TODAY'S visit of AFC Wimbledon is our first fixture of 2012 and I hope we can continue our good form at home as we look for a strong second half of the season.

AFC WIMBLEDON are of course a side who we have faced twice already this season and we have had some memorable moments against them in those games. The home game in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy ended up being a good night for our fans, the players and the club with victory on penalties. Then we made the visit to AFC Wimbledon in League 2 – a game in which we were presented with a tough test. We went behind in the game but fought back to take a point after a battling second half effort.

On Boxing Day we travelled to Torquay and unfortunately our winning run of games came to an end with defeat. We were going to lose one day but we were disappointed with the performance. At the end we had many players up front to try and get a goal back to equalise but it didn't happen. I said before the Christmas set of fixtures that the festive games were going to be crucial for us and so it has proved.

We have dropped a few points but we have a young group of players. As a manager I have looked at many situations over recent games and tried to make a few changes but we do need extra quality. The young players we have need to communicate a little more and to strengthen the team and I have had talks with the chairman and hopefully before too long there will be some movement in terms of players coming in. We need to add to the forward line and that is an area that we will be trying to address too.

Now we are in the second half of the season, the

"Our form at The County Ground has been good so far this season and I hope we can continue that form."

that's something we will try and work on.

January has now arrived and we have a number of transfer targets that we would like to bring to the club. In terms of outgoings, Liam Ridehalgh returned to Huddersfield Town before the Northampton Town game and I would like to thank him for his efforts during his time with us. Now we need challenge is to build on the positive start to the campaign we have had and get back on track. Our form at The County Ground has been good so far this season and I hope we can continue that form. The players – as a squad – now need to work hard and try and get on another run to get us up the table and towards the promotion places.

WE begin the New Year at home and it's good to be back at The County Ground after a couple of games on the road over the Christmas period, which has seen us play at Torquay United and Northampton Town.

BEFORE Christmas we hosted Morecambe and despite a tough start to the game we managed to come out with the three points we wanted. Morecambe came here looking to make an impact and to be fair they saw quite a bit of the ball in the early stages of the game. We got through that and it was good to see Jake open the scoring before Rafa doubled the lead. We kept on creating opportunities and wrapped up the points in the closing stages of the game with Ronan getting his first goal in front of the home crowd.

Ronan has done well since coming to join Swindon on loan and he's settled in nicely on and off the pitch. He scored at Southend, coming off the bench to help us reach the Southern Area Final of the Johnstone's Paint Trophy. His finish against Morecambe shows just what a good player he is and hopefully there will be more to come from him over the coming weeks.

Christmas was a busy time for the squad with plenty going on off the pitch to keep the lads busy. As players we are aware just how much responsibility we have as role models so it was good to have been able to help out those perhaps less fortunate than ourselves. Hospital visits, Christmas light switch-on's, the Junior Red Christmas Party and the Club Carol Service are just some of the events that the

we have played twice already this season but that will not make the task any easier for either side. The Johnstone's Paint Trophy meeting at The County Ground proved to be an entertaining one for the fans with Phil Smith being the hero on the night with his saves in the penalty shoot-out securing our place in the next stage of the competition.

"His finish against Morecambe shows just what a good player he is and hopefully there will be more to come..."

players have taken part in over the Christmas period.

A special mention to Callum Kennedy who took part in the BBC Wiltshire 'Make a Wish' appeal, purchasing a range of gifts with his own money to help make Christmas 2011 a very special one for a young Town supporter.

Back to matters on the field, AFC Wimbledon are a side who

The return game at AFC Wimbledon was a close affair, but to be fair the lads dug in and having gone behind - managed to come away with a share of the spoils.

On behalf of the entire Swindon Town squad, may I take this opportunity to wish you all a successful 2012 and many thanks for your outstanding support so far this season.

THE Christmas period was a busy one for the Town squad with a number of player appearances taking place in December...

FOUR members of the Town squad took time out to visit the Children's Ward at the Great Western Hospital in order to spread some Christmas cheer. Aden Flint, Liam Ridehalgh, Nathan Thompson and Jake Jervis stopped by to deliver Christmas wishes and a few early Christmas presents to the children on the ward. The players were shown around by hospital staff and spent time talking to kids and their parents as well posing for photos and signing a few autographs.

The Christmas presents were donated to Specsavers Swindon by customers and Specsavers staff and the Town players were more than happy to stop by and distribute the gifts. Flint, who also attended the official club carol service later in the day, commented:

"It was great to be able to come along and help put a smile on some of the kids' faces," said the defender. "If by us coming along, saying 'hello' and giving out some presents can lift the kids spirits a little then that's fantastic."

