Tickets are available on the website (where you can buy the tickets and have the details sent to your phone) or by texting in the word Swindon to 82500 (you will receive a link that you need to open and then follow the onscreen instructions).

Tickets can be purchased securely using a credit or debit card. Normal operator charges apply for the initial text in and any data usage.

When you have bought your ticket you will see displayed on your phone a ticket with the STFC logo, some text and a barcode (a square full of dots). Simply show your mobile ticket to the turnstile operator at Turnstiles 28 & 29 and you will then be able to enjoy the match.

All fans who purchase a mobile ticket will be entered into a prize draw, with the winner being presented with a football signed by the STFC Squad. This presentation will take place on the pitch at half-time. The winner will be notified by text during the first half.

Text Swindon to 82500 to buy your tickets and save!

*The discount will only be applicable if you have entered through the turnstile by 2.00pm. This will then be credited back to your payment card within five working days.

Military day today →

Nick Watkins: From the Boardroom

Welcome back to The County Ground and a very good afternoon to our visitors from the Black Country, the Saddlers, fresh from their mid week exploits against Huddersfield.

Here we are at the penultimate home game of the current League One season, with only Brentford left to entertain on May 1st, and then who knows what will happen after that? But what a season it has been and believe me, there are still some twist and turns left in it before the curtain finally falls on May 8th. It is only when you cast your mind back to that sunny afternoon of August 8th 2009, when our season opened with a spanking from Gillingham, that you begin to realise how far we have actually come, now poised as we are with a strong chance of promotion, either via the automatic route or through the gear box of the play-offs.

Not only has it been a season of progress but it has also been a season of coincidences, just a few of which are:

- The two sides that suffered very heavy defeats on the opening day of the season, now sit astride the division i.e. Norwich and ourselves
- We defeated Southampton FC one nil at home and away
- We defeated Leeds United three nil at home and away, with Billy Paynter scoring two goals and Charlie Austin scoring one goal, on both occasions
- We drew with Exeter City in all three encounters (winning the JPT fixture on penalties)
- We drew with Charlton Athletic at home and away, with Charlton scoring the equaliser in extra-time on both occasions
- We lost three nil to Bristol Rovers away and four nil at home

"You won't realise the distance you've walked until you take a look around and realise how far you've been."

Over 8,000 home fans were at The County Ground, along with the Sky Sports cameras, last Monday evening for the visit of Exeter City and what an exciting (and nail biting) 90 minutes of football they witnessed, with Danny Wilson's Red Army finally getting out of jail in those dying minutes of extra-time. The Sky Sports pundits were extremely complimentary about the quality of the game, the skilful football that STFC played, the condition of the pitch and the overall professionalism of the club, so let's hope it acts as an incentive for them to return on a more regular basis! Dropping a couple of points on Monday evening was frustrating but then the ghost of twist and turns returned on Tuesday evening with Millwall and Huddersfield just managing to get out of jail in extra time, against Yeovil and Huddersfield respectively and Norwich losing unexpectedly to Leyton Orient. As Danny Wilson said to me late on Tuesday evening; "It really is squeaky bum time" but we have our very own DW50 who will no doubt apply the correct amount of WD40 for those final four games.

Keeping the 1st team squad focused and fresh at this time of the season, especially with the pressure that they and the management find themselves under presently, is very important. To help with the focus and the freshness, the management and the players have been away for a couple of days, staying at the Burnham Beeches Hotel and training at Bisham Abbey near Marlow. It is a well-deserved break and hopefully the change of venue has helped rejuvenate the batteries.

So time to saddle up and get those vocal chords warmed up once again for this afternoon's fixture in order to cheer the Red Army onto victory and three incredibly important points.

If you sing, the STFC world will sing with you.

Good evening,

Gordon Greer: Captain's notes

Good afternoon and welcome back to The County Ground for this afternoon's match against Walsall.

We've missed out on a few points in recent games but confidence is still high among the boys and I'm sure we can get back on track with a win this afternoon.

As far as the game against Exeter is concerned, I think we put in a good performance and were unlucky not to get the win in the end.

Even though neither side had too many chances in the first half we had much more possession than them and could have made a bit more of it.

"we've just got to concentrate on our games and if the results go for us then great, but that shouldn't be our main worry."

But then they came forward with their first attack and scored which was really disappointing, though their lad did take it well.

So we went into half time wondering how we were 1-0 down really, but we really put a lot of pressure on them pretty much from the word go in the second half.

We had a lot of chances and it looked only a matter of time before we scored, but when Billy hit the bar with a header, and their 'keeper made a couple of brilliant saves you did start to wonder whether it was going to be one of those nights.

But fortunately for us J-P McGovern put in a great low cross and I didn't really see who it hit but it went in and we were delighted to have not come away from the game empty handed, as I think that would have been really unfair on us.

Having seen the goal on the TV since it was clearly an own goal which was a bit harsh on their guy who'd played well all night, but we weren't worried about that because we more than deserved a point from that game.

Tuesday night's results could have gone better for us with both Charlton and Leeds winning and Millwall getting a late equaliser, but as I've said before, we've just got to concentrate on our games and if the results go for us then great, but that shouldn't be our main worry.

In terms of today's game, I'm expecting a big test against a Walsall side who will be hurting after their dramatic defeat on Tuesday night against Huddersfield.

They may be mid-table and many people will think they've got nothing to play for, but I know that won't be the case, because if you don't want to win every game you play then there's no point playing this game.

So we know they're going to be right up for this game, and it's up to us to put on another good performance and keep the pressure on at the top of the table.

We really are at the business end of the year now and I hope you will give us the same kind of support you've given us all season in these last four games.

Enjoy the game.

