TODAY'S game can be a double-jump for us. After a win in midweek we are enjoying a good moment and if we play with the same desire and anger that we did against Gillingham, then I hope we can win the game.

THE run of results over recent weeks has been good so I am happier now than in previous weeks. We don't want to lose sight of the real situation. It is not easy to keep the players' focus but it is much easier than a few weeks ago, when we suffered a few defeats. Now we have more of a consistent side, I must find the key to unlock the situation and let the players give their best every game. The players are feeling very positive at the moment and hopefully the momentum will stay with us. They know the importance of taking each game as it comes because that is the only way we will be able to stay focused for each match.

Our position in the league has improved but I am not paying too much attention to it. I want to arrive in December or January in a good position and then have a real push for promotion. We want to keep the run of results going whilst avoiding defeats, because we have given away too many defeats already this season. Tuesday's victory has lifted us into a good position. Now we want to continue the good work that has been done.

Bradford are a dangerous team and if they find a good day together, they can win against any side. They don't have a good record away from home, but Hereford had the same be okay. He couldn't keep going against Gillingham but having rested on Wednesday, he joined the rest of his teammates at training on Thursday. Phil Smith is also improving and is feeling stronger every day so it shouldn't be long before he is available to us once again.

Our defending today must start from our strikers, who will problem when they came here and they have proved that they have quality. Bradford also have a few players with good height so we will have to watch out for them, but we can reduce the opportunity of giving away free-kicks and corners by keeping our concentration.

In terms of team selection Alan McCormack took a knock on Tuesday night but he should have to work very hard to help us defend as a team. We will be playing for a win today - as always - and another home win is what we want to keep the momentum going.

Thank you again for your support at Monday's Open Training Session and on Tuesday for the home game against Gillingham. Your support has been amazing.

WE come into today's game on the back of three straight wins and three clean sheets. The challenge now is to keep climbing the table with another home win this afternoon against a tough Bradford side.

TUESDAY night proved to be an enjoyable night as we won the game against a very good side. Gillingham came here and played good football and had some very handy players. However, we must give the lads here credit because we created a lot of chances although we didn't finish them off as well as we would have liked. In the first fifteen minutes of the second half Gillingham came out and put a bit of pressure on us, but we came through that.

Matt Ritchie scored a great goal on Tuesday which put us in front and he hasn't stopped talking about it since but he told us before the game that he hadn't scored in a few and was going to try and put that right. Over the past few games Matty hasn't scored through a lack of trying because he shoots all the time! In all seriousness it was a great strike and it got things going. Jonathan Smith also deserves to take some credit because his goal was a fine finish too. The ball came across to him and it was a tough one to get right but he showed tremendous technique to put it away.

Our forward play has been good over the last few weeks and personally I am enjoying the way things are going. There is a good relationship down the right hand side between, Matty, Si Ferry and I. We're not the Bradford City have had a tough start to the season but this is a game where we don't want to get caught out. The next game is the biggest one and the boys have been really focused on today's game. A win would take us even further up the table and closer to where we want to be. I am sure after a few defeats Bradford will come here biggest physically so we like to get the ball down and play. Luckily enough on Tuesday I managed to get forward quite a lot and get some balls into the box. I even came close to scoring at one point but was denied with what I thought was a handball inside the area, but to be honest I'm not too fussed who scores as long as we keep on winning games!

wanting to be nice and tight at the back so it could be a tough afternoon.

Today is our One Game, One Community designated game and players from both sides will be wearing campaign t-shirts for the warm-ups before throwing them into the crowd.

Thanks for your fantastic support and enjoy the game this afternoon.

day of action

KICK It Out's One Game, One Community week of action is here, with a renewed call from football's equality and inclusion campaign for supporters everywhere to report discrimination heard, or seen in stadia...

"SOME of the worst excesses of abuse, where players, fans, even managers and coaches, were abused, harassed and attacked based on colour, race and religion, are now thankfully a thing of the past," says Lord Herman Ouseley, the campaign's Chair. "But pockets of unacceptable behaviour still exist. It's the duty of everyone within the game to flag this up where and when it happens."