Later in the day the official STFC Christmas Carol service took place at Christchurch with Joe Devera, Alberto Comazzi, Etienne Esajas, Oliver Risser, Alan Connell and Ronan Murray all in attendance. They were joined by a number of club staff along with supporters and local residents – many of whom enjoyed refreshments and mince pies provided by the club after the service.

Other December

appearances by Town players include Alan McCormack visiting Catherine Wayte School, the whole squad attending a Pensioners' lunch at The County Ground and Phil Smith switching on Christmas lights in Stratton. Manager Paolo Di Canio also helped switch on the Christmas lights in Old Town and Swindon Town Centre.

Swindon Children Without A Diagnosis or with Rare Disorders

SCWAD (Swindon Children Without A Diagnosis or with rare disorders) is a support group and Registered Charity set up by two mums for parents and carers of children who have rare chromosomal or metabolic disorders, or who remain undiagnosed. We offer free activity sessions to the affected children and socials, free day trips and short breaks for the families, as well as informal get-togethers.

Membership covers all the Swindon postcodes and neighbouring areas, and we are constantly in need of funds to give much needed support to these very vulnerable children and their families as our membership continues to grow. Any donations, however small, would be greatly appreciated and will be advertised on our website, where you will also find out how to donate: www.scwad.org.uk

"It can be quite isolating for parents as the gap between our children and their mainstream peers widens as they get older. Families you made friends with when the children were little go off doing their own thing now their children are old enough to be left or go out on their own. Our children wouldn't be safe on their own. Neither would most of the other children in SCWAD. So although their conditions might be different, their lives have similarities and the children get a lot from playing together with other SCWAD children. As parents, going on a SCWAD outing is never having to explain, never having to excuse, never having to apologise. Just fitting in, plain & simple.

SCWAD depend on donations and grants. We depend on SCWAD. Our special children depend on us."

Charlie Ademeno...

22-YEAR OLD Ademeno signed for the Dons in the summer after spending an unsuccessful year with Grimsby Town, where he made just 12 league appearances, scoring twice. A striker with pace, he began his career as a trainee with Southend United before five spells out on loan including a double stint at Salisbury City. He scored five goals in 11 starts for the Whites towards the back end of the 2008/09 season but has just one goal to his name so far this term.

Lee Minshull...

A tough-tackling midfielder who signed from Tonbridge Angels in May 2010, Minshull got his career going as a centre-back at Ramsgate. When he joined Tonbridge in 2009 he moved into an attacking midfield role and scored 17 times in 40 appearances, finishing the season as second top scorer and being voted Player of the Year for 2009/10.

Kieran Djilali...

DJILALI joined AFC Wimbledon in the summer after coming through the ranks with Crystal Palace. He made eight appearances for the Eagles during the 2008/09 season and made his Football League debut in the home clash against Burnley in August 2008. He then spent loan spells at Crawley and Chesterfield to gain invaluable first team experience before departing Selhurst Park in the summer of this year. He has pace, quick feet and good close control.

Fraser Franks...

THE centreback joined Brentford as a trainee in July 2008 and was soon converted to a central role, having played much of his youth football at right-back. He signed professional forms a year later, but despite being on the bench on several occasions he failed to make a first-team appearance. He signed for the Dons in July 2010.

We meet again

TODAY'S meeting between Swindon Town and AFC Wimbledon will be the third contest of the season between the two teams. The sides first met in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy in early November with the Robins running out 3-1 winners on penalties. The second meeting, the first in the league, resulted in a 1-1 draw in front of 4,581 at Kingsmeadow.

Hammer help

CALLUM McNaughton is available for selection this afternoon after his loan deal was extended until 4 January. The West Ham defender joined on loan in September and has impressed with the Dons to date.

Garrard the Don

FORMER Swindon Town defender Luke Garrard is well-known to AFC Wimbledon fans after joining the club following his departure from The County Ground at the end of the 2004/05 season. Garrard made 17 appearances for Town after joining the youth team ranks from Spurs. He went on to make 114 appearances for AFC Wimbledon between 2006 and 2010.

terry brown

APPOINTED as AFC Wimbledon's first full-time manager in May 2007, Brown's managerial career rose to prominence during a nine-year spell in charge of Hayes, whom he took from the lower half of the Ryman Premier Division to third place in the Conference in 1999. His record at Hayes included 82 wins from 232 games in charge.