TALK OF THE TOWN:

THE BIG D

We caught up with three London-based Reds to find out how they follow the Town from afar, their thoughts on the run-in and why this season has been a success no matter what happens... →

Q Are you ready for the run-in?

PA: My nerves are good at the moment, but that won't be the case if we get to Wembley – that's never good for the blood pressure!

MA: Strangely, I am calmer after the Exeter game. I've accepted we may miss out on automatic promotion, so I'm saving my panics for the play-offs. It seems weird hearing people talk about 'missing out on automatic' when you consider where we were 12 months ago. Whatever happens, this season has been amazing.

MM: My nerves are shot after the Exeter and Colchester games. We are playing some great stuff at the moment but seem to struggle in converting chances into goals.

Q You watched the Exeter match together in London; do you find it more nerve-racking not being at the ground?

MM: Usually I'd say it is more nerve-racking being at the game, but watching us bombard the Exeter goal without scoring until the 94th minute was terrifying.

MA: I always find watching Swindon on TV slightly unsettling, it's strange seeing that ground I know so well – a constant in my life for 20 years – from different angles. I tell myself that shouting at the screen is an utterly futile exercise. I never remember that, though.

PA: I find it's easier being a little detached. A little bit of central London went mad when the equaliser went in on Monday night. I think if we had managed a winner, some of us may still have been there the morning-after.

Q Presumably you do the London games in force?

PA: There's normally a good turn out for London games, they're treated as our home games to an extent.

MM: We pull out all the stops and we have good London knowledge between us.

MA: Fulham this year was the first time I've walked to a game since I left Swindon. Brentford was another highlight, a friend who lives in the area texted at half seven to say they could still hear us on the high road. I was strangely proud. Millwall two →

"Millwall is always tasty but with added spicy interest for the season's final game."

"To get promotion to the top-flight again after the heartbreak of 1990 and to do it playing great football."

seasons ago is probably my favourite away day ever.

Q Do you get to most home games, or do you have to pick and choose?

MA: I tend to average about 10-12 a season no matter what league we are in or how we are doing. The atmosphere at away games is more fun these days, though there is still something special about seeing a great win at The County Ground.

MM: I still have some friends and family in Swindon, so I try and combine home games with visits (or the other way round)!

MA: I'd probably go to more home games if First Great Western didn't charge such a ludicrously high fee for what is an hour's train journey from Paddington.

Midweek games are hard to attend for most of us, as for myself it's a two-hour drive each way, so I tend to do Saturday home games only. Saying that, I have already purchased a Season Ticket for next year, but won't get anywhere near full attendance.

Q Do you find it hard keeping up with news?

MA: Being an exiled football fan has got immeasurably easier with the Internet, whether you live 80 or 8,000 miles away. I've got a friend who is currently travelling in South America and he knows as much about what's going on as anyone, though whether you should be in an internet cafe waiting for final scores to come in when your fiancé is out looking at a volcano is a fair question!

PA: I'm a member of two forums, and use the official site daily. In fact both myself and Matt A are moderators on what was the old MOS.

MM: The forums mainly talk about Master Chef, which is not one of my main interests.

Q Any games you do/don't fancy in the run-in?

MA: I don't want to make any predictions that could come back and bite me; we've seen we can batter teams and still slip up. On paper, Walsall, Wycombe and Brentford are winnable and Millwall an almost impossible task. But as the old saying goes, 'football's played on grass, not paper'.

PA: Exeter have shown anything can happen. Many games at the business end of the season quite often don't go as expected.

MM: I didn't think we would struggle against Exeter, who defended very well, but we have to win the lot. Millwall is always tasty but with added spicy interest for the season's final game. I hope we are both playing for second spot. My only fear is that if we lose that we will go into play-offs disappointed.

Q Would you rather we won at Wembley than going up automatic?

PA: Ask me that if/after we have won at Wembley!

MM: Automatic has got to be better for me, personally. But we should remember we have done really well this season and things bode well for the future, irrespective of promotion.

MA: If you could guarantee me a win at the beginning of the play-offs... but the truth is they are a nerve-shredding experience for everyone involved, I've only just got over 'that night at The Withdean', I'm not sure I could take another.

Q What are your best/worst play-off memories?

MA: May 31, 1993 remains one of the best days of my life. To get promotion to the top-flight again after the heartbreak of 1990 and to do it playing great football, it just doesn't get better than that.

MM: The '93 play-off final against Leicester was a victory against the injustice of the 1990 fiasco. I cried three times at that game, firstly out of disbelief that we were 3-0 up, desperation at being 3-3 and finally relief at the full-time whistle. A very emotional day.

PA: My favourite was the win over the Gills at Selhurst: we also looked down and out with five minutes of the home leg left. I don't think I've ever jumped around as much as when Charlie Henry's volley hit the back of the net.

Q What have been your favourite games/moments this season?

MA: Leeds away was just fantastic; Billy's second will live long in the memory. Brentford at their place was the best atmosphere I've been in for years, the game and the result weren't bad either.

PA: I'm going to sound like a right football snob, but it has to be Charlie's full debut goal at Carlisle, for me.

MM: I have really enjoyed watching Austin's meteoric rise from bricky to legend this season. And long may it continue. This Roy of the Rovers stuff is what makes the lower league so much better than the Premier League. Leeds away will take some beating. Paynter's second goal was awesome!

Q Which players have impressed you in particular?

MA: Scott Cuthbert is a class apart, and I think he'll go on to play at a much higher level, hopefully not too soon. You can tell how important Jonathan Douglas is by what happened when he was harshly suspended. Charlie's impact has been immense, but I think Billy Paynter deserves a lot of credit for creating a second successful strike partnership so soon after Coxy left. And Jean-Francois has all the makings of a cult hero, to be honest for the first time since I was a kid I've got about 12 favourite players.

PA: It would be unfair to single any of the squad out for extra praise; they have all been superb this season. This group have been a real pleasure to watch.