Throughout the 18-day period, extended this season by a week to accommodate all home fixtures, professional clubs will be making their contribution by holding matchday activities at their dedicated One Game, One Community day of action. At grass roots and amateur level, a number of thought leadership seminars, football tournaments and fan and community led activity will take place.

Notable link ups include those with the Black and Asian Coaches Association (BACA), the Gay Football Supporters Network (GFSN) and the Muslim Women's Sport Foundation (MWSF) in a continued attempt to engage with and provide support to as fixtures having fallen victim to the troubles, the weeks of action is a period where a real opportunity to stitch a sense of community back into the game lies.

The final word goes to Ouseley: "It's under the banner One Game, One Community which we tackle bigotry, intolerance and anti-social behaviour and its presence in our game. If something or someone is damaging your experience of football, share it with the appropriate governing body, club or contact Kick It Out where details will be taken, and acted upon."

Jamie Devitt...

CITY snapped up Hull City winger Jamie Devitt on loan on transfer deadline day in August. The 21 year-old Dubliner agreed a short-term deal to keep him at Valley Parade until 2nd January 2012. Devitt made 18 appearances for the Tigers in the Championship last season. During the 2009/10 season he enjoyed loan spells in League 2 with Shrewsbury Town, Grimsby Town and Darlington while only 19. A product of the Tigers youth system, Devitt is also a previous winner of Hull's Young Player of the Year title.

Steve Williams...

WILLIAMS joined Bradford City in July 2009 after impressing on trial following spells in non-league football with Bamber Bridge and Fleetwood Town. Williams signed a new three year deal in the summer of 2010 to stay at the Coral Windows Stadium until 2013 and has now made over 60 starts.

Luke O'Brien...

O'BRIEN progressed through Bradford City's youth ranks to make his first team debut as a substitute at Doncaster Rovers in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy on 4th September 2007. The Halifax-born youngster was handed his first senior team start in December 2007. The left-back has gone on to amass over 100 first team appearances and signed a new two-year deal in the summer having featured as a left back, left winger and in midfield last term.

Chris Mitchell...

VERSATILE performer Mitchell joined City in July 2011. Apart from a loan spell with Ayr United during the latter part of the 2009/10 season, Mitchell has previously played his entire career with Falkirk where he earned seven caps at Under 21 for Scotland - five of which came in UEFA Under 21 European Championship qualifiers.

Head to Head

THE Robins just edge the stats ahead of today's game, with ten wins from 28 matches between the two sides. Bradford have won nine whilst there have been nine draws. Former Bradford City manager Chris Kamara - who is a former Swindon Town player - is now a pundit with Sky Sports.

Steve Claridge

BRADFORD City's last visit to The County Ground saw the visitors earn a 3-2 win thanks to a second half double from Steve Claridge, who recently made a comeback for Gosport Borough. In his first game, Claridge scored the only goal of the game for the non-league side in a 1-0 win.

Smith's boot deal

FORMER Town player Grant Smith, who hit two goals to seal a 2-1 win at Bradford City in January 2005, recently launched a website called 'Starsboots' which sells football boots and gloves worn by current stars of the game. Smith, 31, retired following a spell with Airdrie last term. See www.starsboots.com for more.

phil parkinson

PHIL Parkinson became Bradford City's new manager on Monday 29 August 2011. He took his first steps into football management following a playing career that lasted 15 years - the majority of which were successfully spent with Reading.

Following his eventual departure from the Madejski, he began the start of his management career as he took up the reins at Colchester United. It was during the 2005/06 season that Parkinson really threw himself into the national spotlight though, amazingly winning promotion to the Championship with Colchester after finishing as runners-up in League 1.

Parkinson's exploits during that particular campaign created interest from several clubs keen on securing his services. It would be Hull City who were to win the battle for Parkinson after paying a reported £400,000 to Colchester to allow the Tigers to appoint him as their new boss.