He moved onto Aldershot Town in 2002 and in his five years in charge at the Recreation Ground he steered the Shots to a Ryman Premier League title and a 2004 Conference Playoff Final where they were agonisingly denied a Football League place losing a penalty shootout to Shrewsbury Town.

Brown left Aldershot amidst emotional scenes in March 2007 but was soon able to return to football and along with trusted lieutenant Stuart Cash, the pair lifted the Dons into League 2 at the first attempt last summer.

The 2011/12 season began with a narrow 3-2 defeat at home to Bristol Rovers before their first triumph of the campaign came the following Saturday with a 2-0 victory at Dagenham & Redbridge.

The Dons lost out to Swindon in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy earlier this season before a 1-1 draw between the sides at Kingsmeadow in League 2.

SWINDON Town's players are looking to pick up where they left off as the New Year begins with a home date with AFC Wimbledon. Here are the views of Town duo Alan Connell and Matt Ritchie...

Alan Connell

STRIKER Alan Connell is hoping to start the New Year with a bang after being forced to sit out Town's pre-Christmas campaign.

A slight hamstring injury sustained in the early stages of the Johnstone's Paint Trophy win over Southend United forced the 28-year old to miss several games, but he is now available for selection once again.

"It was the right decision to come off against Southend but the injury wasn't too bad and didn't keep me out for too long," he said.

"I got back into training reasonably quickly and hopefully the New Year will begin well for the team.

"Our home form was a key factor in the first half of the season and hopefully we can keep that going with a win against AFC Wimbledon."

Matt Ritchie

WINGER Matt Ritchie has experienced the ups and downs of life in the Football League over the past year, but the midfielder is hoping to celebrate promotion at the end of the current campaign.

Having cemented a regular place in the side after joining on a permanent deal from Portsmouth a year ago, the 22-year old is enjoying life in Wiltshire.

"It's been quite a year," Ritchie said. "I had some good times with Pompey and played in the Premier League for them, but I had to get away and get regular football under my belt.

"The season has gone well so far and we've had some great games - such as the Gillingham game. We all want promotion here and a good run in the second half of the season should see us through to a place back in League One."

Terry Brown

AFC WIMBLEDON manager

Terry Brown believes his side must continue to put in the hard graft on the training ground if they are to turnaround their recent difficult run of results.

The Dons were beaten 2-0 by Oxford United in League 2 on Boxing Day which was their fifth consecutive defeat.

Brown said: "I would like to say we were really unlucky against Oxford but we're not unlucky if you have a first half performance like that. The first half just wasn't good enough. We went in 2-0 down as we have done in the last couple of home games.

"It is difficult when you're working hard like we are in training and nothing is coming off for you on a Saturday. If we're not scoring goals we're not going to win games. There is no magic wand to wave. Just more hard work."

THE Dons come to The County Ground for the second time of the campaign today, with Terry Brown's side looking to kick-off 2012 with a three-point haul against a side they have faced twice this term...

Planning Ahead

THE January transfer window may have only just opened, but today's opponents AFC Wimbledon are already planning for the future.

The Dons recently signed up five young players, three of them graduates of the youth development scheme, on first professional contracts. Frankie Merrifield, Huw Johnson, Dawayne Campbell, Louie Theophanous and Adetayo Osifuwa will all be hoping to be a part of manager Terry Brown's first team plans in the future.

Brown said "I have been able to see the development and growth of these five lads and feel it is now time to raise them to the next level where they will have more involvement with the first team squad. The boys took part in the recent development squad game at Crystal Palace and they more than held their own against a strong Palace side."

Tim Gabilondo Cook: Town will win by at least 4.

Sam Stfc Smith: I think 2-0 town. Free-kick taken by Ritchie then Flint headers the ball in the back of the net. Murray will come on as sub and score with a volley outside the box!

Michael Turner: I'm going for a 3-0 town, with Ritchie, Ferry and Murray to score in the second half!

ONCE a youth team player at The County Ground, Adam Wainwright is back at the club he loves after returning to the club in February 2008 and is now Marketing & Promotions Executive at STFC.

All change...

It has been fantastic to see just how far the club has come off the pitch over the past few years. I am proud to be part of a great team of full-time, part-time and voluntary staff who make Swindon Town such a great Football Club. Things have changed a lot since I first joined the club as a full-time member of staff. Under previous management, the club seemed to have lost its sparkle and the hospitality floor didn't have much of an appeal. It was great to come in and be a part of the transformation following the takeover of the club. These days whether you are in the main office or walking around the hospitality floor on a matchday there is a buzz around the place.