MM: McGovern is a different player since Danny Wilson took over. He has drastically improved and has worked his socks off this season. Paynter has been great and created so many chances for players around him, I feel he doesn't always get the credit he deserves. Ward and Ferry have brought a lot to the team and I hope we keep hold of them.

Q What does it mean to have seen Swindon in form this year – what would it mean to you if we were to return to the Championship?

MA: After a decade away I'd love to go back to the Championship, I'll always see that as our natural home. What's been great about this season is having friends of other clubs compliment me on what a great side we've become, after a decade of pity – it's refreshing.

PA: The way we have played is a credit to the hard work that has been played out behind the scenes, by the board and the supporting staff. For the first time I can remember we have a solid foundation, we're definitely on the up.

MM: I agree, I am just so happy that the club is being well managed and looked after by Andrew Fitton, Nick Watkins and Jeremy Wray. The recent financial trouble and threat of 'winding up' orders has made being a Town fan an emotional strain during the last 10 years, so I'm just very happy that we are still going strong, playing good football and looking positively at the future ahead.

Q Walsall today then, do you fancy it?

MA: Having sat through that draw at the Bescot earlier in the season I'd like to think we'll show them how far we've come.

PA: Town 2-0

MM: 5-0 win. Greer hat-trick, Paynter and Austin.

Q The return of Super Sam... how would you compare our current strikers?

MA: Super Sam and Simon Cox scored goals in Swindon teams that weren't always performing that well, the big test for Charlie is if he can hit the back of the net when things aren't going our way. Having said that, I think Charlie has always scored goals wherever he's played, so he should be fine. The same sadly cannot be said for Parkin, with only three goals this season I doubt Walsall fans consider him as 'Super' as we do.

PA: Billy's been a revelation this season, he was one of our better players last year, but has now added goals and has really stepped his game up. Charlie... what can you say? He's been brilliant, a real joy to watch. Both are legends in the making here, which of course SSP already is, I'm looking forward to giving him the reception he deserves on Saturday.

"Scott Cuthbert is a class apart, and I think he'll go on to play at a much higher level."

"With only three goals this season I doubt Walsall fans consider him as 'Super' as we do."

WALSALL

Walsall are playing for pride for the remainder of season 2010/2011, as they sit comfortably in 13th position in League One – 13 points clear of relegation trouble, yet 14 adrift of the play-off shake up.

Inconsistency has been the bane of manager Chris Hutchings' life this term, with his side registering consecutive victories on just three occasions during the campaign.

Following an opening day victory over Brighton & Hove Albion at The Withdean Stadium, the Saddlers then went without a win from the following six games, until a 3-2 victory away at Tranmere Rovers and a 1-1 home draw with Town signalled something of a resurgence at The Bescot Stadium.

So much so that the next 11 games saw them defeated on just three occasions, and included victories over Huddersfield Town (2-1), Exeter City (3-0) and Yeovil Town (3-1).

With their play-off hopes gradually building off the back of this run, the Saddlers went into the Christmas period in optimistic mood.

However, this crucial period of the season was as disastrous as their previous run had been impressive, with the next eight fixtures bringing just four points from a miserable two month winless run which ultimately put paid to any dreams of reaching the top six.

Three wins out of four then followed, including impressive away triumphs over Bristol Rovers (1-0) and Leeds United (2-1), but the Saddlers' trademark inconsistency has led them into today's clash, with four victories, six defeats and two draws from their last 12 matches – including a pulsating 4-3 defeat against Huddersfield Town at The Galpharm Stadium on Tuesday night.

Troy Deeney and Darren Byfield top the goal scoring charts for today's visitors with 10 and 11 goals respectively, while Town legend Sam Parkin has netted on three occasions this term.

The reverse fixture at The Banks' Stadium back in September resulted in a 1-1 draw, as Billy Paynter's 80th minute penalty cancelled out Troy Deeney's early opener.

GILMARTIN

A highly-rated young goalkeeper, Rene Gilmartin has established himself as the Saddlers' number one over the past couple of months.

The Irishman moved to The Banks' Stadium as an 18-year-old in the summer of 2005 and made his first senior appearance the following September.

Gilmartin was allowed to link-up with local non-League outfit Hednesford Town for the majority of the 2007/08 but was recalled to The Banks' Stadium in January 2008 as cover for experienced 'keeper Clayton Ince, doing enough to earn a new deal in May 2008.

He was called upon a number of times over the last two seasons, including a man-of-the-match performance against The Robins in a 2-1 Walsall win in November 2008.

The 22-year-old's patience has paid off this campaign, and he has wrestled the number one shirt from Trinidad & Tobago international Ince.

VINCENT

The former Swindon defender signed a one-year deal with The Saddlers following his release from The County Ground last summer and has gone on to impress at the heart of the Saddlers' defence.

The 34-year-old came through the ranks at Crystal Palace before enjoying a two-and-a-half year spell at AFC Bournemouth.

Huddersfield Town paid £500,000 to secure his services in March 1999 and two years later, Portsmouth snapped him up in an £800,000 deal.

During his time at Fratton Park, Vincent spent a three-month loan spell at Walsall, making 12 appearances. His next move took him to Derby County and in recent years he has also served Millwall and Yeovil Town.

Vincent signed for The Robins in the summer of 2006 and went on to make 89 appearances at The County Ground.

Comfortable at either centre-half or full-back, Vincent has been an almost ever present on the left side of Chris Hutchings' defence this season.

RICHARDS

Another pre-season signing, Matt Richards put pen to paper on a two-year deal just days before the current campaign got under way after a successful trial.

The 24-year-old came through the ranks at Ipswich Town, making a total of 168 appearances for The Tractor Boys. During his time at Portman Road, the left midfielder also won England Under 21 honours and played a key role in the East Anglian club's play-off campaigns in 2003/04 and 2004/05.