After just six months at the KC Stadium, he turned down a managerial offer from Northampton Town to become Alan Pardew's assistant at Charlton Athletic in January 2007, a man under whom he played at Reading.

He was initially installed as caretaker manager following Pardew's exit in November 2008 but he eventually left The Valley in January 2011.

In his time away from management, Parkinson has recently been scouting for Arsene Wenger at Premier League side Arsenal.

TWO late goals on Tuesday night sent the majority of the 7,700 crowd home happy with a 2-0 win over Gillingham. Two members of the Town side give their views ahead of today...

Alan Connell

STRIKER Alan Connell believes Town's home form will provide the backbone for success this term with the Robins 'gunning for promotion'.

The 28-year old came off the bench on Tuesday night and was delighted to play his part in front of a near 8,000 crowd at The County Ground.

"The fans have been right behind us and the crowd in midweek was fantastic," he explained. "The spirit amongst the players is great; we know that playing in front of The County Ground crowd is an advantage. We have to keep winning and make this place a really hard place for opposition teams to come and play."

"Home form is key to any side and there is no hiding from the fact that we are gunning for promotion. Results at home will be massively important, as well as our improved away form."

Alan McCormack

DEFENDER Alan McCormack has paid tribute to the efforts of on loan Crystal Palace goalkeeper Wes Foderingham with the League 2 table now taking on a more positive look for Town fans.

Foderingham has impressed in between the sticks since joining the club 24 hours before the away game at Accrington Stanley.

McCormack said: "He made a fantastic save down at Plymouth and made another great stop the other night against Gillingham."

"It's going to be a hard season and there will be games where he won't have much to do, but those saves – such as the one on Tuesday – show that his concentration levels are right up there. Little incidents like that can get you three points or a draw and at the end of the season you could be promoted because of saves like that."

FANS' FACEBOOK MATCH PREDICTIONS:

Gary Johnson: This will be a close match as they are scrapping for a result! I think Town will take 3 points with 3-1 victory!

Russell Taylor: My prediction is Swindon Town 3 Bradford City 0. Let's make it 4 clean sheets in a row!

Paul Vincent: Town struggle with weaker sides, so maybe a scrappy 1-0 win.

About today's match referee: Today's match referee Oliver Langford has taken charge of 11 games so far this term. Last weekend he oversaw the League 1 match between Leyton Orient and Danny Wilson's Sheffield United, handing out four yellow cards and one red card.

Phil Parkinson

AFTER a win and a defeat in their last two games, Bradford City manager Phil Parkinson is hoping his side can improve their away record with victory at The County Ground.

Parkinson, whose side were narrowly beaten at Macclesfield Town on Tuesday night, does not sense any added tension going on the road.

Prior to the clash at Moss Rose, he said: "It's something we'd like to rectify but we go to Macclesfield confident with seven points out of the last four games. That's a good return – keep that going and we'll soon find ourselves moving up the league.

"You look at the last three away games and Hereford was poor but, before that, we were very good against Huddersfield and Burton so we're certainly not too downbeat about our form."

Ciaran Hart: Swindon 3 Bradford 2. We will be 3 up then Bradford score 2 late goals and the Town scorers will be Ritchie, Kerrouche and Flint.

Benjamin Wills: Bradford are not as good as they used to be and we have 3 clean sheets on the bounce and of course we're at home and we have a superb home record. 3-0 win for me.

Mark Hanrahan: 4-0. Jake x 2, Si Ferry and Mehdi off the bench.

AFTER a narrow 1-0 defeat at Macclesfield Town on Tuesday night, the Bantams come to The County Ground looking to put right a disappointing set of results on the road...

Craig Fagan

BRADFORD City striker Craig Fagan is pleased with the way he has settled into life at Valley Parade.

After starting his career with Birmingham City, Fagan played for the likes of Colchester United, Derby County and Hull City before joining the Bantams in mid-September after leaving The KC Stadium at the end of last season.

"I had a tough season last year and didn't play much football, so I have been enjoying life since coming to Bradford," he said. "I have been playing games and the lads have helped me settle in.