Hospitality improvements

I have been looking after Swindon Town matchday hospitality guests for four years now and a matchday is still as special now as it was my first! I still get pre-match nerves and am constantly checking my notes and check-list to make sure everything is in place so guests have a great day. The hospitality floor is a great place to be and we have sold-out for a number of the remaining home games this season. Match and matchball sponsorship has also proved very popular this season, which in this economic climate and considering the league we are in, is tremendous! I am told by those that have been at the club for a long time that hospitality is more popular now than when we were in the Premier League.

The team works

It is a pleasure to work with such a fantastic hospitality and matchday team. Everyone works together to make sure the experience is a memorable one. We receive many testimonials to say how much customers have enjoyed the Swindon Town matchday experience. This season we have even received letters and emails from away supporters who have enjoyed hospitality at The County Ground, hoping we don't get promoted so they can come back! The Sponsor's Suite, Chairman's Suite and Members' Suites have a great feel on a matchday with a range of sponsorship, birthday and mascot packages all taking part in the matchday experience. The hospitality floor is a great place to be, especially after a victory which is the icing on the cake! Thanks to the efforts of Paolo and his team, our matchday guests have been leaving STFC with a smile on their faces after a raft of home victories so far this term.

MAY I start by wishing you all a happy and healthy New Year.

THE signs already look promising in 2012 for Town. If it wasn't for the upturn in fortune in the final few months of 2011, we'd probably be saying that it'll go down as a year to forget. Relegation to League Two was tough to stomach but I think it was the manner in which Swindon capitulated that really left a bad taste in everyone's mouth. They seemed to disappear without a whimper; no final day survival push, no fight, no desire, no heart. In truth, I think everyone would have been happy if 2011, from a footballing perspective, had drawn to a close back in April.

The arrival of Paolo Di Canio in May last year was a calculated gamble by the club. Something was needed to inject a new lease of life into

The County Ground and frankly, that arrived by the bucket load with the appointment of Di Canio. The first few weeks of the season were always going to be tricky; and so it proved. Di Canio was finding his feet in management; players were arriving from across the globe in their droves. The club were entering uncharted territory compared to those around them in League Two.

The opening day win against Crewe had some believing that Swindon were going to breeze straight back into League One without even getting their hands dirty. For most, including the manager, the reality of the task was far more complicated. It was a tough baptism of fire and there have been low points along the way - the defeat here against Oxford leads the list. The real test of any side, or indeed situation, is not to dwell on how it happened but by showing how you intend to respond to it. In Swindon's case, the character displayed in the closing months of this calendar year has been quite remarkable.

The recent 15 game unbeaten run, progression to the Area Final of the JPT and a tie against a Premier League club in the FA Cup this weekend suggests the past few months have been littered with success. While 2011 will forever be blemished with the tag of relegation, it was also the year that allowed a foundation to be constructed for what could be a very memorable 2012.

LOAN striker Ronan Murray is looking to start the New Year with a flourish and get Swindon Town – and a key stage of his career – off to a flyer.

REGARDLESS of the final outcome of Swindon Town's 2011/12 season, supporters will look back at the contribution of Paolo Di Canio's loan acquisitions with fond memories. Goalkeeper Wes Foderingham has been a revelation in goal since joining from Crystal Palace, Liam Ridehalgh has added consistency to the defence while Jake Jervis has been a key player in attack. And should the Robins succeed in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy by reaching the final or even going all the way and winning at Wembley, Di Canio will be forever indebted to Ronan Murray.

Town were a goal down in the Southern Area Semi-Final against Paul Sturrock's then league leaders Southend United at Roots Hall before Paul Caddis' equaliser and a late winner from Murray sealed a dramatic victory.

"I was due to come on when we were 1-0 down, but 'Cad' [Paul Caddis] scored and the gaffer delayed bringing me on for about another ten minutes," explains Murray.

"He wanted to see how the game panned out. When the gaffer eventually brought me on he just said: 'Do your best and get us that goal'. Luckily enough I did and I must admit it was better coming on at 1-1 than 1-0 down because the momentum was with us after the equaliser. That made it easier for me; you could feel the confidence going through the team."

That confidence has continued to grow for both club and player. The 3-0 home victory against Morecambe saw Town extend their unbeaten run and Murray bag his second goal – a precise effort through a sea of legs following Matt Ritchie's cutback, to complete a fine team move – since making the temporary switch from Ipswich Town.

"The goal against Morecambe was probably better, but the one in the cup was definitely the more important of the two," explains the Irishman. "The goal at Southend meant more to the team. We had managed to get back into the game having been behind and to win it like that... we were all buzzing afterwards. Plus it was a header, and I don't get too many of them!" he laughs. "I just don't get many opportunities. What I try and do is take defenders away and move them around for others to get on the end of crosses and finish them off. My job is simply to buzz around and cause havoc!