The Harlow-born midfielder continued to impress for Ipswich the following two seasons but slipped down the pecking order in the summer of 2007. Richards spent the majority of the 2007/08 campaign on loan at Brighton, playing in the Seagulls' 3-0 victory at The County Ground.

Comfortable at either left-back or left midfield, Richards returned to The Withdean Stadium the following term and made a total of 57 appearances, scoring once for the Sussex side in three separate loan spells.

Following his release from Ipswich, Chris Hutchings snapped him up and he has been in good form for the Saddlers so far this season, scoring three goals as an almost-ever-present.

GRAY

Chris Hutchings moved quickly to complete the signing of experienced winger Julian Gray until the end of the season following his release from Championship side Barnsley.

The 30-year-old came through the ranks at Arsenal, but his first-team opportunities were limited to just one appearance for The Gunners before Crystal Palace paid £500,000 to take him to Selhurst Park in 2000.

His pace and skill out wide quickly became apparent at Palace and he went on to become a key figure for the club in well over 100 appearances, during which time he scored the goal at Anfield that knocked Liverpool out of the FA Cup in 2002/03.

Spells at Birmingham, Coventry and Fulham followed, before signing for the Tykes at the beginning of the current campaign. The wide-man made seven appearances under Simon Davey, but his short-term deal was not renewed, allowing him to move to The Banks' Stadium.

PARKIN

A Swindon Town legend, Sam Parkin is making his first return to The County Ground since departing in the summer of 2005.

The 29-year-old came through the ranks at Chelsea, before enjoying loan spells at Millwall, Wycombe Wanderers, Oldham Athletic and Northampton Town.

Andy King then moved to sign the striker in 2002, and he made a sensational start to his Swindon career, scoring a hat-trick on his debut.

Parkin went on to break the 20-goal barrier three seasons on the trot, finishing with 73 goals in a 142 appearances and combining superbly with Tommy Mooney to fire Town to the League One play-offs in 2004.

our opponents:

GAFFER CHRIS HUTCHINGS

Chris Hutchings was named as Jimmy Mullen's successor as Walsall manager in January last year, successfully guiding the club away from the relegation zone.

The 51 year-old has managed in the Premier League with spells at the helm of both Bradford City and Wigan Athletic.

His first coaching position came at Rotherham United, where he was youth team coach after bringing the curtain down on his playing career whilst at Millmoor.

He then moved on to Bradford City, initially as assistant to Chris Kamara, before working for the first time with Paul Jewell. During his time with the Bantams he helped the club rise from to the top-flight.

Following Jewell to Wigan Athletic in 2001, he spent six years at the club and played a key role in establishing them in the Premier League before stepping into the limelight as caretaker boss for a 13 game spell after Jewell's departure.

Moving on to Derby County in April 2008, again under Jewell's stewardship, he remained at Pride Park until December 2008 before accepting his first permanent managerial role, at The Banks' Stadium.

This term is his first full season at the helm, and his side are firmly embedded in mid-table comfort.

After making the switch from Swindon to Walsall in the summer, defender Jamie Vincent has been one of the first names on the Saddlers' teamsheet term.

The defender is equally at home at left-back or in the heart of the defence and should have clocked up his 400th league start by the time the 2009/10 season comes to a close.

Speaking to the official matchday programme, the 34-year old offered his views ahead of this afternoon's encounter.

Overall you must be pretty pleased with the way things have gone for you at Walsall?

I am happy with the way things have gone. Last year I missed most of the season with a knee injury and this season I just wanted to get a run of games under my belt. To be honest I didn't think I would have played as much as I have, but have now started 34 games. Fortunately things have gone really well.

You must have fond memories of playing against Walsall for Swindon a few seasons back?

The promotion season with Swindon is definitely one of the highlights of my career. I remember the Walsall game, especially being so disappointed when Walsall scored in the last minute. We were pleased with promotion but disappointed to have conceded in the last minute.

End of season games can throw up some odd results can't they?

You're right... from a Walsall point of view we want to finish as high as we can, maybe even 10th or 11th place in the division. We should be a bit higher with the players we have and hopefully we can pick up a few more points.

How much are you looking forward to a return to The County Ground?

It's always nice going back to your old clubs and today will be the second time for that this week, as I played at Huddersfield on Tuesday night. Swindon have changed their squad quite dramatically since I was there but there are still a few players there that I can say hello to.

How will you approach the game this afternoon?

We can go into the match quietly confident after playing well in the reverse fixture earlier in the season at The Bescot where we got a draw despite conceding two penalties.

Hopefully we can knock the ball around and enjoy what should be a good game of football.

TROY Deeney

STAR MAN

The highly-rated forward joined Walsall in December 2006, initially on trial, and has gone on to become one of The Saddlers' most valuable possessions.

After failing to make the grade at Aston Villa, he played local non-league football before signing on at The Banks' Stadium after a successful trial period. He immediately joined Halesowen Town on loan, where he bagged eight goals in just ten outings, and the hard-working and strong front-man put pen to paper on his first professional deal with Walsall in March 2006.

Getting his first taste of first-team action with a substitute appearance at Torquay towards the end of 2006/07, he went on to figure regularly for the first-team in 2007/08.

The 21-year-old began to make a name for himself last season, finishing the campaign with 12 goals, including one in a 3-2 defeat at The County Ground. Deeney went on to win the Saddlers' Goal of the Season prize for his sweet strike at Scunthorpe as well as finishing runner-up for Young Player of the Season.

The pacey youngster has 13 goals to his name so far this season, including the opener in The Robins' 1-1 at The Banks' Stadium last September and is expected to move on to bigger things in the near future.