"It was good to score against Torquay but the result was the main thing. It was a real determined effort and the task now is to put together some performances away from home."

He added: "The most important factor given the position of the club is to help the side win games."

- rockin' robin -

ROCKIN' Robin is a popular feature of the Swindon Town matchday routine. Here, he takes time out to give his views on the season so far....

Open Training Session...

Monday's Open Training Session saw another appearance for RR on Sky Sports News. It's always great to promote the club on TV and try and get into shot. It was great to see so many young supporters make the effort and to come down and see the players train. The enthusiasm of our fans is great and it makes the job so easy!

Rockin' & Running

The Swindon Half Marathon a few weeks ago gave RR another opportunity to get his running shoes on. Having done a full marathon in 'costume' it looked like an easier option to do the Swindon Half Marathon this year, but the hilly course made for tough going! The support around the course for Rockin'

"It's always great to promote the club on TV and try and get into shot. It was great to see so many young supporters."

Robin was outstanding and it definitely helped when 'hitting the wall'.

The Paolo Factor

Paolo Di Canio's arrival at Swindon has kicked off something of a renewed sense of optimism around The County Ground. RR now has a new dance routine with an Italian twist which has hopefully proved popular with Town fans! The manager himself has been very accommodating to Rockin' Robin - even joining in on the Swindon Half Marathon and taking penalties against RR at the club's Open Day.

Out and about

Rockin' Robin has made countless public appearances over the past ten years of service. These range from taking part in the Mascot Grand National, appearing on the Disney Channel and Blue Peter to barging into the Girls Aloud dressing room!

WE'VE seen some pretty decent Swindon goals this season already but I'm not sure any match up to the strike from Matt Ritchie earlier this week...

IN truth, the game against Gillingham on Tuesday needed a goal of that calibre. It required something a bit special and Ritchie delivered with devastating effect. It wasn't that Swindon didn't play well, they did. I just think if you ask most that were here midweek, they'd say that the match was seemingly drifting towards a draw.

It's the second time in less than a week that Swindon have grabbed a vital late goal in games they haven't dominated. They did the same at Plymouth Argyle last weekend at almost the same moment in the match. Yet that's the key to success isn't it?

While Ritchie's goal on Tuesday was a sensational individual effort, Rafa De Vita's neat finish at Home Park was at the opposite end of the goalscoring spectrum. Such was the fluidity and speed of the move; you wouldn't be far wrong describing it as the perfect team goal. I think Paolo Di Canio described it as a goal worthy of gracing the Champions League stage and I've heard few disagree since.

It's a shame really that Ritchie's opener on Tuesday slightly overshadowed what was actually a very good second goal from Jonathan Smith. No-one

"I think Paolo Di Canio described it as a goal worthy of gracing the Champions League stage and I've heard few disagree since."

has really been talking about Smith's strike but that too was an excellent finish. He's not known for his goal-scoring capabilities but add that to the one he bagged against Southend United back in September and perhaps there is more to come from Town's tough lacking midfielder.

Perhaps we should have seen this 'great goals' trait coming – the positive signs were there from early on in the season. Oliver Risser's humdinger against Crewe Alexandra lit up the opening match of the season at The County Ground. Then there was Medhi Kerrouche's tidy free-kick against Southampton in the Carling Cup; albeit Swindon were eventually beaten. He continued his impressive record a few weeks later at Crawley Town when he ended the night with a bullet effort to help Swindon to a 3-0 win.

I'd also like to throw in Jake Jervis' first goal for the club against Exeter City in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy at the start of the month. The close range finish was neat but the build-up to the goal is worth watching again if you missed it at the time.

Take the away goals out of it, it seems this season's 'stunners' have all been scored at the Town End. I'm sure there are quite a few people who have had some fantastic 'up close' views of those goals already. In fact Di Canio told us after the game midweek that it was about time they scored a 'rubbish' goal – or words to that effect. To be honest, I think we're perfectly happy with the way they are arriving now - Town End or not.