"Scoring a goal always makes things easier for a new player. The lads had been brilliant with me from day one up until that game, but that felt like my way of re-paying both them and the fans for welcoming me here."

Murray's loan spell is set to end on January 14 unless the two clubs agree an extension. Di Canio will certainly hope Murray can wreak further havoc before he returns to his parent club. Certainly, when the Italian boss captured the 20-year old in mid-December he was excited about Murray's potential.

"We have been missing a player like him," said Di Canio ahead of Murray's arrival. "He offers something different. He is quick, nasty in that he is a competitor, and he is an Ireland Under-21 international. When we counterattack we need a player who can attack the space and who has courage. He is the kind of player who can get into that position, twist and turn and then smash the ball into the goal."

Murray's speed and predatory instincts have already served Di Canio well, but the move has worked both ways.

"There is a great strikeforce here. All the players have their own attributes and they're all different nationalities. I've learned a lot from different players at Ipswich and I'm learning new things here, too. The gaffer is brilliant in the training sessions. He's all about technique. He has a different mentality which means he speaks to players individually and gives everyone time and attention. It's brilliant. And because he was a great player you listen to everything he says. You always listen to what coaches tell you, but when someone like him pays so much attention to detail to things you feel you're getting more. His approach worked for him as a player and we can all identify with him because we grew up watching him on TV. We've seen what he can do first hand, so it's important to listen to what he has to say."

Murray suggests there isn't much between Swindon Town and Ipswich Town apart from the obvious differences between the divisions the two clubs play in. His previous experience of League Two came at Torquay United last season and while he admits that particular opportunity was beneficial, he's finding Swindon an altogether different proposition, one he hopes will prepare him for any opportunities that may follow his eventual return to Suffolk.

"There isn't a massive difference in the level of football," he continues. "The standard is simply a bit higher when it comes to the quality of the end product. For example, a League Two player might take a player on but not deliver a final ball, whereas in the Championship the quality of the cross will also be good.

"There are differences between Swindon and Torquay," he continues. "There is a much bigger fan base here and the club seems more stable and more suited to League One or higher. Torquay have limits but I have no doubt that if Swindon got promoted they'd not only stay up, they'd compete. There is a really strong team spirit here as well. I felt from day one that everyone is on a bit of a high. I'm very lucky to come into a team that's winning games and high on confidence. Everyone was very friendly and Alan [McCormack] in particular helped introduce me, a fellow Irishman, to the lads. Of course, every club has their own approach

"Chelsea had their strongest team out on the day and there were 46,000 inside Stamford Bridge. It was strange playing against players like Frank Lampard."

but I have been impressed by the level of professionalism for a League Two side. All the backroom staff are Italian and they have their own way of doing things, you just have to buy into that. It's been really good. I'm enjoying the experience and I have to say the fitness levels are very high. For me, the move has been brilliant so far. Two goals in four games, you can't really ask for more than that, so I'm just looking to kick on into the next game, and the one after that."

Murray has chosen a good time to go out on loan. The congested Christmas and New Year period means he will have had the opportunity to figure in nine games in his month-long spell.

"There are so many games," he says. "You never know what's going to happen with injuries and people being rested, so it's a great time to be here. This is when any squad comes together because there will be tiredness and injuries. The players who might not have played as many minutes as others are important at this time of year. All I can do is keep my head down, work hard and try and do my bit."

Murray will be hoping that if he can keep scoring he'll have the opportunity to start in the FA Cup third round tie against Wigan Athletic on Saturday. Every member of the Swindon playing squad will be keen to test themselves against Premier League opposition, something Murray did last year when the Tractor Boys' lost 7-0 against Chelsea at the same stage last season.

"That was an experience and a half!" he laughs. "I can't believe it's been a year since then, this year has really flown. Chelsea had their strongest team out on the day and there were 46,000 inside Stamford Bridge. It was strange playing against players like Frank Lampard, but you had to try and do your job for the team. It was a great experience to play against players of that calibre."

Ultimately Murray hopes he can take on quality players every week with Ipswich at Championship level. Beyond that, he harbours international ambitions. He's represented the Republic of Ireland at numerous levels including the Under-21s. For now, though, he admits establishing himself at club level is his priority and he's focusing on a strong second half of the season before putting his feet up and watching Giovanni Trapattoni's senior team compete at this summer's Euros.