Did you hear our Charlie, Charlie Austin interview with a difference on Monday night? We're grateful for his time as the 'Footballing Forsters' (young brothers Billy & Charlie from Broad Hinton) conducted an interview for BBC Wiltshire.

We all know the story of his transition from builder to professional footballer. They discovered that:

- Steven Gerrard is the most famous person he's ever met, at Liverpool/Sunderland recently, while he'd most like to meet... Megan Fox!
- With his first football pay-packet he bought... a wash bag!
- On the eve of playing Norwich at Carrow Road, he's never been so scared in his life before performing 'Wonderwall' by Oasis in front of his team-mates. He was sweating so much he felt like he was coming out of a sauna!

"I was at close quarters for our 17 attempts (on and off target) compared to four from Exeter. It really was like the Alamo!"

In our usual busy Soccer Special at The County Ground, we caught up with Simon Cox pre-match, Season Ticket-holder Dave Young who'd kicked for a car (unsuccessfully) at half-time and Jon-Paul McGovern at the final whistle.

I actually watched the game from behind the goal being attacked by the Town, a completely different perspective from the commentary-box! I was at close quarters for our 17 attempts (on and off target) compared to four from Exeter. It really was like the Alamo! The ball-boy next to me kept saying 'this time' for the equaliser and eventually it came.

I'm now writing these notes whilst cheering Yeovil Town at home to Millwall and hoping Leeds slip up at Carlisle. It seems to be about expectation. Not that long ago, the play-offs for a place in the Championship were an achievement, now that flirtation with the top-two promotes disappointment at Swindon 'only' being fourth in the table with four fixtures remaining.

Keep the faith, for Walsall's visit and beyond!

QUIZ FUN

Can you name the country and year that these World Cup mascots belong to?

ANSWERS: 1 South Africa 2010, 2 Spain 1982, 3 Mexico 1986, 4 France 1998.

Bonjour Swindon! I have some exciting news. It's ground breaking, it's gripping, and it's earth shattering...

Yours truly, Mister Robin, the bird who is absurd, won the 'Swindon Festival of Sport' mascot race, and has been crowned the fastest mascot in Swindon, nay Wiltshire, nay The South West nay... okay, I'm getting carried away now!

It was a three mascot relay race between myself, the Swindon Speedway Rhino and Allie the Alligator. We had to relay up and down the racing enclosure, for what felt like 123 times, to the theme tune of "It's a knockout". There was literally mascot blood (I cut my wing), sweat (it was very hot!) and tears (of joy and adulation!).

The race was part of an afternoon of sporting fun and frolics. I took the opportunity to take part in a self-defence class and learnt how to defend myself against an angry looking, but quite well-built man holding an empty lemonade bottle! Invaluable advice! If you do happen to be walking home tonight, and there is a man who is angry that he drank all of his lemonade, then, "Who can you call... Rockin' Robin!"

Let's hope for some joy and adulation today.

Come on you Reds.

Guus Hiddink has revealed he was on Manchester City's list of names to replace boss Mark Hughes in December.

"We didn't have talks but I knew there was some interest," said Hiddink.

Roberto Mancini eventually got the job as City coach, while former Chelsea boss Hiddink, 63, decided to remain in international football.

The Dutchman, who has also managed the Netherlands, Australia and South Korea, will take charge of Turkey once his contract with Russia ends this summer.

Hiddink admitted he had been torn between taking a job with a national team or returning to the Premier League with cash-rich City.

My school days...

They weren't that long ago! I was born in Plymouth and went to Stoke Danmerel School. My best subject was probably Maths whereas English was probably my weakest subject. I enjoyed school overall and made some good friends during my time there.

Spare time...

My family and a lot of my friends are based down near home in Plymouth, so when I get time off I try and get down there and see them when time allows. Other than that I like to relax by spending time socialising in Swindon with friends or just chilling out at home.

Hello and welcome to the Junior Robins and the Junior Saddlers that have made the journey here today.

Since I have been the STFC Junior Robins Co-ordinator I have met with the Junior Saddlers a few times and would like to welcome Mick Kearns and Gary Edwards here this afternoon. They have made us feel very welcome at Walsall in the past so hopefully we can reciprocate that today.

Well, we only have four League One games left now. These four games are so very important and hopefully they can put us where we would like to be after such a great season. The Junior Robins Room will be open for the last home game of this season. There will be quite an air of excitement in there for these two home games I am sure.

I am also looking forward to the trips away to Wycombe (with my family) and to Millwall with the Junior Robins. At the beginning of the season when I booked in to take a Junior Robins coach to Millwall I would never have guessed just how important that game would be for both teams.

We are still hoping to have an end of season party for the Junior Robins, I will keep you posted on that.

As I stated in the Exeter programme on Monday night, once a play-off place is secured I will send out details to our Junior Robins members via email. Details will also appear on the official club website if there will be a JR coach going to the away leg.

Come on you Reds!

Defensive heroes...

I grew up as an Arsenal fan, so the likes of Tony Adams and Martin Keown were both players who I grew up watching a lot. They were superb players and played a massive part that Arsenal had in the late nineties.

England's World Cup chances...

This summer will be a massive one for England. Under Capello they have a pretty good chance of success although I think that they will end up reaching the semi-finals. Wayne Rooney will probably be the star for England whilst I think Wayne Bridge should get the left-back slot.

Match Background

The second game of 1975/76 saw Town travel to Fellows Park, Walsall to challenge for the two, Division Three points on offer against the Saddlers. Town were hoping to build on the previous campaign that had seen a promotion push fail at the last hurdle under the original Town DW boss, Danny Williams.

Future Walsall boss Alan Buckley scored for Walsall and Peter Eastoe scored for Town in front of a crowd of 5,146

On 24th April 1976 the two teams met again, this time for the second but last fixture of the campaign, and 7,363 at The County Ground witness an unexpected penalty shoot out in the days before they were part of football law.