"We were all buzzing, particularly about the two goals. They were two great strikes."

EXHAUSTED but elated after Tuesday's win, fan favourite and scheming midfielder Simon Ferry talked candidly about why he's desperate for promotion, Matt Ritchie's shooting and Steven Seagal's hair...

There were a lot of smiles coming out of the dressing room after the win on Tuesday; did it feel like an important win against a good side?

We were all buzzing, particularly about the two goals. They were two great strikes. We knew it was going to be a hard test after two games away from home. Gillingham are a good side, so to make it three wins in a row was always going to be tough. To do it 2-0 gives us great confidence.

How would you assess Gillingham in relation to the best teams you've faced this season?

I'd say they're probably the best footballing side. They like to get the ball down and pass it. The boy Rooney [Luke] is a good player and they looked very dangerous on the counter-attack.

We rode our luck at times before taking the lead. Gillingham hit the post and could have scored from close range. Do you feel after the run of bad luck we experienced last season, and again at the start of the current campaign that perhaps things are starting to work in our favour?

That's what I said to the boys - sometimes you have to make - and take - your own luck. At the start of the season we were very unlucky at times and things felt like they were going against us, but you have to take it when it's given to you. I think we deserve it.

That's now three consecutive wins and no goals conceded...

Getting a clean sheet is very important and we've got a really good base now. When you don't concede goals you don't lose games and we know we've got the attacking players going forward to give us every chance of scoring goals.

We're back in the top seven for the first time since the opening weeks of the season. Does that give everyone a boost?

We don't want to be in the top seven, we want to be in the top three. We won't be happy until we're right up there and there's a gap between us and the rest. We'll just keep working hard and hopefully we'll get there soon.

It wasn't a bad goal from Matt Ritchie, was it?

It was a great goal and he caught it well - although he had enough chances, to be fair! Matt has the potential to pull that out of his locker; he's very dangerous cutting in from the right-hand side. That's why the gaffer puts him there. He's scored a few important ones from there this season.

There were a few fans behind me who were urging him not to shoot because it hadn't been his night beforehand...

The players were the same - he always shoots! But to be fair, if he doesn't shoot he can't score, so we'll take him hitting 20 shots a game if one goes in.

After Jonathan Smith's goal did you feel left out? Talk us through your long-range effort in the closing stages. You admitted on Twitter you've kicked the dog harder...

[laughs] I was absolutely knackered! I thought I saw the keeper towards the edge of his box, so I thought 'why not?' I went for it, but I just didn't have it in my legs.

You seem to be enjoying your football at the moment...

There's nothing worse than sitting on the sidelines as a footballer. I did it for much of the season last year and I'm desperate to take my chance when given it now. I always try my best for the team. I'll try and get some consistency for the rest of the season because I don't want to go back to not playing again.

You admitted earlier in the season you were tempted to leave in the summer, are you pleased you stayed?

It wasn't that I wanted to leave the club; it was more because I simply wasn't playing last season. That's why I was a bit unhappy. Obviously the new manager has come in and now, having been one of the players who was relegated I feel like I have a duty to get us back up. I want to put things right and be a major part in doing it.

Do you keep in touch with the lads who moved on in the summer?

Yes. I like to see all the lads I've played with do well. Fair play to them for doing what they're doing. I'm just hoping to see them in League 1 next year.

You were on the bench for one or two games to begin with this season. Were you thinking: 'here we go again?'

The start of the season is always tough because the manager is still

"having been one of the players who was relegated I feel like I have a duty to get us back up."

Trying to sort his team. I thought I'd bide my time and get on with it and try and work hard to get back into the side. When I was given a chance I made sure I took it and with the exception of Crawley, I've played every match since. I'm more than happy with the way things have gone.

You played under Danny Wilson and Paul Hart last season, how different is life under Paolo?

The gaffer is brilliant. He leaves nothing to chance and knows everything about the opposition. He likes us to get the ball down and pass the ball, which suits me perfectly. He also likes us to work hard when the other team has the ball and attack when we win it back, so it's been brilliant. I probably needed someone who was going to work me hard.