"It'll be great to watch us out there because Ireland is in a bit of a state at the minute and it's something for people back home to look forward to. They always go mad during a tournament, so hopefully the team will do well and people can party while it's going on. Ireland had a tough group. At least now we're able to try and put that handball incident against France to the back of our minds!" Murray grimaces when he recalls Thierry Henry's controversial goal during Ireland's World Cup qualifying play-off defeat against France in 2009.

"I was actually on international duty in eastern Europe that night and the team were all gathered round the TV watching. We couldn't believe what we were seeing! It was unbelievable. But that's the way it goes, you win some you lose some!"

One thing's for sure, while Murray remains in the Swindon squad Di Canio will be hoping his side wins more than he loses.

AFC Wimbledon are the visitors to The County Ground today for what is the opening fixture of 2012. This fixture will of course evoke memories of meetings with Wimbledon and here's a memorable victory...

Swindon Town 4 Wimbledon 1

29 August 1981
Attn: 5,643

MANAGER John

Trotter had four new signings on view for this opening day clash, which was the first to be worth three points to the winners.

Gary Emmanuel came from Bristol Rovers in exchange for Brian Williams, with Mike Graham and Craig Moores both arriving from Bolton Wanderers. The fourth, Gary Williams - signed just three days earlier from Blackpool - and Town graduate Brian Hughes were the stars in a comprehensive home victory. Williams' raids down the left set up two of the goals while Hughes, aged just 19, scored one and had two assists.

Williams' pin point cross was met by a Roy Carter header at the far post to give Swindon a 15th minute lead. And another on 63 minutes saw the unchallenged Hughes put the hosts 3-0 up. The young midfielder had teed up Town's second nine minutes after the break. His clever back-heel from a free-kick allowed Graham to bend the ball round the defensive wall and into the top corner.

Steve Ketteridge reduced the arrears with 15 minutes to go, but the three-goal cushion was quickly restored when a stinging 15-yard shot from Hughes was nonchalantly diverted past covering defenders and the unsighted Dave Beasant by Roy Greenwood.

The unbeaten start was extended to five league games before inconsistency reigned as just three points were taken in 11 games from mid-October. And a final day defeat at Newport consigned Town to relegation, along with Wimbledon.

SWINDON TOWN:

Allan, Henry, Williams, Hughes, Lewis, Graham, Carter, Emmanuel, Rowland, Greenwood, Moores. Substitute not used. Rideout.

WIMBLEDON:

Beasant, Brown, Armstrong, Galliers, Smith, Jones, Ketteridge, Joseph, Leslie, Cork, Hodges (Gage)

On This Day

Saturday 2nd
January 1926

SWINDON recover in some style after going 2-0 down at Bournemouth at the County Ground in a Division Three (South) contest. They go on to win 8-2, with forward Frank Richardson, nicknamed 'Swerver', on Bend It Like Beckham form. He scored four times, with the other goals coming from Cyril Daniel (2), Jimmy Thompson and Charlie Petrie.

Monday 3rd
January 1994

SWINDON remain bottom of the Premier League after a televised 1-1 draw with Coventry City at Highfield Road. The audience watching on Sky see Town fall behind to a goal from former Swindon loanee

Roy Wegerle, but most don't realise that the game finished 1-1, with the broadcaster suffering technical problems right at the end of the game that caused a blackout. It means that Andy Mutch's equalizing volley is only seen by the viewing public via the joys of video tape after the match had finished.

- swindon town fitc trust - coaching in zambia

SWINDON Town Football in the Community Trust has recently returned from Zambia after completing a six-day coaching programme in Livingstone

THE five-person coaching team worked with over 300 youngsters and 35 Zambia Association coaches during their visit to Africa with the word of Swindon Town Football Club being spread far and wide.

The week started with the STFiTC team delivering a coaching session to local Under 17 Team, Nirmala FC on Monday evening with the evening being complete with a STFiTC 11-a-side match with the team.

Tuesday saw the launch of the Zambia Coaches Association Workshop with the association receiving their new STFC coaching tracksuits before taking the field for the practical element of the workshop. In the evening the STFiTC team delivered coaching practices to 20 local females and local Under 14 side Nirmala FC.

Wednesday saw the Zambia Coaches Association Workshop completed with all the coaches returning to go through another set of warm up drills and technical sessions. The coaches also went away with a new set of Swindon Town coaching kit and essential coaching material. The evening saw the local Under 17's girls and boys return for their second coaching session.

Thursday saw Jon, Beth and Clive deliver a one-hour coaching session to local school, Nakitindi. The team worked with over 20 children at the school whilst also getting a village tour by local coach Charles. Luke and Tim were at Bhurati Sports Ground for a skills-based session. The children also went away with a football shirt each from the donations delivered to Zambia the week before.