After 25 minutes Walsall's Buckley netted from the spot for his 35th goal of the season after being challenged by John Trollope. Just one minute later, referee Lester Shapter repeated his decision at the other end, and Town's Northern Ireland international striker Trevor Anderson levelled.

Incredibly Shapter pointed to the 12-yard mark for the third time in seven minutes, Anderson obliging once more to give us the lead, and eight minutes into the second period, Kelvin Clarke was adjudged to have handled in the box to allow Anderson to complete a hat trick of penalties against the hapless Mick Kearns.

The pair of David's, Moss and Syrett added a 'regular' goal each in the last 15 minutes to produce a final score line of 5-1 to Town.

Season outcome for both clubs

Town had endured a fraught nine months between the two fixtures with Walsall. Never higher than 15th all season, we had spent over half of the campaign entrenched in the drop zone. In January we briefly put our heads above the parapet of relegation, but all of March was spent back in the bottom four as Division Four looked ominous.

Then with six matches to go victory at Colchester dragged us above the dreaded line. Five days after the 5-1 home win over Walsall, a 2-2 home draw with Wrexham rubber stamped our Division Three survival.

The Saddlers had a comfortable seventh place finish, missing the top three by six points.

PETER EASTOE picked up his Swindon colleagues up by the scruff of the neck to inspire a second-half fightback after scoring the equaliser. But his efforts were in vain and they had to settle for a point - with Eastoe himself missing a couple of good chances to net the winner. Walsall were ahead through last season's leading goal-scorer, Alan Buckle, who notched the club's first goal of the campaign with a side-footed shot after twelve minutes. It was set up by a short cross from Donnelly, who caused panic in the Swindon defence whenever he took the ball into their ranks. The Saddlers were well on top in the first half.

In vain, Eastoe

But in the 26th minute Stuart Dorey's play allowed a McLoughlin cross to find the Walsall keeper, who marked Eastoe, whose diving header went into the net off Kearney's post. After the break it was a different story. Swindon put their game together and, with Stuart coming through strongly, the back were able to take control of midfield and create chances. front runners.

SWINDON TOWN VS WALSALL 2006/07

Walsall's visit to The County Ground this afternoon will bring back fond memories of the meeting between the two sides at the end of the 2006/07 season.

The crucial fixture saw The Robins go into the game looking for a share of the spoils to secure a swift return to League One following relegation at the end of the 2005/06 season.

Despite an early injury to right-back Jack Smith, now with fellow promotion chasers Millwall, Town took the lead thanks to a 52nd minute bullet header from Jerel 'The Beast' Ifil to send home fans amongst the capacity crowd of 14,731 into raptures.

However, Walsall levelled things up on the stroke of full-time with midfielder Dean Keates lashing home from the edge of the box to send the visitors up as League Two champions.

OFF THE MARK

MARK MARSHALL MAY NOT HAVE PLAYED THE MOST SIGNIFICANT PART IN TOWN'S SUCCESSFUL SEASON, BUT BOTH HIS PAST AND FUTURE CONTRIBUTIONS COULD YET PROVE VITAL TO THE CLUB'S TENSE LEAGUE ONE RUN-IN.

Words: Chris Smith

Before last month's visit to Brighton & Hove Albion, Mark Marshall had made just six substitute appearances this season, and was preparing himself for another afternoon on the bench at The Withdean Stadium.

However, an injury to Vincent Pericard just 13 minutes in gave the winger his chance, and he duly took it with both hands; providing a vital outlet for Town during a tough second half and laying on Charlie Austin's 15th goal of the season.

"It was a bit of a shock to be honest because I hadn't been involved for a lot of the season, but I was ready for it," recalled the 22-year-old.

"I wasn't expecting to come on so early, but I just thought 'this is my opportunity' and I knew I had to go out there and give it my all.

"I was pleased with the way I played and I had a bit of freedom which helped set up the goal for Charlie and that made it a bit more special too.

"It was very boggy at Brighton which made it even harder for me but I was pleased with the way myself and the team dealt with the conditions.

"I felt like I did very well there and I was happy to contribute to a massive win for us."

That man of the match performance in East Sussex significantly raised Marshall's stock amongst Town fans and management alike, with Danny Wilson praising his 'bundles of energy' and stating that 'other players can learn from him.'

The winger was rewarded for his match-winning display with a starting berth three days later for Town's clash with Southampton at St. Mary's - quite a transformation for a player who had been turning out for Hereford United in it's just a matter of keeping working hard and seeing how it goes.

"I've played in four of the last six games which has been great for me and it's just something I have to build on for the rest of the season."

And with just four games left of what has been a pulsating season at SN1, Marshall is still determined to impact further Town's promotion push, insisting he will be primed and ready to contribute when called upon.

"On a personal level this season

"I definitely want to play so I've got to keep working away and when the opportunity comes again I will be ready for it."

League Two earlier this season.

Despite having returned to the bench for the subsequent home clash with Norwich City on March 20th, Marshall remains positive about his contribution to a crucial period of results in what was billed as the toughest month of the season.

"Obviously I was delighted to start the game at Southampton and I thought I did very well in that," he said.

"It was a great night and another great win that I was pleased to be involved in.

"I was a bit disappointed to be put back on the bench after the Southampton game to be honest but could have been better, but I'm not complaining at all because I'm happy to be doing this job," he said.

"I feel like when I've been given the opportunity I've grasped it and done pretty well, so all I can do is keep working hard.

"I definitely want to play so I've got to keep working away and when the opportunity comes again I will be ready for it.

"And if that opportunity comes in the play-offs then great, but it would be better if we could avoid that pressure.

"Hopefully the other teams around us can have a bad patch and then we'll see where the season takes us."