Just give us an idea of the detail Paolo goes into when researching the opposition?

He knows which of their players have trained in the build-up to the game through to their height, how many games they've played... everything. I even know which foot a player is likely to use in certain circumstances, so it's a big help.

Do you think we're starting to reap the benefits of pre-season? There seems to be a certain inevitability about us winning games late on...

Definitely; particularly in this league. You can see the other teams are at it for the first hour and a lot of them tire. That's when we play our football. The Plymouth game, for example was a battle for the first 70 minutes. We got through that and started to play. That's when we got on the ball and they couldn't cope. Again, on Tuesday, we scored two goals in the last 15 minutes, so it's a big advantage.

Another home game today... how important is it to keep the run going?

Getting a run in any league is important because it builds momentum and confidence. Even if you lose one and win another three, you have the confidence to get back on track. If we continue to win games we'll be in the top three.

There hasn't been a feeling around the club like this since the 2009/10 season; is it bringing back fond memories?

I was thinking that at the final whistle on Tuesday. In my first year this place seemed like a fortress and we were really hard to beat. It feels the same now. We started that season slowly as well, so there are some similarities. Let's hope we can build momentum like we did that year and actually go up this time.

Paolo said last Saturday he felt you were starting to play as well away from home as you are at The County Ground. Have you started doing things differently on the road?

I think away it's more of a battle, which doesn't really suit me. I just need to get stuck in; it's not all about passing it. I'm a lot fitter this year, which is helping me away from home. I'm getting the chance to play in the final stages but I need to scrap earlier in the game.

So you're a fan of the fitness regime?

I feel much better and I'm reaping the benefits. It's not so much more running all the time, it's tactical, too. Pre-season was tough, but you can see it's working.

The manager also wants a strong team ethic. Would it be fair to say that was missing last year?

"I'm trying to do a Morrissey, although recently I've considered the slick-back look."

Yes. But this year even the lads in the stand are staying to watch the games and they're supporting the boys. I think everyone will play a part this season, so we'll need everyone at some stage, like the gaffer says. It's not about the 11 on the pitch; we know there are players just as good waiting to play. There's a good feeling about the place.

What are your expectations for the rest of the season?

We want to get promoted. I don't care how we do it, but this club should be in League 1. We'd obviously like to do it by finishing in the top three, but if we have to do it via the play-offs then we'd take that. If we went back to Wembley, maybe I'd turn up this time.

You do seem to be something of a fans' favourite...

It's always nice to hear that fans like you. I just hope they recognise that I give 100 per cent every time I play. The supporters seem to be behind quite a lot of the boys, so it just goes to show that our hard work is paying off.

So... Twitter, you've been on it three or four times. You say your latest guise carries a PGcertificate and not an 18?!

I like to go on and off Twitter. The first time I used it I wasn't that bothered about it, but last Friday all the boys were on it so I felt left out! I enjoy it and I like to let people know what I'm doing. I just need to tone it down a wee bit. I'm only on it for a laugh. People might write things to me that aren't so nice, but normally it's me doing the same to other celebrities! I see it as a bit of a joke.

Talking of jokes, who's the worst dressed in the squad?

There are a few boys who make out they're not trying hard, but they are. 'Cibo' came in for some stick for some loafers he had on. Mark Scott is bad, too. I came here three years ago and on my first day Mark was wearing a pair of grey jogging bottoms that looked like they were ready for the bin. And he's still wearing them!

You have a sideline in the fashion world with an online shop... how did that come about?

I love my gear. My missus is also into vintage clothes, so we thought we'd start it. We have a shop on Asos.com now, so maybe it's something I'll do when I stop playing. Maybe I'll open a shop one day. Maybe a barber's as well!

Which brings me on nicely to the quiff... Have you thought about a change?

I'm trying to do a Morrissey, although recently I've considered the slick-back look. Think Steven Seagal... but this [quiff] gives me a bit more height, which I need - I'm not very good in the air!