The coaching programme in Zambia was completed on Friday with 16 teams of Under 17's Boys and 5 under 17's Girls teams taking part in the 2nd STFiTC Festival of Football. The 21 teams all received a donation box consisting of a full playing kit, t shirts, junior and adult football boots and trainers.

Amit Rama, who was instrumental in the STFiTC coaching programme, was presented with a Swindon Town first team shirt which is now proudly displayed in the clubhouse at Bhurati Sports Ground.

Saturday evening saw the STFiTC team and Coaches from the Zambia Coaches Association come together to celebrate the week's success. STFiTC were presented with individual gifts including a handmade beaded STFC logo whilst all Zambian Coaches received their certificate recognition for their attendance to the Coaching Workshop. One hundred hand-stitched Alive and Kicking footballs were distributed to each individual team coach and to various schools and youth groups throughout the coaching programme.

STFiTC would like to thank all the individuals and teams that have donated kit, money, footballs and much more to the 2011 appeal and it is kindly appreciated by the STFiTC team and residents of Africa.

Best goal I have ever scored...

It was in the FA Cup third round for Forest Green Rovers against Derby County a couple of years ago - a volley from 35 yards into the top corner!

What are your favourite restaurants in and around Swindon...

1st Fratello's

3rd Rendezvous

2nd Chiquito's

4th Frankie & Benny's

Reason...

Rafa introduced me to Fratello's at the start of the season and we go quite a bit.

What makes you angry?

Traffic and losing football games. The traffic in the mornings can be annoying at times and like any player, I hate losing.

Name one Town player who could hold their own on Strictly Come Dancing and why...

Ronan Murray because he showed some good moves at the recent club Christmas party. He's Irish and knows his way around the dance floor!

Favourite film star...

Jim Carrey is pretty funny. I'm not a big watcher of films but I remember Ace Ventura from when I was younger and that made me laugh.

Which papers or magazines do you read?

Matchday Programme

The Sun

Men's Health

FourFourTwo Magazine

Reason...

FourFourTwo is a good read and it certainly helps pass the time on the coach to away games.

MUG SHOT

Who is the most famous person you have met?

The whole Arsenal team! I was a ball-boy at Preston North End as a kid and they played Arsenal in the FA Cup so I got to meet the whole team after the game including Bergkamp, Overmars and Petit.

On Saturday Town play Wigan Athletic at The County Ground. How many friends and family will you have down?

It's a big game for the club and for me personally as Wigan are Preston's local rivals and that's where I'm from. I've got around ten family and friends coming down for the game, including my Mum, Dad, my sister as well as some of my friends.

swindon town hall of Fame

THE first three members of the STFC Hall of Fame were inducted at the last home game against Morecambe. Today, the second set of legends will join the Hall of Fame and here are their profiles ahead of their induction.

MAURICE OWEN made an immediate impact with Swindon, scoring a hat-trick on his first appearance. A one-club man, he went on to make 601 appearances which is the second highest number in the club's history. His playing career stretched from 1947 to 1963 and he brought the curtain down on his playing days in fine style as club captain of the first ever Swindon promotion winning side.

During his career he scored no fewer than 165 goals making him the fourth highest scorer in the club's history. This is a record made more noteworthy by the fact that he was the club's leading scorer in six seasons. When his playing career was over he showed his versatility when serving the club as assistant secretary, trainer and groundsman. An England 'B' international, he turned down the opportunity to move to more fashionable clubs in higher divisions in order to stay loyal to Swindon Town.

ROGER SMART was a Swindon-born player who rose up through the ranks and went on to make 411 appearances between 1962 and 1973. Among the 59 goals he scored for the club were two of the most memorable in its history. First, his last-minute effort against Shrewsbury in 1963 clinched promotion for the first time in Swindon's history. Then in 1969, he scored the first goal at Wembley which set Town on the road to victory over Arsenal.

A youngster who scored five goals in just ten outings in the club's first promotion winning campaign of 1962/63 he was a seasoned professional in Danny Williams side of 1968/69 which achieved the double of League Cup and promotion. The following year he was an ever-present in the Town side that finished fifth in Division Two.