David Byrne was left a frustrated man after watching his reserve side draw 2-2 with Exeter City at St James Park on Wednesday evening.

Byrne's largely dominant side had looked set to claim the win as they took a 2-1 lead into the second half courtesy of an own goal and a neat finish from James Richards.

However a controversial free kick was swept into the box and eventually converted by Grecians striker Kyle Bassett in the 93rd minute to earn the hosts what Byrne believes was an undeserved point.

"As far as the result goes I was gutted," he said after the final whistle.

"The fact that they scored in the 93rd minute was hugely disappointing, because it was a decision from the referee that I felt handed Exeter a point.

"It was a foul on Nathan Thompson that he's given the other way, and they scored from the resulting free kick, but overall I was absolutely over the moon with performance.

With much of the first team squad away at Bisham Abbey, Byrne named a youthful line up for the match, with Callum Kennedy, Jakub Jesionkowski, Lloyd Macklin and Nathan Thompson the only senior professionals in the squad, but the reserve manager was delighted with the maturity shown by his fledgling team.

He said: "We had two schoolboys, a lot of scholars and four first year pros in the side and the performance they gave was outstanding.

"We could have won by three or four to be honest and even though Exeter had a lot of possession they didn't really hurt us.

"After the game Steve Perryman (Exeter Director of Football) said that we should be delighted with the progress of our kids as they were excellent all night."

THE IMPORTANCE OF CORE TRAINING

Core conditioning and abdominal conditioning have become synonymous in recent years but the abdominal muscles alone are over-rated when it comes to real core strength or conditioning. In reality, the abdominal muscles have very limited and specific action.

The "core" actually consists of many different muscles that stabilise the spine and pelvis and run the entire length of the torso. These muscles stabilize the spine, pelvis and shoulder and provide a solid foundation for movement in the extremities. Core conditioning exercise programs need to target all these muscle groups to be effective. These muscles help control movements, transfer energy, shift body weight and move in any direction. A strong core distributes the stresses of weight-bearing and protects the back.

The following list includes the most commonly identified core muscles as well as the lesser known groups. The goal of core stability is to maintain a solid, foundation and transfer energy from the centre of the body out to the limbs. Muscles that accomplish this goal include: Rectus Abdominis, Erector Spinae, Multifidus, External Obliques, Internal Obliques, Transverse Abdominis (TVA), Hip Flexors which include the psoas major, iliacus, rectus femoris, pectineus, sartorius.

Because the muscles of the trunk and torso stabilise the spine from the pelvis to the neck and shoulder, they allow the transfer of powerful movements of the arms and legs. All powerful movements originate from the centre of the body out, and never from the limbs alone. Before any powerful, rapid muscle contractions can occur in the limbs, the spine must be solid and stable and the more stable the core, the more powerful the extremities can contract.

Training the muscles of the core also corrects postural imbalances that can lead to injuries. The biggest benefit of core training is to develop functional fitness - that is, fitness that is essential to both daily living and regular activities.

Here are some simple core exercises: Half up Twists, Plank, Plank alternate leg lifts, side plank dips, Superman's, Dead bugs and the Oblique Leg Extensions.

DICK'S DIARY

It has been a fairly quiet week in the Town treatment room, with the majority of the first team squad training at Bisham Abbey for a few days.

Kurt Hammonds continues to increase his leg musculature with daily bouts of static biking, work on the cross-trainer and appropriate resistance exercises. These are usually finished off with a swimming routine at The Nuffield at Greenbridge. In May, which will be three months after his operation, we will be able to embark on a more rigorous and interesting phase of his rehabilitation which will include a footballing element.

Alan O'Brien continues with a rigorous CV programme with appropriate hamstring strengthening exercises. He has now started a daily ball-work routine which consists of cutting and turning with the ball, shorter and longer passing at varying speeds together with crossing at the training ground.

Youth Team Round-up

Paul Bodin's Under 18's registered a point from the 'long old poke' to Plymouth Argyle last weekend.

PLYMOUTH ARGYLE 1 SWINDON TOWN 1

Town's youngsters gained a creditable point from a tough away trip to Plymouth Argyle last Saturday, and moved to within one victory of clinching the league title.

The young Robins wasted no time in opening the goal scoring as they registered as early as the first minute.

A long throw down the left from James Richards was flicked on by Jordan Record inside the six yard box and Matt Barnes hit an unstoppable volley past the helpless Plymouth keeper.

As the game settled down it became an even contest with very few clear cut opportunities at either end with both defences looking strong.

Right on the stroke of half time the Pilgrims took advantage when a moment of hesitation in the Swindon rearguard allowed the lone Plymouth striker to equalize with a clinical finish from 16 yards out.

The second half was a little disappointing in terms of goal mouth action as both teams failed to play any controlled passages of passing skill with no cutting edge in either final third.

The wind and bobbly pitch weren't conducive to good quality football and the game finished 1-1 leaving both sides a little disappointed.

Town Under 18s manager Paul Bodin commented: "Plymouth is always a tough place to go and play as they smother midfield and try to catch you on the counter attack.

"We got off to a great start through Matt Barnes, but couldn't capitalize on some good early opportunities.

Football in the Community: Easter Fun!

EASTER COURSES

The last two weeks of courses have been absolutely fantastic with nearly 400 youngsters attending here at the club and over at the excellent facilities at St. Joseph's Catholic College.

The four-day format has proved to be very successful, replacing the traditional three-day format. We have received some very positive feedback from both parents and children alike.

Over the two weeks the children have had the opportunity to improve their techniques and skills, compete in matches with children of their own age-groups and also had the chance to win prizes for competitions. The prestigious 'Kid of the Week' and 'Kid of the Course' trophies were also awarded.