- classic encounters - seven-goal thriller!

SWINDON Town have played out many high-scoring games with Bradford City over the years. One of those, a 4-3 home win back in September 1968, is amongst the best of the previous encounters...

Swindon Town 4 Bradford City 3

10 September 1968
Attn: 12,214

TOWN had come within 12 minutes of securing a League Cup Second Round victory at Valley Parade, but 20 minutes into this replay they looked to be heading out of the competition after City had raced into a two-goal lead.

The visitors had adapted quicker to a surface made very slippery by a pre-match downpour and went in front through John Hall with less than two minutes on the clock, before Peter Middleton added a second.

But Swindon clawed their way back and were level with ten minutes still to go before the break.

Don Heath, under pressure from Bruce Stowell, tried to get on the end of a Joe Butler centre but the ball fell invitingly to John Smith, who hit home his first goal for the club since his summer move from Torquay United.

And just three minutes later Heath burst into the City area and went past Ron Bayliss. But the full-back lost his footing and scooped the ball away with his hand. Don Rogers duly blasted the spot kick past keeper John Roberts.

Town edged in front midway through the second period when Roger Smart met a left-wing cross to blast the ball low and hard towards goal. Roberts looked to have the shot covered, but it appeared to take a slight deflection off Stowell before crossing the line.

Swindon extended their advantage in the 74th minute when winger Heath was again involved, his cross from the right being met by a perfect near-post header from Peter Noble. City netted a third through Bobby Ham five minutes later giving Town an anxious few minutes, especially after Frank Burrows was carried off following his attempted challenge on the goalscorer.

SWINDON TOWN:

BRADFORD CITY:

STRIKER Dennis Brown scored all four goals as Swindon won 4-1 at Bournemouth & Boscombe. Brown, who cost a then club record £15,000 from Chelsea, completed his hat-trick at the start of the second half and made it 4-0 on 57 minutes.

Tuesday 29th
October 1985

WITH new boy Richard Key in goal, Swindon knocked Division One Sheffield Wednesday out of the FA Cup. Peter Coyne's tenth-minute header from a corner sent Town into the fourth round.

Greatest moment of my life...

I'd say signing my scholarship contract with Blackburn Rovers. I was 15 years old and it was a fantastic moment, having just come over from Italy, so joining a Premier League club was just great.

Rank the following four professions in order of a preferred alternative career...

- | | |
|----------------------|----------------|
| 4th Airline pilot | 1st Translator |
| 3rd Personal trainer | 2nd Engineer |

Reason...

I like languages so would probably do okay at being a translator! I have been getting a bit of practice this year with all the other Italian lads here. I can speak a bit of Spanish too, so help 'Gabi' out now and then.

Most sophisticated meal I can cook...

Probably Prawn and Asparagus risotto. I was in a restaurant in Formentera, which is an island close to Ibiza, and had it there. When I got home I tried to cook it a few times and eventually mastered it!

Name one Town player who could hold their own on Strictly Come Dancing and why...

Cristian Montano! He hasn't been here long but when he did his first song he was dancing away and looked like he had some moves.

Favourite film star...

Denzil Washington. Every film of his I have seen they've become one of my favourites. Top of my list is John Q.

Favourite countries you have visited...

Switzerland

America

Australia

Formentera

Reason...

Australia is a great place and everyone there seems so relaxed. I'm from Rome where life is hectic, so Australia makes a nice change!

MUG SHOT

Who is the most famous person you have met?

Marco Van Basten

Marco Van Basten - who I met in a restaurant in Manchester when I was at Blackburn. I asked him for a picture and he obliged.

Best and worst restaurant you have ever been to...

The best restaurant I have been to is San Carlo in Manchester which is an Italian. The worst I've been to would be a Japanese place in Edinburgh last year which was terrible!

- man on fire -

SUMMER signing Mehdi Kerrouche is proving to be one of Paolo Di Canio's top captures. With six goals already this season, the Algerian is hoping to return to the side this afternoon after missing Tuesday's clash with Gillingham.