JOE BUTLER signed for Swindon from his native Newcastle in 1965. Signed as a full-back he soon settled down to the role in defensive midfield, a role in which he featured in Swindon's double season of 1968/69 when they won promotion and the League Cup. Between 1965 and 1976 he made 428 appearances and despite being used in a mainly defensive capacity still managed to weigh in with 22 goals. He was ever present in the 1969/70 Season in which Swindon secured fifth place in Division Two, the highest in the club's history, and won the Anglo Italian Cup Winners Cup and the Anglo Italian Inter league Cup. His efforts in this season won him the accolade of being Town's Player of the Year, an award he was to win again in the 1972/73 Season. His tireless running and ability to pop up when most needed earned him the nickname 'Zebedee' among his fellow professionals. Danny Williams rated him one of his best ever signings and the recommendation he came with of being a great little competitor certainly proved true and earned him a richly deserved testimonial game in 1975.

ALAN McLOUGHLIN was signed from Manchester United in 1986 and he made a big impact playing 135 games and scoring 24 goals from midfield. In 1989/90 he scored no fewer than 12 goals during the league season. He scored the play-off final winner against Sunderland at Wembley – earning Town a brief promotion to the top-flight. Pushed back into the second tier by the Football League the following season, McLoughlin was sold to Southampton for a club record fee of £1 million. His appearances as a substitute for the Republic of Ireland against Egypt and England made him the first Swindon player to appear in a World Cup and he went on to win 42 caps.

I have been on for a couple of years now and use it mainly to chat to friends back home in Ireland. It's a good way of keeping in touch with them and what they're up to.

my music...

At the moment I'm listening to a lot of Coldplay, Linkin Park and Ed Sheeran who has a lot of good stuff out. I have an iPod as well so have most of my music on there.

I haven't been on there long and have only just got the hang of it. I use it quite a bit and follow Aden Flint because he's the banter king.

text me...

I got a text from my girlfriend once asking why Ipswich weren't in the World Cup. I didn't reply!

best app...

Just the usual! Messenger is a favourite with a lot of the lads and I also have the Facebook App and the Twitter one too. What's App is also pretty good.

call me...

One of my close friends rung me up recently and had a few issues with his accommodation. I can't say what it was but he had been put up in quite a bad area and had a few problems. It was hilarious.

in the diary...

Golf is one of my favourite ways to relax but due to the weather I haven't played much lately. Back home in Ipswich there are a few good courses such as Ufford Park. Since I have been at Swindon I have been to the cinema quite a bit.

HOPEFULLY all Town fans enjoyed their Christmas and enjoyed the New Year's Eve celebrations. Now we can look forward to a successful 2012!

AT our last home match of 2011 against Morecambe the STFC Supporters Club were main Match Sponsors and those Members lucky to win in our free draw enjoyed a tremendous day out in The Sponsor's Suite.

FA Youth Cup Match Sponsorship

CONGRATULATIONS to the STFC Under 18's on their fine win over Birmingham City in the FA Youth Cup. Their reward is a home fourth round tie with Premier League giants Manchester City and the game will be played at The County Ground on Tuesday 17th January.

Once again the STFC Supporters Club are anticipating being Match Sponsors for this match, which should see the return of Alex Henshall to SN1. Alex is a fine example of the work done in the STFC youth department we have supported over the years. Whilst in Swindon colours, Alex won the most valuable player award in the Junior Section of the Northern Ireland Milk Cup, before going on to secure a number of England caps.

The Milk Cup trip is one that the Supporters Club have supported financially for a good number of years. The rewards of seeing players develop, not just as individuals, but in terms of generating money for STFC is a worthy cause which we continue to support through our fundraising.

Brochure launch

WE launched our new brochure at the match against Morecambe, which we hope will be of interest to fans both old and new. This will be available at The County Ground including the away travel office, so please drop in and pick up a copy.

Newsletter

HOPEFULLY STFC Supporters Club Members will now have received the December newsletter. If you are reading these notes and have already received your newsletter, then please do take part as there are some fantastic competitions included with great prizes available.

Do you consider yourself a defender who can do a job in midfield, or a midfielder who can do a job in defence?

Swindon Town FC and 28 people like this.

Oliver Risser

I'm always happy to be playing so either would be alright but in general I prefer playing in midfield.

Marc Harris ▶ Oliver Risser

Do you have any pre-match rituals that you'd care to share?

Swindon Town FC and 4 people like this.

Oliver Risser

Nothing too particular in terms of a ritual, but before each game I put on my right boot before my left one!

Benjamin Wills ▶ Oliver Risser

Who is the best player in the Namibian national side and how do you rate your chances of qualifying for world cup 2014?

Swindon Town FC and 12 people likes this.

Oliver Risser

We have a new set-up and a new team but Sidney Urikob is the biggest prospect. As a smaller footballing African country, the chances of qualification are much slimmer.