In addition to all this, children attending the course have had a chance to meet members of this season's very successful first team squad and had a look behind the scenes here at The County Ground!

Yesterday was the icing on the cake with the deadly duo of Billy Paynter and Charlie Austin, who have scored 43 League One goals between them so far this season, taking time out to hand out the prizes and goody bags to all the participants. Billy and Charlie also answered a variety of questions from the children in what was a fantastic afternoon.

Player appearances and involvement with our children at these courses is absolutely invaluable, particularly at this present moment in time with the team doing so well and the children having so many players in the spotlight on their doorstep. Billy and Charlie have done well on the pitch this season but it's great to see they are also making a difference in the community too. Our thanks also go to Michael Timlin for his time at the Week One course.

The STFC Supporters Club

Welcome along for today's match which is another important one in our quest for promotion!

Monday's 1-1 draw was perhaps not what we were all looking forward to, but at least another £55 was added to the Pounds for Points fund taking it to £4,273.50.

As the season nears its end, there are many things happening. Members should be in receipt of their newsletter, containing half-time draw tickets for the last game of the season, Player of the Year voting slip and application form for the end of season dinner.

I am repeating this information from Tuesday as we don't want anyone to miss out on the dinner and if fans who are not Supporters Club members would like to attend, then do please contact me on 01865 820499 for further information.

Today we welcome our first two mascots who won the prize in our Christmas time competition for members. Taylor Churchill and Sophie West we hope you have a great day.

We are also treating 10 Supporters Club members to a special day of hospitality at The County Ground. They won this prize from a free draw amongst all of our members. If you were unlucky and didn't win, there is always next year.

I hope that everyone enjoyed the Vale and West Oxon Group's recent evening at The Fox at Denchworth. Certainly when tickets went on sale they were very much in demand as it is always a tremendous evening.

Just one more home match left and don't forget the half-time draw that day will have three prizes. The first prize is £1,000 and the second prize is a Season Ticket for next season. The third prize of a team shirt will be waiting for the winner.

Here's hoping that a run of results can see Town secure automatic promotion. Keep your fingers crossed.

Roger.

Fans of the Future Groups →

Today we welcome Melksham Utd to The County Ground who are celebrating the merger of two junior football clubs in Melksham. Melksham Town Youth & Melksham Park have merged and the new name of the club is Melksham Utd. The new Club will have around 500 children playing football from the age of 6 to 17 from September 2010. Today will see two Under 7's teams representing Melksham on the pitch at half-time - don't forget to give them a cheer!!!

We also welcome Stratton Youth to today's fixture - Stratton has been in existence for over 30 years and is based in the village of Stratton just north of Cirencester. The club has teams from Under 7 to Under 18 and the club is proud of its tradition of giving boys and girls of all ages the opportunity to play football in an environment that allows them to learn the game but above all to enjoy it. The club is always on the lookout for new players, so if anyone is interested please give them a call.

STFC Supporters Club

The Supporters Club heart beats in rhythm with the Football Club and our main aims are three fold, improve the environment for supporters at The County Ground, youth development and also assisting the Football Club in any area that they feel it is important in terms of progression. Two items of recent involvement are pictured left.

We are delighted to once again be involved in a match day sponsorship, which will see 12 of our members enjoying a special day out at The County Ground – having had their names pulled out in a lucky draw amongst all members.

Two young mascots are also enjoying a day out having been nominated by winning members of our postal quiz run at Christmas.

We have a very loyal membership and with the maximum cost of membership only £5 for an adult, which delivers benefits to members which if used can repay that small membership fee many times over. If you travel to away games with SAS Travel, make purchases in the STFC Club Shop or enjoy a social dinner, then why not consider joining for next season if you are not already a member.

Our fundraising is achieved mainly through the Robins revival 50/50 half-time draw, scratch cards sold by members and Pounds for Points sponsorship. If you would like to help or participate with any of these do please ring me on 01865 820499

Important information:

In the event of an emergency at The County Ground you will hear a police message over the public address system. It will be preceded by a loud 'alarm' sound. Please remain where you are, listen to the message, and if it affects your area of the stadium, comply with the instruction immediately. These will direct you to a safe area, through exit gates and doors into car parks, roads or the pitch area. If you are disabled or feel unsafe in a large crowd, please remain where you are until the stewards assist you to leave. Above all, REMAIN CALM and DO NOT MOVE unless the announcement concerns your area of the stadium.

THE LAST WORD:

with... Kevin Amankwaah

What were the LAST three things you bought?

A ticket to Thorpe Park was one of them. The lads went for a team bonding day on Wednesday. I bought some petrol this morning as I live in Bristol and travel in everyday and also got a paper (Daily Star).

Can you remember the LAST time you laughed at a celebration?

I was watching the Football League show a few weeks back. Bradley Wright-Phillips scored and John Mackie pretended to wind up his back and let him go. It was quite good, but it made me laugh.

What's the LAST thing you do before a game?

One of the last things I do before a game is to put my wristband on before wishing all the lads good luck for the match.

Whose was the LAST wedding you went to?

Lee Peacock's last summer. A few of the other lads went down and it was held quite close to Portsmouth and it turned out to be a great day.

When was the LAST time you paid to see a game?

Last month I went to see Manchester United play Aston Villa at Wembley. I am a United fan so got tickets through the club (Swindon) and went along to see what turned out to be a good game.

Tell us about the LAST flight you took and where was it to?

The last one I actually took was for pre-season training in Austria, but before that it was for a holiday to Ayia Napa in Cyprus with non-footballing friends.

Who was the LAST celebrity you met?

David Haye – last summer out in Ayia Napa. I saw him outside a bar and got a picture with him. We were comparing biceps...

If you could choose one club in the world to make the LAST of your career, who would it be?

I'll have to say Barcelona, just for the chance to play and live in Europe and I love their style of play.