A striker with guile and an eye for goal, the 26-year-old has proved a popular addition to the Robins' rank, his neat finishes, never-say-die attitude and penchant for an unusual celebration making him a hit with the fans. Since hitting his first goal in the Carling Cup clash with Championship pace-setters Southampton, the Algerian hasn't looked back.

He enhanced his growing reputation further last weekend at Plymouth Argyle, where he came off the substitutes bench to play his part in what has already been described as a contender for team goal of the season.

"It was a very good move," says Kerrouche, sitting back in The Arkell's Stand after training earlier this week. "Jake [Jervis], myself and Simon [Ferry] were involved in the build-up and Rafa [De Vita] was there to finish it off.

"The three points away from home were important and now we want to keep winning games to move up the league," he continues. "Since I came to Swindon I am very much enjoying playing here; I believe we play the best football in the league and we have to keep going.

"We have good quality players here and everyone here is together. There is very good solidarity here," he says, showing signs of just how much his English has improved since arriving at SN1 in July.

Kerrouche's grasp of the local lingo is not the only thing showing signs of improvement. The win in Devon was Town's second in two games, hopefully putting to an end a disappointing sequence of results on the road. "Maybe a few

"I was disappointed to miss the Gillingham game but it is not important who plays; the team is the most important thing."

Kerrouche has wasted little time in finding his feet in English football, particularly at home as shown by four goals in his last five outings at SN1.

"I love playing at home because the atmosphere at The County Ground is fantastic and the fans months ago we would have gone to Plymouth and lost the game, but now we can go away from home, play strong and believe we can win."

When you listen to the crowd singing your name you have more power and want to give more for the team or to score a goal."

The win at Home Park came at a cost for the striker, who picked up his fifth yellow card in Devon and a one-match suspension, which he served in midweek against Gillingham.

"As soon as the referee showed me the card I was angry at myself," he reflects. "I was disappointed to miss the game because I feel good in terms of fitness and confidence here.

have been really supportive since I arrived. There is always a good feeling going into home games and it is wonderful when someone scores that the crowd and players celebrate together."

He adds: "The fans sing 'Kerrouche, Kerrouche is on fire' which is funny. Sometimes when I am playing at The County Ground and you need extra energy the fans here can give you that.

"When you listen to the crowd singing your name you have more power and want to give more for the team or to score a goal. Celebrating together is special."

facebook me...

I'm on Facebook everyday! I use it a lot and have been on for a few years. I mainly use it to catch up with friends, but recently I've accepted a few fans as friends on there too.

best app...

I have a few favourites so picking one is tough. The Sky Sports app is a good one for catching up with fixtures and results, but I also use Shazam quite a bit for picking up song names.

tweet me...

I prefer Twitter to Facebook and use it a lot. It's good for answering fans' questions and for keeping tabs on celebrities. I follow Drake, Kim Kardashian and Cristian Montano.

my mobile

text me...

A friend texted me pouring out his heart, but I think the text was meant for his missus but for some reason he sent it to me. I haven't let him get away with forgetting that one!

my music...

Most of my music is either Drake or Rick Ross. I've recently started listening to Adele who is pretty good too. I download most of my music from iTunes.

call me...

The most memorable call recently was from a friend who pretended to be a member of the England U19s management. He told me I had been called up to the squad and I fell for it. I got my own back soon after as I did actually get a call-up!

in the diary...

Most of my spare time at the moment is spent at my hotel in Town. I am switching hotels soon to the one where Cristian, Jake and Liam are staying so it will be good to have a bit of company!

Pounds for Points

OCTOBER has been a good month for the team on the pitch and this has had a great impact on the Pounds for Points where the fund has now topped £1,000.

The recent discussion and decisions at Football League level about rewards for developing young players is causing a bit of a stir and is a real concern for a number of clubs. Therefore, the support we give our club through the Pounds for Points initiative may become even more crucial.

He is different to other managers because he believes in every single thing he does and he makes the players believe in what he's doing. He's quite hands on about everything but it's been a good start to the season.
